

SESSIONS:

You're exactly right.

WHITEHOUSE:

(OFF-MIKE)

Attorney General, it's nice to see you. Thank you for being here.

I'd like to start with an observation in response to the colloquy between you and Senator Feinstein. As a former United States attorney and somebody who as U.S. attorney had very active investigations into public corruption in Rhode Island, I share a bit the concern of the removal of U.S. attorneys under these circumstances.

And in your response you indicated that you would never do anything for -- I think you said -- political reasons, and you would certainly never do anything that would impede the ongoing investigation.

I would suggest to you that in your analysis of what the department's posture should be in these situations you should also consider the potential chilling effect on other United States attorney when a United States attorney who was involved in an ongoing public corruption case is removed from office. They are not easy cases to do technically, as you know. They are fraught with a lot of risk. And I think that U.S. attorneys show a lot of courage when they proceed with those cases, and any signal that might be interpreted or misinterpreted as discouraging those kinds of activities I think is one you'd want to be very, very careful about.

So I would propose to you that that's a consideration you should have in mind as you make those removal and reappointment decisions.

GONZALES:

It already is, but thank you, Senator. I appreciate that.

LEAHY:

37 "Press reports say that seven or more United States Attorneys have recently announced their resignations, and these reports suggest that you and the Administration have asked them to step down. These include well-regarded prosecutors like Kevin Ryan in San Francisco, who is leading investigations into corporate backdating of employee stock options, and Carole Lam in San Diego, who led the successful Duke Cunningham corruption investigation. These U.S. Attorneys are being replaced under a new provision inserted by the Republican Congress into the PATRIOT Act reauthorization, which allows you to name interim U.S. Attorneys, without any Congressional input or confirmation, who will serve indefinitely. Why have you asked such a large and unprecedented number of U.S. Attorneys – appointed by this Administration and well-regarded in their communities – to step down?

38 Isn't there a threat to the independence of U.S. Attorneys when groups of them are fired en mass and replaced indefinitely by people of your choosing without any Senate input?

39 Wouldn't a system where interim U.S. Attorneys were appointed by the federal district court – which is how it used to be done – help ensure that qualified and independent prosecutors held the job until a permanent appointee could be confirmed?

SPECTER

119 The McNulty Memo provides that prosecutors may still negatively weigh a corporation's refusal to disclose factual, privileged "Category I" information. Such information includes copies of key documents, witness statements, and reports containing investigative facts documented by counsel. To make such a request, a prosecutor must establish a "legitimate need" for the information and must obtain authorization from the United States Attorney, who must "consult" with the Assistant AG for the Criminal Division. What is the consultation that must take place for the prosecutor to make such a request, and may the request be made even without the Assistant AG's assent?

120 Can the Assistant Attorney General overrule the U.S. Attorney's decision?

ODAG QFRS
Jill Wade

121 Is there a standard for this type of review?

122 May the corporation appeal the DOJ's decision to request the information or its possibly subsequent finding of noncooperation as a result?

KENNEDY:

190 Please provide the employment application or current resume of each individual appointed as an interim United States Attorney during the past two years.

191 What will you do to assure Congress that the removal of Ms. Lam and others is not an effort to terminate uncomfortable public corruption investigations? Will you consider as a principal factor in each interim appointee the ability and willingness of the appointee to pursue public corruption investigations? What abilities and experience do you consider important in a public corruption prosecutor?

197 How many interim United States Attorneys are now serving?

198 Please state the date that each was appointed to his or her current position, and the time that elapsed between the departure of the confirmed United States Attorney and the appointment of the interim United States Attorney.

199 Please state whether a replacement has been nominated for each position and when each replacement nomination was sent to the Senate.

SCHUMER:

352 "12. Some have recently expressed concern about the possible politicization of the hiring and firing of United States Attorneys.

a. How many United States Attorneys have been asked to resign prior to the ends of their terms? For each, please provide the name, the district, the date of confirmation, the date of resignation or termination, and the name of the proposed replacement.

353 b. Do you believe that there is any constitutional infirmity in allowing (as was done prior to the PATRIOT Act change), in certain circumstances, federal judges to make interim appointments of United States Attorneys? If so, please provide a detailed explanation of your constitutional concerns. Are you aware of any legal challenges, prior to 2006, to the method of interim U.S. Attorney appointments. If so, please provide the details of those legal challenges and the resolution of the litigation.

How many of those nominated had any prosecutorial experience before their nominations?

c. Of those, how many had prosecutorial experience at the local level?

d. How many had prosecutorial experience at the federal level?
