

OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT VETERANS FEDERAL JOBS PROGRAM

OPM's veteran employment initiative has offices at Walter Reed and Bethesda Naval Hospital, and works in coordination with DOD's Operation Warfighter to place wounded warriors in federal agency internships and, more broadly, to help veterans find federal employment. It has veteran-specific contacts within federal agencies and maintains a national data base of veterans who are seeking employment. It is not limited to service-connected disabled veterans or to OIF/OEF veterans and also helps veterans' spouses find federal employment.
