

2008 CONGRESSIONAL ART COMPETITION

“AN ARTISTIC DISCOVERY”

Enter for a chance to have your artwork displayed at the U.S. Capitol in Washington, D.C.!

High school students are encouraged to submit their original artwork to Congressman Rick Larsen’s office. The winning student is invited to attend a ribbon-cutting ceremony and reception unveiling their artwork at the Capitol in Washington, D.C.

Artwork categories: Painting, Drawing, Collage, Prints, Mixed Media, Computer Generated Art, Photography. Art must be two-dimensional and no larger than 30”x 30” when framed.

Entries are due by April 30, 2008.

For full guidelines and information please see attached information sheet or visit:

<http://www.house.gov/larsen/art.shtml>

Questions? Contact Julie Housh, (202) 225-2605