

Year One in Congress

April 2009 – April 2010

[THE QUIGLEY CHRONICLES]

*“At 5-foot-7 and 150 pounds, he’s brought to Capitol Hill the same sort of damn-the-consequences, into-the-boards style he first displayed as an amateur hockey player and later translated into political terms as a reform member of the Cook County Board ... In Washington—a place that relies on tradition and connections even more than Chicago does—Mr. Quigley has been his hard-hitting self.

On the reform stuff, he’s not backing off ... He has a wider agenda, which includes everything from promoting gay rights to lifting U.S. visa restrictions on visitors from Poland, and, in person, is anything but an ideologue.”

– Greg Hinz, Crain’s Chicago Business Journal, March 8, 2010

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

After serving Illinois' 5th District for one year in Congress, U.S. Representative Mike Quigley has accomplished a volume of work in a comprehensive range of issue areas.

From health care to job creation to immigration reform to equal rights, Quigley has brought his tenacious and commonsense approach to government from Cook County to Washington. Since his election to Congress one year ago and for the decade prior as a Cook County Commissioner, Rep. Quigley has made reform, transparency, and fiscal responsibility the cornerstones of his legislative agenda. An ardent environmentalist who entered politics to conserve the earth, Quigley has not forgotten his roots or the voters who sent him to Washington.

Quigley believes that the greatest cost of corruption and inefficiency is the public's trust. He believes it is incredibly difficult to govern without it and has committed himself to doing what is right – even when it's not what is most popular – to regain it.

The following are highlights of what Quigley and his office have done both in Washington and at home in Chicago since April, 2009.

ABOUT MIKE QUIGLEY

Mike Quigley was elected to Congress to represent Illinois' 5th District on April 7, 2009. A former Cook County Commissioner, Quigley has served his community for over twenty years.

He began his career serving as an aide to former 44th Ward Alderman Bernie Hansen and became a champion for environmental protection, equal rights, and ethical, open government.

As the Commissioner from Cook County's 10th District, Quigley fought for transparency, accountability, and fiscal responsibility, earning the reputation as an honest and effective leader on reform.

During his time on the Cook County Board of Commissioners, Quigley sponsored every piece of major environmental legislation adopted by Cook County government, and still regularly participates in local clean-up and restoration efforts, earning him awards from the Audubon Society and the Sierra Club. The Chicago Reader has said he is "arguably the greenest elected official in Chicago."

Quigley has also fought for equal rights for those in the LGBT community, additional protections for victims of domestic abuse, and a woman's right to choose.

A staunch advocate for government reform and accountability, Quigley wrote several revolutionary reports laying out detailed plans for the "reinventing" of Cook County government, to make it more efficient and more responsive to its citizens.

Quigley did his undergraduate work at Roosevelt University, earned a master's degree in public policy from the University of Chicago, and a law degree from the Loyola University School of Law, all in Chicago. He also served as an adjunct professor of political science at Loyola University Chicago and Roosevelt University, lecturing on politics, the environment and local government. He was a practicing lawyer for almost twenty years.

Quigley lives with his wife Barbara, daughters Alyson and Meghan, and two dogs in Chicago's Lakeview neighborhood where he has lived since 1982. In his free time, he roots for the Cubs, Blackhawks, and enjoys playing ice hockey.

As a member of the House Committee on Oversight and Governmental Reform, Mike has the opportunity to work to eliminate waste, fraud, and abuse, while increasing transparency and making government more responsive to its constituents:

- The Subcommittee on Government Management, Organization, and Procurement has jurisdiction over management of government operations, reorganizations of the executive branch, and federal procurement.
- The Subcommittee on National Security and Foreign Affairs has jurisdiction over oversight of national security, homeland security, and foreign affairs.

CHOICE

See also: Health Care

Congressman Quigley believes that our first order of business is to prevent unintended pregnancies and by supporting organizations with family planning services, we can do just that. Education and communication are principal factors that will deter unplanned pregnancies. That said, Mike believes that a woman's right to choose is just that – her right – and will continue to fight tirelessly to protect it.

Protecting Choice in Health Care Reform

- Worked closely with pro-choice members to ensure abortion rights and family planning services are included in the House health care reform bill
- Successfully whipped for the Pro- Choice Caucus to stop the passage of the Stupak-Pitts amendment that prevents women from paying for abortions with their own private dollars
- Was one of only two men to speak on the floor in opposition to the Stupak-Pitts anti-choice amendment to the House healthcare bill
- Signed onto a letter to House Speaker Nancy Pelosi promising not to vote for a final healthcare bill that includes language like the Stupak amendment that further restricts a woman's right to choose
- Led the charge against the inclusion of anti-choice language in the final health care bill and refused to support a final health care bill that would compromise a woman's right to choose until leadership pledged not to allow for a side-deal or amendment that would allow Rep. Stupak's anti-choice language back into the bill. Since leadership needed his support, Quigley was able to help pass reform while also protecting a woman's right to choose by using his vote strategically.

“The problem for Pelosi is that if she gets Stupak on board, she may lose abortion rights legislators, such as Rep. Mike Quigley (Ill.).”

