

Rep. Peter Welch on Wednesday will continue his statewide Main Street Jobs Tour in Newport, highlighting legislation for which he is fighting to support Vermont's downtown businesses. This will be the fifth stop in Welch's Main Street Jobs Tour. His previous visits were in St. Albans, Brattleboro, Vergennes, and Rutland.

During the tour, Welch will speak with local store owners about his Main Street Jobs agenda and solicit further ideas about how he can support Vermont businesses and create jobs. He will be joined by local government and business leaders, including Mayor Paul Monette and Trish Sears from the Newport City Renaissance Corp.

More details about Tuesday's visits are below:
