Alexander Appoints Louisiana Native To Legislative Correspondent

WASHINGTON, D.C. – U.S. Rep. Rodney Alexander, R-Quitman, today announced that Lauren Wegmann has been promoted to legislative correspondent.

Wegmann, a 2004 graduate of Academy of the Sacred Heart and 2008 graduate of College of Charleston, joined Alexander's staff as an intern in October.

As an intern, Wegmann's duties included leading tours of the U.S. Capitol building for constituents visiting Washington as well as assisting Alexander's staff with legislative correspondence, research and communications.

Alexander said Wegmann's Louisiana roots and her accomplishments as an intern have prepared her to succeed in this new role.

“With her enthusiasm, intelligence and commitment to reaching her goals, I have no doubt that Lauren will go far, said Alexander.

“We are very fortunate to have her on board as a member of our staff.”