– The Hill, 3/21/2010

- Voted against the Motion to Recommit (MTR, last-chance amendment) on the final health care bill which included the anti-choice Stupak-Pitts language
- Working closely with Rep. DeGette to ensure that when implementing the Nelson provision in the Senate bill,

HHS mitigates the harmful effects of the language (e.g. allowing women to write one check per year to pay for abortion coverage rather than a separate check each month)

Protecting Choice in Other Legislation

- Spoke out on the House floor against Rep. Pence's amendment to cut Title X funds to Planned Parenthood for family planning and basic preventive and primary care services such as breast cancer and cervical cancer screenings
- Signed Rep. Slaughter's letter to OMB Director Orzag requesting $1 billion for international family planning funding, with $65 million for UNFPA
- Issued a statement commemorating the 37th Anniversary of the Roe v. Wade Supreme Court decision

“Why, when we are working so diligently to reform our health care system, would we take away the only source of health care many women receive?”

“For over eight months this body has strived to overcome the health care inequalities in our country. But this [Stupak] amendment disrupts that sense of equality. This amendment says only women who can afford insurance deserve access to reproductive health care... that women who need a little help paying for health care have to surrender their right to privacy... It is wrong, and we should oppose it.”

CLIMATE CHANGE, CLEAN ENERGY

As a Cook County Commissioner and now a Member of Congress, Mike has worked tirelessly for environmentally-conscious government. He believes innovative environmental and energy policy is necessary to combat increasing carbon

“...he joined politics for a singular reason: to fight for the environment.”

Washington Independent, 4/8/09

emissions which endanger our planet’s environmental health. His goals include promoting renewable energy and common sense policy to safeguard our natural resources for future generations. Mike also believes that renewable energy can be a cornerstone of sustainable economic growth, creating jobs and spurring economic development while simultaneously cutting our reliance on foreign energy sources.

- Voted for the American Clean Energy and Security Act (ACES) – to create cleaner air, jobs, improve health, protect the environment, and make us more energy independent
- Authored H.Res.1106, a resolution to “commend the United States Army for its achievements in and commitment to environmental sustainability and energy security.” Additionally Mike toured the Pentagon and met with officials from the Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Army, Installations and Environment, to discuss energy efficiency initiatives within the Army.

Protecting Our Wildlife

- Introduced the Federal Birdsafe Buildings Bill, H.R. 4797, which calls for each public building constructed, acquired, or altered by the General Services Administration (GSA) to incorporate, to the maximum extent possible, bird-safe building materials and design features
- Cosponsored H.R. 3398, the Protect America's Wildlife Act of 2009, which amends the Fish and Wildlife Act of 1956 to impose criminal penalties on anyone who knowingly violates any regulation prohibiting the shooting or harassing of birds, fish, or other animals from aircraft (airborne hunting)
- Cosponsored H.R. 2807, the America's Wildlife Heritage Act which sets forth requirements concerning the maintenance of viable populations of existing native and desired non-native species within each planning area in the National Forest System's or the Bureau of Land Management's (BLM) public lands. Signed on to numerous additional measures extending protection under the National Wilderness Preservation System and Wild and Scenic Rivers Act

"We have to remember that the cost of inaction far outweighs today's price tag. Energy costs are on the rise due to increased demand, and we're on an unsustainable path that will increase costs much more if we don't take action now."

Conserving Natural Resources – Clean Air & Water

- Participated in Great Lakes Week in Washington; cosponsored H.R. 4755, Great Lakes Ecosystem Protection Act of 2010, which is supported overwhelmingly by the Great Lakes community:
 - Authorizes the Great Lakes Restoration Initiative at $475 million/year which is the level of funding initially proposed by the President
 - Authorizes a new advisory group to the EPA. It is a 2-tiered group which is loosely modeled on the GLRC
 - Authorizes the Federal Interagency Task Force which was established in 2004 by Executive Order which means that it could be dissolved by Executive Order
 - Reauthorizes the Great Lakes Legacy Act which expires in 2010. The authority is for $150 million/year, the level recommended by the GLRC Strategy Report
 - Reauthorizes EPA's GLNPO at level funding ($25 million)
- Encouraged the Environmental Protection Agency to demand accountability from BP for their alleged Clean Air Act violations at its Whiting refinery
- Worked with the Great Lakes Task Force to support $475 million for the clean-up and restoration of the Great Lakes and Great Lake states
- Made floor statement on the fallacy of "clean coal"
- Cosponsored a letter asking the Transportation and Infrastructure Committee to establish a "clear policy, standard and guidance to ensure that all new construction and major retrofits of federal-aid roadways reduce or eliminate related stormwater discharges, mimic pre-construction hydrology to the maximum extent practicable, and are designed and constructed to restore and maintain water quality of local waterbodies."

Sustainable Communities – Buildings, Roads

- Original cosponsor of H.R. 4690, the Livable Communities Act, which funds regional planning to make our communities more livable. This funding will be available to implement sustainable development projects.
- Drafted an amendment for the series of appropriations bills that would mandate federal buildings to be constructed in compliance with green standards

- Cosponsored H.R. 3734, the Urban Revitalization and Livable Communities Act, which requires the Secretary of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to establish an urban revitalization and livable communities program to provide federal grants to eligible general purpose local governments for various park and recreation purposes, including grants for rehabilitation and construction, innovation, at-risk youth recreation, and recovery programs

Environmental Education

- Introduced and passed a bill to support the comprehensive initiatives of the Chicago Wilderness Alliance and the “Children’s Outdoor Bill of Rights,” which is designed to promote the outdoors as a vital part of childhood education. Quigley introduced the bill – H. Res. 860 – to encourage lawmakers to build and support coalitions between advocacy groups and education policymakers, modeled off of a recent effort in Chicago to promote environmental literacy.

