- 1) Innovation and entrepreneurship, particularly in the high technology industry, helped propel the economic growth of the 1990s, and will continue to be the essential building blocks of economic growth in the 21st century.
  - (2) Broad-based employee stock option plans enable entrepreneurs and corporations to attract quality workers, to incentivize worker innovation, and to stimulate productivity, which in turn increase shareholder value.
  - (3) Broad-based employee stock options plans that expand corporate ownership to rank-and-file employees spur capital formation, benefit workers, and improve corporate performance to the benefit of investors and the economy.
  - (4) Concerns raised about the impact of employee stock option plans on shareholder value raise legitimate issues relevant to the current level of disclosure and transparency of those plans to current and potential investors.
  - (5) Investors deserve to have accurate, reliable, and meaningful information about the existence of outstanding employee stock options and their impact on the share value of a going concern.

1	SEC. 3. IMPROVED EMPLOYEE STOCK OPTION TRANS
2	PARENCY AND REPORTING DISCLOSURES.
3	(a) Enhanced Disclosures Required.—Not later
4	than 180 days after the enactment of this Act, the Securi-
5	ties and Exchange Commission (hereafter referred to as
6	the "Commission") shall, by rule, require, for each com-
7	pany filing periodic reports under section 13(a) or 15(d)
8	of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78m,
9	78o(d)), that such reports include more detailed informa-
10	tion regarding stock option plans, stock purchase plans,
11	and other arrangements involving an employee acquisition
12	of an equity interest in the company, particularly with re-
13	spect to the dilutive effect of such plans, including—
14	(1) a discussion, written in "plain English" (in
15	accordance with the Plain English Handbook pub-
16	lished by the Office of Investor Education and As-
17	sistance of the Commission), of the dilutive effect of
18	stock option plans, including tables or graphic illus-
19	trations of such dilutive effects;
20	(2) expanded disclosure of the dilutive effect of
21	employee stock options on the company's earnings
22	per share number;
23	(3) prominent placement and increased com-
24	parability of all stock option related information
25	and

- 1 (4) a summary of the stock options granted to
- 2 the 5 most highly compensated executive officers of
- 3 the company, including any outstanding stock op-
- 4 tions of those officers.
- 5 (b) EQUITY INTEREST.—As used in this section, the
- 6 term "equity interest" includes common stock, preferred
- 7 stock, stock appreciation rights, phantom stock, and any
- 8 other security that replicates the investment characteris-
- 9 tics of such securities, and any right or option to acquire
- 10 any such security.
- 11 SEC. 4. EVALUATION OF EMPLOYEE STOCK OPTION PLANS
- 12 TRANSPARENCY AND REPORTING DISCLO-
- 13 SURES AND REPORT TO CONGRESS.
- (a) Study and Report.—The Commission shall ex-
- 15 amine the effectiveness of the enhanced disclosures re-
- 16 quired in Section 3 in increasing transparency to current
- 17 and potential investors during the 3-year period following
- 18 the issuance of a final rule pursuant to section 3(a). Not
- 19 later than 180 days after the end of such 3-year period,
- 20 the Commission shall transmit a report to the Committee
- 21 on Financial Services of the House of Representatives and
- 22 the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs
- 23 of the Senate.
- 24 (b) Moratorium on New Accounting Standards
- 25 Related to Stock Options.—Beginning on the date of

1	enactment of this Act and continuing until the trans-
2	mission of the report required under subsection (a), the
3	Commission shall not recognize as generally accepted ac-
4	counting principles any new accounting standards related
5	to the treatment of stock options.
6	SEC. 5. STUDY ON THE ECONOMIC IMPACT OF BROAD-
7	BASED EMPLOYEE STOCK OPTION PLANS
8	AND REPORT TO CONGRESS.
9	(a) Study.—The Secretary of Commerce shall con-
10	duct a study and analysis of broad-based employee stock
11	option plans, particularly in the high technology and any
12	other high growth industries. Such study and analysis
13	shall include an examination of the following issues:
14	(1) The impact of such plans on expanding em-
15	ployee corporate ownership to workers at a wide-
16	range of income levels, with a particular focus on
17	rank-and-file employees.
18	(2) The role of such plans in the recruitment
19	and retention of skilled workers.
20	(3) The role of such plans in stimulating re-
21	search and innovation.
22	(4) Their impact on the economic growth of the United States.

23

1	(5) The role of such plans in strengthening the
2	international competitiveness of companies organized
3	under the laws of the United States.
4	(b) Report.—Not later than 1 year after the date
5	of enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall submit a re-
6	port and analysis of the study required by subsection (a)
7	to—
8	(1) the Committee on Energy and Commerce
9	and the Committee on Financial Services of the
10	House of Representatives; and
11	(2) the Committee on Commerce, Science, and
12	Transportation and the Committee on Banking,
13	Housing, and Urban Affairs of the Senate.
