PURPOSE AND SUMMARY

H.R. 1172 was introduced on February 25, 2009, by Representative John Boozman of Arkansas, Ranking Member of the Subcommittee on Economic Opportunity of the Committee on Veterans' Affairs. H.R. 1172, as amended, would require the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) to include on the VA's Web site a list of organizations that provide scholarships to veterans and their survivors.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

Beginning with the World War II G.I. Bill, the VA has administered education programs designed to provide a wide range of education and training opportunities to veterans. Over the years, that mission expanded to include veterans' dependents and survivors.

The number of degree-granting institutions and non-degree training schools has significantly increased since World War II. According to the U.S. Department of Education, there are about 4,314 degree-granting institutions and about 2,222 non-degree training entities that qualify for education assistance programs. Each of these programs may also offer non-Federal financial aid directly or indirectly through their association with foundations. The continued expansion of these education funding sources makes it imperative that the VA assist veterans in accessing all relevant scholarship information.

With the proliferation of schools, the increasing cost of education and training, and the myriad of resources of financial assistance, there is a need for a comprehensive location to provide scholarship information to veterans and their survivors. An Internet search for "veterans scholarships" yields over 8,500 links of information. A centralized location would facilitate a veteran's search for college funds.

The Committee believes that the VA should also include relevant sources of financial assistance for dependents and survivors if the providers of such financial aid notify VA about the availability of such assistance.

An amendment in the nature of a substitute by Mr. Boozman of Arkansas to require the VA to provide a statement indicating that the list of scholarships provided on the VA's Web site is not all-inclusive and the information provided is not verified or endorsed by the VA and require the VA to reasonably maintain such a Web site was agreed to by voice vote.

H.R. 1172—A bill to direct the Secretary of Veterans Affairs to include on the Internet Web site of the Department of Veterans Affairs a list of organizations that provide scholarships to veterans and their survivors

H.R. 1172 would require the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) to provide and maintain on its Web site information regarding scholarships that are available to veterans and family members of deceased veterans. Information to be provided on the Web site would include a list of organizations offering scholarships and a link to their Web sites. VA would also be required to notify schools and other organizations of the opportunity to be listed on the Web site. CBO estimates that implementing the bill would have no significant impact on the federal budget.

H.R. 1172 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would impose no costs on state, local, or trial governments.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Camille Woodland. The estimate was approved by Theresa Gullo, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

FEDERAL MANDATES STATEMENT

ADVISORY COMMITTEE STATEMENT

No advisory committees within the meaning of section 5(b) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act would be created by H.R. 1172.

CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORITY STATEMENT

Pursuant to clause 3(d)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee finds that the Constitutional authority for H.R. 1172 is provided by Article I, section 8 of the Constitution of the United States.

APPLICABILITY TO LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

The Committee finds that the legislation does not relate to the terms and conditions of employment or access to public services or accommodations within the meaning of section 102(b)(3) of the Congressional Accountability Act.
