| 8  | AMERICA AND RURAL CRISIS.                              |
| 9  | (a) Findings.—Congress finds that—                     |
| 10 | (1) on March 20–21, 2000, thousands of rural           |
| 11 | citizens, working families, and those representing the |
| 12 | environmental and religious communities traveled to    |
| 13 | Washington, D.C., to participate in the Rally for      |
| 14 | $Rural\ America;$                                      |
| 15 | (2) a broad coalition of over 30 farm, environ-        |
| 16 | mental, and labor organizations that are concerned     |
| 17 | that rural America has been left behind during this    |
| 18 | time of prosperity participated in organizing the      |
| 19 | Rally for Rural America;                               |
| 20 | (3) although the majority of America has reaped        |
| 21 | the benefits of the strong economy, rural Americans    |
| 22 | are facing their toughest times in recent memory;      |
| 23 | (4) the record low prices on farms and ranches         |
| 24 | of the United States have rippled throughout rural     |

| 1  | America causing rural communities to face numerous      |
|----|---|
| 2  | challenges, including—                                  |
| 3  | (A) a depressed farm economy;                           |
| 4  | (B) an escalation of mergers and acquisi-               |
| 5  | tions;  |
| 6  | (C) a loss of businesses and jobs on rural              |
| 7  | $main\ street;$   |
| 8  | (D) erosion of health care and education;               |
| 9  | $(E)\ a\ decline\ in\ infrastructure;$                  |
| 10 | (F) a reduction of capital investments; and             |
| 11 | (G) a loss of independent family farmers;               |
| 12 | (5) the Rally for Rural America urged Congress          |
| 13 | to reform the Federal Agriculture Improvement and       |
| 14 | Reform Act of 1996 (Public Law 104–127) to formu-       |
| 15 | late rural policies in a manner that will alleviate the |
| 16 | agricultural price crisis, ensure fair and open mar-    |
| 17 | kets, and encourage fair trade;                         |
| 18 | (6) thousands of rural citizens have advocated          |
| 19 | farm policies that include—                             |
| 20 | (A) a strong safety net for all agricultural            |
| 21 | producers;  |
| 22 | (B) competitive markets;                                |
| 23 | (C) an investment in rural education and                |
| 24 | $health\ care;$   |

| 1  | (D) protection of natural resources for the          |

| 2  | next generation;                                     |
| 3  | (E) a safe and secure food supply;                   |
| 4  | (F) revitalization of our farm families and          |
| 5  | rural communities; and                               |
| 6  | (G) fair and equitable implementation of             |
| 7  | government programs;                                 |
| 8  | (7) because agricultural commodity prices are so     |
| 9  | far below the costs of production, eventually family |
| 10 | farmers will no longer be able to pay their bills or |
| 11 | provide for their families;                          |
| 12 | (8) anti-competitive practices and concentration     |
| 13 | are a cause of concern for American agriculture;     |
| 14 | (9) rural America needs a fair and well reasoned     |
| 15 | farm policy, not unpredictable and inequitable dis-  |
| 16 | aster payments;                                      |
| 17 | (10) disaster payments do not provide for real,      |
| 18 | meaningful change; and                               |
| 19 | (11) the economic conditions and pressures in        |
| 20 | rural America require real change.                   |
| 21 | (b) Sense of Congress.—It is the sense of Congress   |
| 22 | that—  |
| 23 | (1) the participants in the Rally for Rural          |
| 24 | America are commended and their pleas have been      |
| 25 | heard; and   |

| 1  | (2) Congress should respond with a clear and  |
|--|---|
| 2  | strong message to the participants and rural families   |
| 3  | that Congress is committed to giving the crisis in ag-  |
| 4  | riculture, and all of rural America, its full attention   |
| 5  | by reforming rural policies in a manner that will—  |
| 6  | (A) alleviate the agricultural price crisis;  |
| 7  | (B) ensure competitive markets;   |
| 8  | (C) invest in rural education and health  |
| 9  | care;   |
| 10   | (D) protect our natural resources for future  |
| 11   | generations; and  |
| 12   | (E) ensure a safe and secure food supply for  |
