AN ACT

To preserve the sovereignty of the United States over public lands and acquired lands owned by the United States, and to preserve State sovereignty and private property rights in non-Federal lands surrounding those public lands and acquired lands.

106TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 883

AN ACT

To preserve the sovereignty of the United States over public lands and acquired lands owned by the United States, and to preserve State sovereignty and private property rights in non-Federal lands surrounding those public lands and acquired lands.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “American Land Sov-
5 ereignty Protection Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

7 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

8 (1) The power to dispose of and make all need-
9 ful rules and regulations governing lands belonging
10 to the United States is vested in the Congress under 11 article IV, section 3, of the Constitution.

12 (2) Some Federal land designations made pur-
13 suant to international agreements concern land use 14 policies and regulations for lands belonging to the 15 United States which under article IV, section 3, of 16 the Constitution can only be implemented through 17 laws enacted by the Congress.

18 (3) Some international land designations, such 19 as those under the United States Biosphere Reserve
20 Program and the Man and Biosphere Program of 21 the United Nations Scientific, Educational, and Cul-
22 tural Organization, operate under independent na-
23 tional committees, such as the United States Na-
24 tional Man and Biosphere Committee, which have no

1 legislative directives or authorization from the Con-
2 gress.

3 (4) Actions by the United States in making 4 such designations may affect the use and value of 5 nearby or intermixed non-Federal lands.

6 (5) The sovereignty of the States is a critical 7 component of our Federal system of government and 8 a bulwark against the unwise concentration of 9 power.

10 (6) Private property rights are essential for the 11 protection of freedom.

12 (7) Actions by the United States to designate 13 lands belonging to the United States pursuant to 14 international agreements in some cases conflict with 15 congressional constitutional responsibilities and 16 State sovereign capabilities.

17 (8) Actions by the President in applying certain 18 international agreements to lands owned by the 19 United States diminishes the authority of the Con-
20 gress to make rules and regulations respecting these 21 lands.

22 (b) PURPOSE.—The purposes of this Act are the fol-
23 lowing:

24 (1) To reaffirm the power of the Congress
25 under article IV, section 3, of the Constitution over

1 international agreements which concern disposal,
2 management, and use of lands belonging to the 3 United States.

4 (2) To protect State powers not reserved to the 5 Federal Government under the Constitution from 6 Federal actions designating lands pursuant to inter-
7 national agreements.

8 (3) To ensure that no United States citizen suf-9 fers any diminishment or loss of individual rights as 10 a result of Federal actions designating lands pursu-
11 ant to international agreements for purposes of im-
12 posing restrictions on use of those lands.

13 (4) To protect private interests in real property
14 from diminishment as a result of Federal actions
15 designating lands pursuant to international agree-
16 ments.

17 (5) To provide a process under which the 18 United States may, when desirable, designate lands
19 pursuant to international agreements.

5 assent to the inclusion of the property on the list,
