A BILL

To establish certain procedures for civil actions brought for damages relating to the failure of any device or system to process or otherwise deal with the transition from the year 1999 to the year 2000, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Year 2000 Readiness
5       and Responsibility Act”.

6       SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7       The Congress finds the following:

8               (1) The Congress seeks to encourage businesses to 9       concentrate their attention and resources in the short 10       time remaining before January 1, 2000, on address-

1        ing, assessing, remediating, and testing their year
2        2000 problems, and to minimize any possible business
3        disruptions associated with year 2000 issues.

4            (2) It is appropriate for the Congress to enact 5        legislation to assure that year 2000 problems do not 6        unnecessarily disrupt interstate commerce or create 7        unnecessary case loads in Federal and State courts
8        and to provide initiatives to help businesses prepare 9        and be in a position to withstand the potentially dev- 10       astating economic impact of the year 2000 problem.

11           (3) Year 2000 issues will affect practically all 12        business enterprises to some degree, giving rise to a 13        large number of disputes.

14           (4) Resorting to the legal system for resolution of 15        year 2000 problems is not feasible for many busi- 16        nesses, particularly small businesses, because of its 17        complexity and expense.

18           (5) The delays, expense, uncertainties, loss of 19        control, adverse publicity and animosities that fre- 20        quently accompany litigation of business disputes can 21        only exacerbate the difficulties associated with the 22        year 2000 date change, and work against the success-
23        ful resolution of those difficulties.

24           (6) The Congress recognizes that every business
25        in the United States should be concerned that wide-

1       spread and protracted year 2000 litigation may 2       threaten the network of valued and trusted business
3       relationships that are so important to the effective 4       functioning of the world economy, and which may 5       put unbearable strains on an overburdened judicial 6       system.

7               (7) A proliferation of frivolous year 2000 actions 8       by opportunistic parties may further limit access to 9       courts by straining the resources of the legal system 10      and depriving deserving parties of their legitimate 11      rights to relief.

12             (8) The Congress encourages businesses to ap-13      proach their year 2000 disputes responsibly, and to 14      avoid unnecessary, time-consuming and costly litiga-15      tion based on year 2000 failures. Congress supports 16      good faith negotiations between parties when there is 17      a dispute over a year 2000 problem, and, if necessary, 18      urges the parties to enter into voluntary, non-binding 19      mediation rather than litigation.

20   SEC. 3. DEFINITIONS.

21       In this Act:

23      contract, tariff, license, or warranty.

 18 prospective defendant a written notice that identifies, with 19 particularity as to any year 2000 claim—

15       (b) RESPONSE TO NOTICE.—

21       (f) SANCTION FOR FRIVOLOUS INVOCATION OF THE 22 STAY PROVISION.—In any action in which a defendant acts

 25 suit is a year 2000 action was frivolous and made for the

1 purpose of causing unnecessary delay, the court may award

 20 use alternative dispute resolution, they may also agree to 21 an extension of the 90-day period.

22 (2) At any time after expiration of the 90-day period

 25 alternative dispute resolution.

1       (b) PAYMENT OF MONEYS DUE.—If the parties resolve 2   their dispute through alternative dispute resolution as pro-

21               (2) STAY OF DISCOVERY.—In any year 2000 ac-
22 tion, all discovery shall be stayed during the pendency 23 of any motion to dismiss, unless the court finds upon

 10       ney's fee by determining the appropriate hourly rate and 11       the maximum percentage of the recovery to be paid in attor- 12       ney's fees. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or 13       agreement to the contrary, the presiding judge shall award 14       attorney's fees only pursuant to this title.

15    SEC. 507. AWARD OF REASONABLE COSTS AND ATTORNEY'S 16        FEES AFTER AN OFFER OF SETTLEMENT.

17        (a) OFFER OF SETTLEMENT.—With respect to any 18        year 2000 claim, any party may, at any time not less than 19        10 days before trial, serve upon any adverse party a written 20        offer to settle the year 2000 claim for money or property, 21        including a motion to dismiss the claim, and to enter into 22        a stipulation dismissing the claim or allowing judgment 23        to be entered according to the terms of the offer. Any such 24        offer, together with proof of service thereof, shall be filed 25        with the clerk of the court.

