CONGRESSMAN WALLY HERGER ANNOUNCES U.S. ACADEMY APPOINTMENTS

(Chico, CA) -- Three students from the 2nd Congressional District have been offered appointments to the United States Service Academies. Congressman Wally Herger nominated these students.

The appointments are:

- Kevin McFerrin, an Anderson Union High School student, appointed to the U.S. Military Academy (West Point)
- Jack Raine II, a Dunsmuir High School student, appointed to the U.S. Naval Academy
- Troy Robison, a Sutter Union High School student, appointed to the U.S. Air Force Academy

Herger stated, "The candidates, their families, teachers and friends should be proud. Each appointee is a sterling example of a fine young American."

Congressman Herger's office is currently accepting applications for nominations for the Class of 2011. For additional information and applicable forms, please visit <http://www.house.gov/herger/constit.htm>