- Cosponsored the No Child Left Inside Act, H.R. 2054, one piece of the larger bill, No Child Left Behind, which amends the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 to include resources for environmental education.

“An advocate for conservation, recycling, and eco-friendly construction, he’s arguably the greenest elected official in Chicago.”

- The Chicago Reader, 9/22/06

- Sent a letter to Dr. Christopher Koch, Illinois State Board of Education, in support of a state Environmental Literacy Plan

Vehicle Standards

- Voted for “Cash for Clunkers” to provide vouchers worth up to $4,500 if consumers trade in an older car or truck getting 18 mpg or less for a more efficient vehicle. The program promotes cleaner air, helps families buy a new car, and supports the auto industry.
- Gave floor speech commending President Obama’s announcement of new mileage standards (CAFÉ), which will reduce carbon emissions 30% by 2016 and reduce our dependence on foreign oil

Other Efforts

- Sent a letter to Dept. Homeland Security Secretary Napolitano calling for greater efforts to mitigate the environmental degradation being caused by the construction and maintenance of the Mexican border wall

- Cosponsored H.R. 3692, the National Forest Roadless Area Conservation Act which identifies roadless areas within the National Forest System set forth in specified maps as National Forest Inventoried Roadless Areas, and directs the Secretary of Agriculture to manage such Areas to maintain their roadless character
- Signed on to a letter, along with members of the Great Lakes Task Force, addressed to EPA Administrator Jackson, amongst others, urging action on the Asian Carp. Signed on to H.R. 3173, the Asian Carp Prevention and Control Act to add the bighead carp to the list of injurious species that are prohibited from being shipped or imported into the United States
- Frequently participates in clean-and-green work days in district, rides his bike all over D.C. (even to events at the White House!), and recently went “fishing” for Asian Carp with the Illinois Department of Natural Resources

CONSTITUENT SERVICE AND COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Upon taking office, Congressman Quigley placed a high priority on excellent constituent service and community outreach. He expanded his District Office staff to include additional and multi-lingual caseworkers, extended his office hours, and makes himself accessible at various “satellite” offices (“Congress on Your Corner,” “Congress at Your Company”) whenever his voting schedule permits.

Quigley’s dedicated casework staff has assisted hundreds of constituents who need help cutting through the red tape on a variety of federal issues, including Social Security, Medicare, immigration/visas, passports, loan modifications, requests for flags and commendations, veterans’ benefits, federal employment, the post office, service academy nominations, grants, and more.

CASEWORK SUCCESS STORY: NO MORE PROBLEMS AT THE PHARMACY

A constituent was eligible for Medicare Part D and Medicaid and should not have been paying anything for her prescriptions. However, when she went to the pharmacy to pick up her prescription, she was told that her medicines were not covered and would cost her $200. After borrowing money from a family member to purchase the medicine that she needed, she contacted Quigley’s district office. In one day, Mike’s staff was able to work with the Department of Human Services to get the correct benefit information to the pharmacist. The constituent can now receive the prescriptions she needs at no cost. In addition, staff was able to secure a refund of the $200 from her first prescription.

EDUCATION

Congressman Quigley believes that an investment in our children's education is an investment our country's future, both economically and socially. The importance of providing our kids the best possible education cannot be overstated, especially as so many Americans battle economic hardship. Mike believes that rebuilding our economy in a sustainable way begins with education and policy should reflect that reality.

- Quigley's first cosponsored bill to become law was the Civil Rights Oral History Project, H.R. 586, which establishes a national program to collect and preserve the personal stories of individuals who were involved in the American Civil Rights movement so that these first-hand testimonials will be available for educational and public use. Quigley joined fellow cosponsors for the bill signing in the Oval Office with President Obama.

- Voted for the Student Aid and Fiscal Responsibility Act, which makes the largest investment in higher education since the GI Bill following World War II by expanding high-quality education opportunities to all American students. The bill requires all new Federal student loans to originate with the Federal government, rather than private lenders, saving millions that can be reinvested into the education system. Specifically, the bill invests $36 billion in Pell Grants, caps monthly student loan payments at 10 percent of discretionary income, forgives all remaining debt after 20 years, and invests $2 billion community colleges.
- Cosponsored H.R. 2597, the Positive Behavior for Safe and Effective Schools Act, which allows schools to increase implementation of school-wide positive behavior programs
- Cosponsored H.R. 3545, the Full-Service Community Schools Act of 2009, which authorizes $200 million/year for five years to fund grants that support “full-service” schools that coordinate social service programs and build community-based organizations

- Gave a speech supporting higher-education at Jesuit Educators conference

- Cosponsored H.R. 2262 – the Safe Schools Improvement Act to amend the Safe and Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act to include bullying and harassment prevention programs
- Visited several schools in the district to discuss programs and needs with students, parents, and teachers

EQUALITY (LGBT)

See also: HIV/AIDS, Foreign Affairs, Health Care

Mike firmly believes in President Abraham Lincoln's vision, shared nearly 150 years ago, that our country is on an evolutionary path to full equality for all Americans and that our fight for human rights is ongoing. Whether it's fighting for marriage equality, fighting against senseless discrimination, or fighting on behalf of those who cannot defend themselves, Mike believes that we must be guided by doing what's right, what's fair, and what's just. His first co-sponsorship in the House was a bill to strengthen federal hate crimes legislation, and he believes it is our moral obligation to ensure justice for all, and not allow race, gender, religion, or sexual orientation to divide us.

