Mr. OBERSTAR, from the Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure, submitted the following

R E P O R T

[To accompany H.R. 2053]

[Including cost estimate of the Congressional Budget Office]

The Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure, to whom was referred the bill (H.R. 2053) to designate the United States courthouse located at 525 Magoffin Avenue in El Paso, Texas, as the “Albert Armendariz, Sr., United States Courthouse”, having considered the same, report favorably thereon without amendment and recommend that the bill do pass.

PURPOSE OF THE LEGISLATION

H.R. 2053 designates the United States courthouse located at 525 Magoffin Avenue in El Paso, Texas, as the “Albert Armendariz, Sr., United States Courthouse”.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

Judge Albert Armendariz, Sr., had a long and distinguished career of public service. Albert Armendariz was born on August 11, 1919, in El Paso, Texas. After graduating from high school in 1934, Judge Armendariz joined the United States Army and served in World War II. After he left the U.S. Army, Armendariz used the GI Bill to continue his education. He later graduated from the University of Texas at El Paso and then the University of Southern California (USC) Law School, where he was the only Mexican-American in attendance. After graduating from the USC law school in 1950, Judge Armendariz returned to El Paso, Texas.

Early in his career Judge Armendariz tackled discrimination head on while serving on the El Paso Civil Service Commission, pushing the agency to end discrimination against Latino applicants for civil service positions. Perhaps his most lasting legacy will be his work on Hernandez v. The State of Texas, which established Latinos as a class entitled to protection under the 14th amendment of the U.S. Constitution.

From 1976 to 1985, he was an immigration judge (special inquiry officer) with the U.S. Department of Justice and was appointed to, and served on, the Texas Court of Appeals from July 2, 1986, until November 30, 1986.

In addition to his service in government, Judge Armendariz also found time to serve in leadership positions in influential civic organizations. Judge Armendariz served as National President of the League of United Latin American Citizens during the 1950s and fought school segregation and discrimination. Judge Armendariz also helped to form the influential Mexican American Legal Defense & Education Fund in 1968. Judge Armendariz had a never-ending passion for service to his community, and practiced law until his death at age 88 on October 4, 2007.

Given his extraordinary service, it is fitting and proper to honor Judge Armendariz by designating the United States courthouse located at 525 Magoffin Avenue in El Paso, Texas, as the “Albert Armendariz, Sr., United States Courthouse”.

U.S. CONGRESS,
CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE,
Washington, DC, June 5, 2009.

Hon. JAMES L. OBERSTAR,
Chairman, Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure, House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: The Congressional Budget Office has reviewed the following legislation as ordered reported by the House Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure on June 4, 2009:

- H.R. 2053, a bill to designate the United States courthouse located at 525 Magoffin Avenue in El Paso, Texas, as the "Albert Armendariz, Sr., United States Courthouse";
- H.R. 2498, a bill to designate the federal building located at 844 North Rush Street in Chicago, Illinois, as the "William O. Lipinski Federal Building"; and
- H.R. 1687, a bill to designate the federally occupied building located at McKinley Avenue and Third Street , SW., Canton, Ohio, as the "Ralph Regula Federal Building and United States Courthouse".

CBO estimates that enacting those pieces of legislation would have no significant impact on the federal budget and would not affect direct spending or revenues. The bills contain no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments.

If you wish further details on this estimate, we will be pleased to provide them. The CBO staff contact is Matthew Pickford.

Sincerely,

DOUGLAS W. ELMENDORF,
Director.
