

For Immediate Release June 19, 2009

Congressman Paul Introduces Evacuees Tax Relief Act

Washington, D.C. - With hurricane season upon us, Congressman Paul

Relief would come in the form of a tax credit or deduction, depending on the wishes of the taxpayer, up to

The legislation, if passed, would be retroactive to December of 2007, affecting evacuees of Hurricanes I

"I have firsthand experience with the burdens faced by those forced to uproot themselves and their families

###