Immigration Equality

- Working with Rep. Gutierrez to include the Uniting American Families Act, H.R. 1024, in the Comprehensive Immigration Reform Bill; Spoke on the House floor and signed a letter to the President and Congressional leaders expressing the sentiment that "comprehensive" reform must include LGBT binational couples
- Was the co-lead of a letter to President Obama and House and Senate leaders to express strong support for a comprehensive immigration reform bill which would end discrimination against LGBT binational families

"It saddens me to think that the struggle for immigration reform, a movement based on the fundamental principles of equality could push on without including LGBT families."

Repealing "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" (DADT)

- Supported H.R. 1283 - the Military Readiness Enhancement Act – which would essentially repeal the military's "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" policy, and made a strong statement to the media as well. The effort has picked up steam in light of recent comments made by the President, Former Vice President Dick Cheney, and Adm. Mullen

- Signed onto Rep. Hastings' letter urging President to issue an executive order to immediately suspend policy
- In October, spoke on the House floor honoring 2nd Lt. Sandy Tsao, who came out as a lesbian in the United States Army and then wrote the President to tell him she could no longer serve her country because she is a lesbian. Also spoke honoring Lee Reinhart, Operation Specialist in the Navy. Lee earned the respect of his command while serving openly in one tour of duty and then ended up in a less accepting command and being discharged.
- In an effort to increase transparency on the effects the DADT policy has on our military and by extension our national defense, signed a letter to the Secretary of Defense requesting data on the current number of DADT discharges since January 1, 2009 to the present. Also requested monthly reports thereafter to Congress detailing the number of and information about enlisted service members and officers discharged under the policy

"I recently had the humbling opportunity to travel to Iraq and the Middle East. I didn't see soldiers who were black or white, men or women, straight or gay, Democrats or Republicans. I saw Americans."

Recognition in the U.S. Census

- Signed letter to Peter Orszag (Director of the Office on Management and Budget) on the recognition of same-sex couples in the census. While the Defense of Marriage Act prohibits federal programs from recognizing same-sex marriage, the letter indicated that Mike believes it does not prohibit the Census Bureau from leaving unaltered the answers of same-sex couples.
- Sent a personal letter to the President on the issue of same-sex couples being recognized in the 2010 census. The Administration and Bureau have indicated progress.

The Obama administration was under pressure to change the Census policy. Rep. Mike Quigley (D., Ill.) sent a letter Tuesday to Mr. Obama, urging him to order the bureau to release same-sex marriage data as part of its standard tabulation of the 2010 Census.

-Wall Street Journal, 6/19/09

Marriage Equality

- Original co-sponsor of the Respect for Marriage Act of 2009, H.R. 3567, which would replace the Defense of Marriage Act that defines marriage as between a man and a woman

Passed and signed into law by President

Workplace Equality (ENDA, Domestic Partner Benefits)

“Rep. Mike Quigley hasn’t masked his disdain for politicians’ willingness to upload anti-gay policies.”
-Progress Illinois, 9/15/09

- Sent letter to President Obama expressing serious concerns about the grave injustice occurring in Uganda and other countries that are taking steps to criminalize or otherwise severely discriminate against their LGBT communities. Sent another letter to Ugandan President Museveni urging him to use every means possible to convey to leaders in Parliament that this appalling bill is reckless in both intent and possible impact, and should be withdrawn immediately.

HEALTH CARE

Mike believes that comprehensive health care reform is vital to our citizens and future prosperity of the nation. He was proud to support the historic passage of a health care reform package that will extend coverage to 32 million Americans, end the abusive practices of insurance companies, and begin to curb skyrocketing costs. With 47 million uninsured Americans and insurance premiums doubling in the last eight years and increasing 3.7 times faster than wages, the status quo was unsustainable for families and businesses. Although the health care bills passed by Congress will go a long way toward mending our broken system, Mike knows that this is the beginning of reform, not the end.

The Historic Fight for Health Care Reform

- Created a healthcare advisory council in the district with a variety of members to gather local input on healthcare issues
- Spoke on the floor on the need for health care reform; “The status quo is unsustainable.”
- Signed letter from Rep. Polis to leadership asking them to consider the needs of small businesses when developing a surtax
- Voted for the House health care bill – H.R.3962, the Affordable Health Care for America Act
- Was one of only two men to speak in opposition to the Stupak-Pitts anti-choice amendment to the House healthcare bill
- Sent several letters to leadership urging the inclusion of key provisions in the final bill such as closing the Medicare prescription drug donut hole, ending the antitrust exemption enjoyed by insurance companies, retaining cost-curbing delivery system reforms, protecting Disproportionate Share (DSH) payments to all safety-net hospitals, and protecting middle-class workers from taxes on their insurance plans
- Sent letter to leadership requesting that the DSH payment cuts within the health care reform bill exempt children’s hospitals due to their unique position

