

U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES PAGE PROGRAM

Fall 2010

From _____ To _____

CONGRESSIONAL PAGE APPLICATION MATERIALS

A. AGE

Pages must be at least 16 years old but not older than 17 years of age at any point during the term in which he or she serves. Verification of age is required.

B. GRADE LEVEL

Fall or Spring Term – A Page serving during the fall or spring term must be a junior in high school. The House Page School offers only a junior year course of study.

Summer Term – A Page serving during the summer term must have completed the 10th grade and not yet entered the 12th grade. The Page may be a rising junior or rising senior.

C. ACADEMICS

Candidates must have: (1) at least a cumulative 3.0 academic grade point average (“GPA”), based on five core academic subjects, for the 9th and 10th grades, and (2) a 3.0 GPA in those same subjects in the current school term. The five core academic subjects considered in determining the GPA are: English, math, science, social studies, and foreign language. Electives not in these subject areas are not considered when computing the GPA.

D. LEGAL RESIDENT

A Page must be a legal resident of the United States of America.

E. HEALTH INSURANCE

Fall or Spring Term – Pages must have health insurance throughout the duration of their service as Pages. If an accepted applicant for the fall or spring term does not have health insurance, the Page will be subject to the Federal Employee Health Benefits Program and charged a monthly fee commensurate with the specific healthcare plan chosen by the Page.

Summer Term – An applicant for either of the two summer terms who does not have health insurance can not participate as a Page. Unfortunately, summer term Pages are not eligible to participate in the Federal Employee Health Benefits Program due to the brief period of the summer Page tenure. Summer Pages must have health insurance on his or her own, prior to the appointment date.

F. SEPARATE SUBMISSIONS BY YOUR SPONSORING MEMBER

- Member Office Certification (completed and forwarded by the sponsoring Member)
- Member Letter of Recommendation (completed and forwarded by the sponsoring Member)

G. APPOINTMENT

Applicants can only be appointed by the Speaker of the House or Minority Leader. Every session, the Speaker of the House and Minority Leader separately select, on a rotating basis, a different group of their Party’s House Members to submit nominations. If you are appointed as a Page, you will be contacted by your sponsoring Member’s Office.

We recommend that you keep a copy of your completed application and subsequent documents, in case the original or any part of the application is misplaced in transit.

APPLICATION CHECKLIST

A complete application consists of the items below.

Forms 1-6 are to be filled out by applicant and his/her parent/guardian.

Form 4 (Part 1): PERSONAL STATEMENT

The Page Program is looking for students who can succeed in and out of the classroom. This section offers an opportunity to tell us who you are and why you would like to be a Page. Please type in the space below a personal statement of 250-300 words about why you are applying and what you feel you can contribute to the U.S. House of Representatives Page Program.

Form 4 (Part 2): ESSAY

This essay helps us become acquainted with you. It will demonstrate your ability to organize your thoughts and express yourself. In addition, it helps us to get to know you better as a scholar and a person. Please choose one of the following essays below and then write a 250-500 word response to it. Use additional sheets if necessary.

1. The U.S. House of Representatives Page Program is comprised of students from across the country; how do you expect this to shape the lens through which you view the world?
2. The U.S. House of Representatives and the City of Washington are vibrant, engaging and diverse places to work and to experience cultures different from your own. What is it about your background that prepares you to add value to the program as an employee of the U.S. House of Representatives, a student in the House Page School, and as a citizen of the Page community?

TO THE ACADEMIC TEACHER: This student is applying to the United States House of Representatives Page Program. Please complete this form and return it directly to the school principal, advisor, or counselor listed above who is completing the Form 7 School Report.

The United States House of Representatives Page School is a part of the long tradition of educating the Pages who serve Congress. Its students come from across the nation, seeking both an exciting term as Pages on Capitol Hill and a quality education. The school is committed to enhancing this proud history and perpetuating the principles of good citizenship, individual responsibility, and mutual cooperation upon which America and the American government are founded.

The school's education program is an integral part of the Page Program, helping to make it a full and rewarding experience. While the curriculum and activities are much like those of most other secondary schools, the Page School is unlike others in many ways. The primary mission of the House of Representatives Page School is to provide Pages with an educational experience while in transition from and to their home schools. Because virtually all Pages go on to college and university study, the school sets its standards high, expecting the very best of each Page within an honors college preparatory curriculum. We appreciate your professional and candid judgment of this student's ability to be successful in this unique and challenging environment.
