

In the Senate of the United States,

Resolved, That the bill from the House of Representatives (H.R. 3210) entitled “An Act to ensure the continued financial capacity of insurers to provide coverage for risks from terrorism.”, do pass with the following

AMENDMENT:

Strike out all after the enacting clause and insert:

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Terrorism Risk Insur-

3 ance Act of 2002”.

1 SEC. 2. CONGRESSIONAL FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

2 (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that—

3 (1) property and casualty insurance firms are 4 important financial institutions, the products of 5 which allow mutualization of risk and the efficient
6 use of financial resources and enhance the ability of 7 the economy to maintain stability, while responding
8 to a variety of economic, political, environmental,
9 and other risks with a minimum of disruption;

10 (2) the ability of businesses and individuals to 11 obtain property and casualty insurance at reasonable 12 and predictable prices, in order to spread the risk of 13 both routine and catastrophic loss, is critical to eco-
14 nomie growth, urban development, and the construc-
15 tion and maintenance of public and private housing,
16 as well as to the promotion of United States exports
17 and foreign trade in an increasingly interconnected
18 world;

19 (3) the ability of the insurance industry to cover
20 the unprecedented financial risks presented by poten-
21 tial acts of terrorism in the United States can be a
22 major factor in the recovery from terrorist attacks,
23 while maintaining the stability of the economy;

24 (4) widespread financial market uncertainties
25 have arisen following the terrorist attacks of Sep-
26 tember 11, 2001, including the absence of information

1 from which financial institutions can make statis-
2 tically valid estimates of the probability and cost of 3 future terrorist events, and therefore the size, funding,
4 and allocation of the risk of loss caused by such acts
5 of terrorism;

6 (5) a decision by property and casualty insurers
7 to deal with such uncertainties, either by terminating
8 property and casualty coverage for losses arising from 9 terrorist events, or by radically escalating premium
10 coverage to compensate for risks of loss that are not
11 readily predictable, could seriously hamper ongoing
12 and planned construction, property acquisition, and 13 other business projects, generate a dramatic increase
14 in rents, and otherwise suppress economic activity;
15 and

16 (6) the United States Government should provide 17 temporary financial compensation to insured parties,
18 contributing to the stabilization of the United States
19 economy in a time of national crisis, while the finan-
20 cial services industry develops the systems, mecha-
21 nisms, products, and programs necessary to create a
22 viable financial services market for private terrorism
23 risk insurance.

24 (b) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this Act is to establish 25 a temporary Federal program that provides for a trans-

1 parent system of shared public and private compensation
2 for insured losses resulting from acts of terrorism, in order
3 to—

4 (1) protect consumers by addressing market dis-
5 ruptions and ensure the continued widespread avail-
6 ability and affordability of property and casualty in-
7 surance for terrorism risk; and

8 (2) allow for a transitional period for the private 9 markets to stabilize, resume pricing of such insurance,
10 and build capacity to absorb any future losses, while
11 preserving State insurance regulation and consumer
12 protections.

4 ing from acts of terrorism, thereby resulting in 5 the continuing unavailability of affordable in-
6 surance for consumers; and

12 PENSATION.—Following the termination of the Program
13 under subsection (a), the Secretary may take such actions

22 under subsection (a), except that such repeal shall not be
23 construed—