- Sent letter to Speaker Pelosi urging her to retain the provision that allows the Secretary of HHS to negotiate Medicare Part D drug prices in the health reform bill
- Spearheaded letter to leadership urging that the final health care bill would ensure Illinois hospitals were able to access newly-available residency positions to train needed physicians
- Voted for the Senate-passed health care bill, H.R. 3590, and the reconciliation or “fixes” bill, H.R. 4872
- Led the charge against the inclusion of anti-choice language in the final health care bill and refused to support a bill that would compromise a woman’s right to choose until leadership pledged not to allow for a side-deal or amendment that would allow Rep. Stupak’s anti-choice language back into the bill. (Stupak’s amendment essentially would prohibit a woman from paying for abortion even with her own money.) Since leadership needed his support, Rep. Quigley was able to help pass reform while also protecting a woman’s right to choose by using his vote strategically.
- Working closely with Rep. DeGette to ensure that when implementing the Nelson provision in the Senate bill, HHS mitigates the harmful effects. (For example, allowing women to write one check per year to pay for abortion coverage rather than a separate check each month)

"It was a privilege to be a part of this historic night and pass a bill that gives nearly 70,000 of my constituents access to health care coverage they didn't previously have. Amidst the heightened rhetoric of this debate, we have to remember that this bill tells insurance companies they can't deny Americans coverage because of a preexisting condition or catastrophic illness.

While I am pleased that we gave the American people the fair and transparent up-or-down vote they deserve, I'm also aware that this bill is not perfect. I will not give up my tenacious fight to make sure every woman has access to the health care she needs and her rights afford. This bill is not perfect, but it is a crucial place to start from which we will review, refine, and most importantly, help millions of American families get the coverage they deserve for the first time in generations."

“President Obama and House Speaker Nancy Pelosi were still scrambling to lock in 216 votes for their health-care bill, with a small group of Democrats -- whose support could be crucial -- holding out for stronger anti-abortion provisions ... Quigley, an abortion-rights supporter, said Friday night Obama can't count on his support if a deal is made with the anti-abortion bloc to get to 216.”

- Lynn Sweet, Chicago Sun-Times, 3/21/2010

IMMIGRATION

See also: Foreign Policy, Equality

Representing one of the most ethnically diverse districts in Illinois, Mike understands firsthand how critical immigrants are to our community. As globalization shrinks our world, establishing a fair system to account for the movement of people across and within our borders becomes increasingly important. Comprehensive immigration reform must do what is right, what is just, and what is fair for all. Mike is working toward concrete and pragmatic solutions for environmentally-sensitive border security. Mike also believes that we must document the estimated 12 million undocumented immigrants currently in the U.S.

CASEWORK SUCCESS STORY: HELP WHEN HE NEEDED IT MOST

One of the Congressman's constituents was homeless and living out of a garage. He had been robbed, and all of his identification was stolen - including proof of his legal resident status in the United States. Without identification, he was unable to receive his Social Security benefits so he walked miles to Quigley's office and asked for help. Quigley's casework staff worked with the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) to expedite his case, and the constituent was able to obtain a duplicate green card. With this photo identification, Social Security was able to release his benefits, and he is now on track to putting his life back together.

JUDICIARY

MILITARY PROCUREMENT

See also: Reinventing Government, Foreign Affairs

Mike is committed to ensuring that our troops and our military families have the resources and support they need to protect our nation. However, he believes that smarter spending – not more spending – makes us safer. With less than 24 hours to review the Defense spending bill, Mike and his staff identified nearly 1,000 earmarks for private companies and hundreds of unnecessary and unrequested military equipment, while several mission-critical projects went under-funded. Mike believes we must follow through on President Obama’s promise to reinvent and restructure government to meet the challenges of the 21st century, and when it comes to our nation’s security, the mission matters more than ever.

- Voted against Defense Appropriations bill because it included billions of dollars in wasteful projects – like the VH-71 presidential helicopter, extra C-17 cargo planes, and the JSF second engine – and earmarks to for-profits at a time when our government is extremely indebted. It also included billions of dollars for military equipment not requested by the Department of Defense or the President.
- Wrote op-ed against 12 additional $140million/each F-22s, spoke on House floor
- Spoke out against another expensive, little-used, and potentially deadly aircraft, the V-22 Osprey – a fixed-wing helicopter hybrid that has run 180% over budget and killed 30 people due to malfunctions.
- Spoke out against funding the unrequested and unnecessary Gulfstream Jets in the Defense Appropriations Bill. Funding was ultimately removed.
- Introduced a bipartisan resolution commending the Army for its energy efficiency and sustainability initiatives, that will save the government money while enhancing mission effectiveness and saving lives in the process
- Voted in favor of two amendments sponsored by Rep. Flake – the first striking 75 earmarks to for-profit entities and the second striking 553 earmarks to for-profit entities.
- Signed letter to Skelton & McKeon opposing the JSF 2nd engine in the Defense Authorization bill

“If we can’t get our finances in order, how can we ask taxpayers to trust us with their hard-earned dollars? How can we ask taxpayers to tighten their belts when our balance sheet is so unbalanced?”

REINVENTING GOVERNMENT

Fiscal Responsibility, Reform, Transparency, Accountability

Reforming, streamlining, and reinventing government has been central to Mike's efforts as a public servant, whether in Cook County or in Washington. Mike believes that the best form of government is an open and honest government, one that serves its people and not a special interest. Mike will continue to fight for reform to ensure that taxpayer funds are spent responsibly, lawmakers are operating honestly and effectively, and government is reflective of the country's needs.

