12 SEC. 170. (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds the 13 following:

14 (1) The District of Columbia has recently wit-
15 nessed a spate of senseless killings of innocent citi-
16 zens caught in the crossfire of shootings. A Justice 17 Department crime victimization survey found that 18 while the city saw a decline in the homicide rate be-19 tween 1996 and 1997, the rate was the highest 20 among a dozen cities and more than double the sec-
21 ond highest city.

22 (2) The District of Columbia has not made ade-23 quate funding available to fight drug abuse in recent 24 years, and the city has not deployed its resources as 25 effectively as possible. In fiscal year 1998,

1       $20,900,000 was spent on publicly funded drug
2       treatment in the District compared to $29,000,000
3       in fiscal year 1993. The District's Addiction and 4       Prevention and Recovery Agency currently has only 5       2,200 treatment slots, a 50 percent drop from 1994,
6       with more than 1,100 people on waiting lists.

7           (3) The District of Columbia has seen a rash 8       of inmate escapes from halfway houses. According to 9       Department of Corrections records, between October
10      21, 1998 and January 19, 1999, 376 of the 1,125
11      inmates assigned to halfway houses walked away.
12      Nearly 280 of the 376 escapees were awaiting trial
13      including two charged with murder.

14          (4) The District of Columbia public schools sys-
15      tem faces serious challenges in correcting chronic 16      problems, particularly long-standing deficiencies in 17      providing special education services to the 1 in 10
18      District students needing program benefits, includ-
19      ing backlogged assessments, and repeated failure to 20      meet a compliance agreement on special education
21      reached with the Department of Education.

22          (5) Deficiencies in the delivery of basic public
23      services from cleaning streets to waiting time at De-
24      partment of Motor Vehicles to a rat population esti-

1 mated earlier this year to exceed the human popu-
2 lation have generated considerable public frustration.

3 (6) Last year, the District of Columbia forfeited
4 millions of dollars in Federal grants after Federal 5 auditors determined that several agencies exceeded 6 grant restrictions and in other instances, failed to 7 spend funds before the grants expired.

8 (7) Findings of a 1999 report by the Annie E.
9 Casey Foundation that measured the well-being of 10 children reflected that, with one exception, the Dis-
11 trict ranked worst in the United States in every cat-
12 egory from infant mortality to the rate of teenage 13 births to statistics chronicling child poverty.

14 (b) SENSE OF THE CONGRESS.—It is the sense of 15 the Congress that in considering the District of Colum-16 bia’s fiscal year 2001 budget, the Congress will take into 17 consideration progress or lack of progress in addressing 18 the following issues:

19 (1) Crime, including the homicide rate, imple-
20 mentation of community policing, the number of po-21 lice officers on local beats, and the closing down of 22 open-air drug markets.

23 (2) Access to drug abuse treatment, including 24 the number of treatment slots, the number of people

1 served, the number of people on waiting lists, and 2 the effectiveness of treatment programs.

3 (3) Management of parolees and pretrial violent
4 offenders, including the number of halfway house es-
5 capes and steps taken to improve monitoring and su-6 pervision of halfway house residents to reduce the 7 number of escapes.

8 (4) Education, including access to special edu-
9 cation services and student achievement.

10 (5) Improvement in basic city services, includ-
11 ing rat control and abatement.

12 (6) Application for and management of Federal 13 grants.

14 (7) Indicators of child well-being.

15 SEC. 171. The Mayor, prior to using Federal Med-
16 icaid payments to Disproportionate Share Hospitals to 17 serve a small number of childless adults, should consider 18 the recommendations of the Health Care Development 19 Commission that has been appointed by the Council of the 20 District of Columbia to review this program, and consult 21 and report to Congress on the use of these funds.

22 SEC. 172. GAO STUDY OF DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
23 CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM.—Not later than 1 year after 24 the date of the enactment of this Act, the Comptroller 25 General of the United States shall—

1           (1) conduct a study of the law enforcement,
2           court, prison, probation, parole, and other compo-
3           nents of the criminal justice system of the District
4           of Columbia, in order to identify the components
5           most in need of additional resources, including fi-6           nancial, personnel, and management resources; and

7           (2) submit to Congress a report on the results
8           of the study under paragraph (1).

9           SEC. 173. Nothing in this Act bars the District of 10          Columbia Corporation Counsel from reviewing or com-
11          menting on briefs in private lawsuits, or from consulting 12          with officials of the District government regarding such 13          lawsuits.

14          SEC. 174. WIRELESS COMMUNICATIONS.—(a) IN 15          GENERAL.—Not later than 7 days after the date of the 16          enactment of this Act, the Secretary of the Interior, acting 17          through the Director of the National Park Service, shall—

18                 (1) implement the notice of decision approved 19                 by the National Capital Regional Director, dated 20                 April 7, 1999, including the provisions of the notice
21                 of decision concerning the issuance of right-of-way 22                 permits at market rates; and

23                 (2) expend such sums as are necessary to carry 24                 out paragraph (1).

25          (b) ANTENNA APPLICATIONS.—

1           (1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 120 days
2 after the receipt of an application, a Federal agency
3 that receives an application submitted after the en-
4 actment of this Act to locate a wireless communica-
5 tions antenna on Federal property in the District of 6 Columbia or surrounding area over which the Fed-
7 eral agency exercises control shall take final action
8 on the application, including action on the issuance 9 of right-of-way permits at market rates.

10           (2) EXISTING LAW.—Nothing in this subsection
11 shall be construed to affect the applicability of exist-12 ing laws regarding—

13           (A) judicial review under chapter 7 of title
14 5, United States Code (the Administrative Pro-15 cedure Act), and the Communications Act of 16 1934;

17           (B) the National Environmental Policy
18 Act, the National Historic Preservation Act and 19 other applicable Federal statutes; and

20           (C) the authority of a State or local gov-
21 ernment or instrumentality thereof, including 22 the District of Columbia, in the placement, con-
23 struction, and modification of personal wireless
24 service facilities.
