What happens after I have submitted my application to the Academy Coordinator?

Applicants who submit a completed nomination file will be scheduled to meet with the Academy Review Board. Interviews will be conducted in early December.

Why does Congresswoman Emerson use an Academy Review Board?

The board evaluates applicants and recommends candidates for nomination. This well-qualified, non-partisan board ensures a fair and impartial process.

What criteria does the board use in selecting candidates?

The Board gives nominations based on a "whole person" evaluation. Factors such as academic achievements, extra-curricular activities, leadership skills, physical aptitude, character and motivation are taken into consideration and compared with other applicants.

Are the requirements the same for all of the service academies?

No. Although many of the qualifications are similar, each academy operates under its own admission guidelines. It is important to visit each academy's website for their particular admission requirements.

Will I automatically be selected by the academy after I receive a nomination?

No. You will be placed among a select group of nominees, and the academy of your choice will make the final decision. If selected, you will receive an offer of admission (an appointment) directly from the academy.