Project Shield (Cook County)

- Sent letter to Government Accountability Office (GAO) asking for an investigation into the effectiveness of Project Shield, a $43 million over-budget and behind-schedule Homeland Security program, citing that not only was this a misuse of funds, but was leaving Americans less safe
- Expressed concern that the GAO does not have the resources to track how Homeland Security funds are spent. While the scope and authority of the GAO have expanded, its staff and budgetary levels have barely increased

Fiscal Responsibility

- Cosponsored H.R. 2920, the statutory Pay-As-You-Go Act of 2009. The "PAYGO" rule states that Congress can only spend a dollar if it saves a dollar elsewhere.
- Introduced a "Sense of the House" resolution establishing debt and deficit reduction targets: by 2018, to reduce the debt to 60% of GDP and to reduce the deficit to 3% of GDP. This resolution sets the broad objectives of Quigley's reform agenda and can help Congress reach a bipartisan consensus on the seriousness of our long-term financial situation
- Cosponsored H.R.4653, to more accurately account for Fannie and Freddie liabilities, which have received a blank check from Treasury, by putting them on-budget
- Sent letter to Chairman Levin asking for him to look into alternatives to the Windfall Elimination Provision, which hurts the pensions of government workers and immigrants

"Simply put, government should operate like any household does every day – sensibly," said Rep. Quigley. "You live within your means, you pay for what you buy, and you plan for the future. You wouldn't plan an addition onto your home until you paid your child's tuition bill."

There are no sacred cows.

- Murtha: Voted in favor of conducting an ethics investigation into the late Rep. John Murtha. Quigley's vote was against the wishes of Democratic leadership.
- Rangel: Was one of first Democrats to initially say that Rep. Charles Rangel (D-NY) should step aside from his powerful post as Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means when an ethics panel found he violated House rules
- Countrywide:
 - Sent letter to Chairman Edolphus Towns (D-NY) of the Oversight and Government Reform Committee requesting subpoenas for Countrywide Financial/Bank of America records of the "Friends of Angelo" Program in order to unearth whether policymakers and other influential government officials were given preferential treatment on loans.
 - Started as the lone voice of dissent on the OGR committee, insisting that he would vote with the Minority in favor of issuing subpoenas
 - Sent a letter with Rep. Paul Hodes (D-NH) to Reps. Towns and Issa encouraging them to consider issuing a subpoena and acquiring access to the documents
 - Quigley's efforts ultimately led to the OGR committee opening a larger investigation

"It's harder to pass bills if you make waves," the House freshman concedes. "But if you just act like a lemming, you don't really change things."

Ending Pay to Play

- Introduced H.R. 3427 – State Ethics Law Protection Act, which would prevent the Federal Highway Administration from withholding funding for states reforming their anti-corruption and pay-to-play laws, like Illinois

Leading By Example

- Co-sponsored H.R. 4255 – Stop the Automatic Pay Raise for Members of Congress in Fiscal Year 2011 Act – to refuse congressional pay raises
- Turned back $100,000 of office budget to the U.S. Treasury

Earmark Reform

- In July, Congressman Quigley Introduced House Resolution 614, to prohibit appropriation requests for for-profit entities (banning corporate earmarks). Under the proposal, funding requests for public and not-for-profit entities would still be admissible. In March, 2010, the Appropriations Committee implemented his idea imposing a one-year moratorium on for-profit earmarks.
- Voted against earmarks for for-profit entities in the Defense Appropriations bill
- Published his appropriation requests for non-profit and public works on his Web site for public review immediately after submitting. Has since posted all awards as well
- Set forth statement of principles to public regarding project funding; held open office hours for public input and assistance
- Cosponsored H.Res. 440, amending the Rules of the House to strengthen public disclosure of earmark requests by putting every request online at the time they are made
- Cosponsored H.R. 2038, Clean Law for Earmark Accountability Act, to prohibit Members of Congress from receiving contributions from entities that receive earmarks

Transparency

- Established the Bipartisan Transparency Caucus: created with Rep. Darrell Issa (R-CA) to serve as a resource for Members of Congress on bipartisan open government initiatives. The Caucus will promote legislation that requires federal information to be freely accessible, as well as advocate for new initiatives that support transparency and accountability.
- Introduced landmark transparency legislation – the Transparency in Government Act, multi-faceted bill that would bring unprecedented access and accountability to the federal government. Quigley's comprehensive bill emphasizes transparency throughout the federal government by:
 - Establishing new definitions for lobbyists and stricter rules governing how and with whom they meet
 - Creating the first-ever searchable, sortable, and downloadable database for earmarks, where taxpayers can see all appropriations in one place
 - Improving public access to information about Members of Congress, including disclosure of financial information, travel reports, gifts, and earmark requests
 - Requiring committees to post all roll call votes and video of hearings and mark-ups online
 - Improving oversight and accuracy of USAspending.gov (federal contracting Web site) by allowing the public to report errors and requiring audits of the information on the site
 - Instructing all FOIA requests of federal agencies be published online promptly after they are completed

- Launched new Web site that shows daily calendar/votes, positions (campaign site shows contributions before the election commission does)
- Cosponsored H.Res. 554 to require that legislation and conference reports be available on the Internet for 72 hours before consideration by the House.
- Cosponsored H.R. 3965, to require full and complete public disclosure of the terms of home mortgages held by Members of Congress

Military Spending – Spend Smarter, Be Safer

- See Military Procurement

TARP

- Stated that TARP shouldn't be used to pay for non-emergency, although important, spending (TARP was passed during extraordinary circumstances in which a financial catastrophe appeared imminent.)
- Spoke out in support of strengthening authority of the Government Accountability Office, the body tasked with overseeing TARP
- Voted for Rep. Kucinich's amendment which gives the GAO access to certain activities of the Federal Reserve, which has recently purchased an unprecedented number of assets and now warrants greater oversight (balance sheet = over $2 trillion)

