1 SEC. 305. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

2 It is the Sense of Congress that—

3 (1) in order to maintain our Nation's competi-
4 tiveness, we must improve the quality of STEM edu-
5 cation in the Nation;

6 (2) the incorporation of engineering education
7 at the elementary and secondary levels has the po-
8 tential to improve student learning and achievement 9 in science and mathematics, and to increase the 10 technological literacy of all students;

11 (3) formal and informal educational providers,
12 including K-12 schools, should integrate engineering 13 design principles into their curriculum; and

14 (4) exposing elementary and secondary students
15 to engineering education can expand students' un-16 derstanding of engineering and their awareness of 17 career opportunities in these fields.