1       (b) ACCEPTANCE OF OFFER.—If the party receiving an 2   offer under subsection (a) serves written notice on the offeror 3   that the offer is accepted, either party may then file with 4   the clerk of the court the notice of acceptance, together with 5   proof of service thereof.

6       (c) FURTHER OFFERS NOT PRECLUDED.—The fact 7   that an offer under subsection (a) is made but not accepted 8   does not preclude a subsequent offer under subsection (a).
9   Evidence of an offer is not admissible for any purpose ex-10   cept in proceedings to enforce a settlement, or to determine 11   costs and expenses under this section.

12       (d) EXEMPTION OF CLAIMS.—At any time before judg-13   ment is entered, the court, upon its own motion or upon 14   the motion of any party, may exempt from this section any 15   year 2000 claim that the court finds presents a question 16   of law or fact that is novel and important and that substan-17   tially affects nonparties. If a claim is exempted from this 18   section, all offers made by any party under subsection (a) 19   with respect to that claim shall be void and have no effect.

20       (e) PETITION FOR PAYMENT OF COSTS, ETC.—If all 21   offers made by a party under subsection (a) with respect 22   to a year 2000 claim, including any motion to dismiss the 23   claim, are not accepted and the dollar amount of the judg-24   ment, verdict, or order that is finally issued (exclusive of 25   costs, expenses, and attorneys' fees incurred after judgment

1 or trial) with respect to the year 2000 claim is not more
2 favorable to the offeree with respect to the year 2000 claim
3 than the last such offer, the offeror may file with the court, 4 within 10 days after the final judgment, verdict, or order 5 is issued, a petition for payment of costs and expenses, in-6 cluding attorneys' fees, incurred with respect to the year 7 2000 claim from the date the last such offer was made or, 8 if the offeree made an offer under this section, from the date 9 the last such offer by the offeree was made.

10 (f) ORDER TO PAY COSTS, ETC.—If the court finds, 11 pursuant to a petition filed under subsection (e) with re-12 spect to a year 2000 claim, that the dollar amount of the 13 judgment, verdict, or order that is finally issued is not more
14 favorable to the offeree with respect to the year 2000 claim 15 than the last such offer, the court shall order the offeree to 16 pay the offeror's costs and expenses, including attorneys' 17 fees, incurred with respect to the year 2000 claim from the 18 date the last offer was made or, if the offeree made an offer 19 under this section, from the date the last such offer by the 20 offeree was made, unless the court finds that requiring the 21 payment of such costs and expenses would be manifestly un-22 just.

23 (g) AMOUNT OF ATTORNEY'S FEES.—Attorney's fees 24 under subsection (f) shall be a reasonable attorney's fee at-25 tributable to the year 2000 claim involved, calculated on

1 the basis of an hourly rate which may not exceed that which 2 the court considers acceptable in the community in which 3 the attorney practices law, taking into account the attor-
 4 ney's qualifications and experience and the complexity of 5 the case, except that the attorney's fees under subsection (f) 6 may not exceed—

7           (A) the actual cost incurred by the offeree for an 8 attorney's fee payable to an attorney for services in 9 connection with the year 2000 claim; or

10           (B) if no such cost was incurred by the offeree
 11 due to a contingency fee agreement, a reasonable cost 12 that would have been incurred by the offeree for an 13 attorney's noncontingent fee payable to an attorney 14 for services in connection with the year 2000 claim.

15           (h) INAPPLICABILITY TO EQUITABLE REMEDIES.—
 16 This section does not apply to any claim seeking an equi- 17 table remedy.

18           (i) INAPPLICABILITY TO CLASS ACTIONS.—This sec-
 19 tion does not apply with respect to a year 2000 action
 20 brought as a class action.

21 SEC. 508. ENFORCEMENT OF CONSUMER PROTECTION
 22 RULES IN YEAR 2000 CLAIMS AND ACTIONS.

23           A client whose attorney fails to comply with this title 24 may file a civil action for damages in the court in which 25 the year 2000 claim or year 2000 action was filed or could

- 1 have been filed or other court of competent jurisdiction. The
- 2 remedy provided by this section is in addition to any other
- 3 available remedy or penalty.