Financial Services Reform

- Voted in support of H.R. 4173, the Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, which takes aim at Wall Street while protecting community banks. The measure ensures that community banks will pay less in deposit insurance assessments, will subject non-bank competitors of community banks to comprehensive federal supervision, and will exempt community banks from CFPA examination and enforcement.
- Questioned former Bank of America CEO Ken Lewis in committee hearing on the merger of Merrill Lynch that resulted in Bank receiving $20 billion in bailout funds. Asked him about a possible conflict of interest with the asset manager BlackRock, 49% of which is now owned by Bank of America
- Questioned former Treasury Sec. Hank Paulson on the BofA/Merrill merger, asked why the government allowed Bear Stearns to fail, but decided to save Fannie, Freddie, AIG
- Cosponsored H.R. 627, the Credit Card Accountability Responsibility and Disclosure Act. This bill seeks to establish fair and transparent laws concerning the extension of credit. Calls for companies to give consumers 45 days notice before raising their interest rates and ensures that consumers can put a credit limit on their card

- Cosponsored H.R. 2897, the Bank Accountability and Risk Assessment Act, which seeks to shine a light on the systemic risk that caused our financial crisis. This bill directs the FDIC to impose a systemic risk assessment, at least annually, and in addition to the regular annual assessment and emergency special assessments, on all systemically important depository institutions.
- “This is who I am,” Quigley, an outspoken reformer from a safe seat in Chicago, told POLITICO afterward. “You can’t change your DNA when you get here.”*
- Introduced two amendments to H.R. 4173 – Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2009 – based on constituent concerns. The first provides greater fairness and transparency to homeowners who may have been improperly denied a loan modification on their mortgage without any explanation, by making public the formula used by lenders to calculate the availability of loan modification. The second amendment gives regulators the ability to take a bird’s-eye view of Wall Street by allowing them to identify systemic problems and broadly enforce stricter standards rather than only being allowed to focus on the individual firms.
 - Lead cosponsor of upcoming legislation to assist Community Banks and reform the commercial real estate market

Other Efforts

- Voted for regulatory reform bill, which passed the House
- Voted against the first House “jobs bill” because he believed we can’t sacrifice our long term fiscal sustainability and burden future taxpayers with a bill they can’t pay. Quigley believed we should pay for a jobs bill through the normal budget process, or at least with some time to review the spending items, and not through an 11th hour vote on a bill that had been available for only about 12 hours

- Voted for, spoke out in support of Whistleblower Protection Enhancement Act, H.R. 1507
- At the Toyota Recall Hearing, questioned Department of Transportation Secretary Ray LaHood and Mr. Toyoda, President and CEO of Toyota, about safety defects and recalls.
 - Asked Mr. LaHood why NHSTA, the government body that oversees vehicle safety, issued a voluntary Event Data Recorder (EDR)/black box standard that allows companies to choose whether to install black boxes. Stated that black boxes should be required and accessible to all who need it, including police (Currently, the software necessary to read the data is proprietary.)
 - Stressed that NHSTA needs to be adequately resourced to investigate all defects
- Cosponsored bill introduced by Rep. Speier requiring new vehicles be equipped with black boxes, which can be read by NHTSA administrators
- Cosponsored H.R. 3264, Federal Internship Improvement Act, which would establish consistent reporting requirements so that the Office of Personnel Management could judge agency implementation of internship programs, and creates a central clearinghouse so that agencies can recruit qualified interns who interned for another agency
- Cosponsored H.R. 4098, Secure Federal File Sharing Act, which instructs the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) to issue rules regulating the use of “open” peer-to-peer (P2P) file sharing software on government computers. P2P allows computers to share files, a necessary and useful function in a work place, but potentially disastrous if an outside source gains access.

“If we can’t get our finances in order, how can we ask taxpayers to trust us with their hard-earned dollars? How can we ask taxpayers to tighten their belts when our balance sheet is so unbalanced? To earn the public’s trust, our government needs to be more transparent, more accountable, and more honest.”

SMALL BUSINESS

Mike believes that small businesses are the economic engine that helps run the district, and he is actively working to ensure that local companies have the resources necessary to succeed in this difficult economic climate.

- Cosponsored H.R. 2695, the Credit Card Fair Fee Act, which will provide merchants and businesses the ability to collectively bargain the interchange fees, also known as “swipe fees,” that credit card issuers charge to process a transaction. As it stands, merchants are unable to negotiate fees and often subject to random changes and carrying fee scales.
- Signed letter expressing concerns about the Ticketmaster/Live Nation merger
- Voted against Kanjorski amendment to Financial Services bill that would have subjected small businesses to costly regulation under Sarbanes-Oxley
- In March 2010, the House passed with Mike’s support H.R. 4849, the Small Business and Infrastructure Jobs Tax Act which provided $3.2 billion in small business tax credits and a $13.2 billion extension of the Build America Bond Program.
- Supported the health care reform package which protected small businesses by exempting the vast majority from the share responsibility requirement and provided $40 billion in tax credits for small businesses to help them offer employee coverage
- Cosponsored several other bills to help small businesses, including:
 - H.R. 2360, the SHOP Act*
 - H.R. 1552, the Small Business Formation and Job Creation Act*
 - H.R. 2143, to amend the internal revenue code to relieve small businesses paying penalties associated with a failure to report certain transactions*
 - H.R. 690, the MOBILE Cell Phone Act of 2009*
 - H.R. 1557, the Securing America’s Future Economy Commission Act*
 - H.R. 3178, the Small Business Growth Act of 2009.*
 - H.R. 2568, Fairness and Transparency in Contracting Act of 2009*

