

Federal Grants

Every year, Congressman Rothman helps many of his constituents secure federal funds for projects and initiatives. There are literally thousands of grants available -- from increasing security in schools to protecting our open spaces and wildlife. Unfortunately, grants are extremely competitive because of the limited amount of money available. That is where Congressman Rothman can help, by writing letters of recommendation and facilitating the application process.

General Grant Information

Use the resource below to understand more about grants

- CRS Report

Grant Research

Search databases of grants offered by the government

- Non-Profit Gateway
- The Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA)

Grant Writing

Need Help Writing A Grant Proposal? Choose from one of the sites below to learn more about writing grants and proposals.

- CFDA - Developing and Writing Grant Proposals
- Non-Profit Guides - Grant Writing Tools
- The Foundation Center - Proposal Writing

Other links

- Council on Foundations
- Health and Human Services grants page
- Nonprofit FAQ
- National Technical Information Service
- The Foundation Center