 - H.R. 4598, Express Loans Improvements Act of 2010
 - H.R. 4067, the Business Checking Fairness Act of 2009, to allow small businesses to earn interest on checking accounts

Strongly supported by the NFIB, National Federation of Independent Business*

“At a time when everyone is struggling, residents deserve to know that their tax dollars are being used efficiently and strategically ... We must ensure that families and businesses not only land on their feet, but have the sustainability to stay in our community for years to come.”

TRADE

Mike believes that trade is a vital part of our foreign policy and helps the United States create and maintain important alliances and friendships across the globe. He believes trade is critically important to our economic well-being by providing markets for American goods and sustaining millions of jobs in vital American industries.

- Joined U.S. Trade Representative Ambassador Ron Kirk for a discussion and tour of Navistar, one of the world's leading truck and engine manufacturers, located in Melrose Park in the 5th District
- Strong defender of the environment and labor rights and believes that trade agreements should provide protections for both
- Supports fair trade that respects each party and does not force a race to the bottom

“Smart trade policy can make the U.S. a leader in clean energy technologies. In addition, green projects like Navistar’s electric truck can be sold worldwide while creating jobs here at home.”

TRANSPORTATION

Mike believes that rebuilding our infrastructure is tantamount to spurring economic growth. The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) was a step in the right direction. Mike believes it is most important to invest in long-term projects seeking to modernize our national infrastructure, providing efficient and safe transportation of goods and people, reducing congestion and pollution. Mike also believes that transparency and accountability are critical throughout the process, so taxpayers can know their hard-earned money is being used efficiently.

Fast facts

- Nearly $1.4 billion dollars have been allocated to Illinois' roads, transit, and rail systems due to ARRA. These funds have helped save or create 24,133 Illinois jobs.
- The region received over $414 million in ARRA transit funds for Pace, CTA, and RTA, which allowed for the purchase of new equipment and much needed capital improvements.
- In 2009, CDOT was able to do as much resurfacing as they had done in the previous four years combined due to the stimulus bill (ARRA).

Mike's efforts

- Original member of the Midwest Congressional High Speed Rail Caucus, a bipartisan, bicameral caucus formed to advance the Midwest's plan for high speed rail
- Helped secure $1.3 billion to develop and bring high speed rail to Illinois
- Secured funding to help begin the development of the CTA circle line
- Has spoken on the floor about an increased need for transit funding and the need for a full and complete reauthorization of the highway bill
- Vocal supporter of H.R. 2746, a bill to allow transit agencies to use federal funds towards operations as well. Would help prevent more service cuts and layoffs at CTA
- Helped secure a $100 million TIGER grant for the CREATE project, to target six projects benefiting 13 Illinois communities, will support an estimated 1,087 jobs
 - ARRA appropriated $1.5 billion for TIGER (Transportation Investing Generating Economic Recovery) grants, which are supplementary discretionary grants for the National Surface Transportation System.
 - The Chicago Region Environmental and Transportation Efficiency (CREATE) program is a partnership between the Department of Transportation, the State of Illinois, the City of Chicago, Metra, Amtrak, and freight railroads.

VETERANS

These brave Americans have chosen to serve their country, and in turn, their country should serve them. Mike works tirelessly to improve healthcare and ensure access to higher education for our veterans. Additionally, his District Office assists veterans with various casework services on a daily basis.

- Joined 83 World War II veterans from Chicago at the World War II Memorial to commemorate and celebrate their service and dedication to their country. The trip was made possible by Honor Flight Network, a non-profit organization that brings World War II veterans to the memorial at no cost to the veteran (pictured above, with IL vets)
- Introduced H.Res.936, which honors soldiers of the Army National Guard of the State of Illinois, including the 33rd Infantry Brigade Combat Team as they returned home from deployment in Afghanistan. The Resolution acknowledged largest overseas deployment of Illinois National Guard soldiers since World War II and received support from all 19 members of the Illinois delegation.

Over 200 veterans visited the Fair held at the Jesse Brown VA Hospital Medical Center, where they were able to seek advice and assistance with employment counseling, education benefits, health benefits, and veterans support group services.

"It's great that our new Congressman put this service fair together to provide real help to veterans. It's one thing to say you support veterans, but another to actually show support like Mike is."

– Roger McGill, constituent, Vietnam Veterans of America

- Helped a Franklin Park family recover Korean War records and six medals after 55 years of not knowing what happened to their relative. Esther Banicki spent years trying to find out what happened to her brother. Rep. Quigley requested information on her behalf, and finally got closure.

CASEWORK SUCCESS STORY: FAMILY GETS DAD'S WWI MEDALS

The granddaughter of a (deceased) World War I Veteran came into Quigley's district office asking for assistance in acquiring her grandfather's medals and military records. The casework staff worked with the National Personnel Record Center and was able to get the grandfather's medals, including his Silver Star. When Quigley's staff contacted the granddaughter, she was in tears. Her mother had died the day before, and it was her last wish to get her father's medals to the family.
