PURPOSE OF THE LEGISLATION

H. Res. 1062, as amended, recognizes the Coast Guard Group Astoria's more than 60 years of service to the Pacific Northwest, and for other purposes.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

H. Res. 1062, as amended, recognizes Coast Guard Group Astoria for providing service to the Pacific Northwest for more than 60 years.

Established in 1948, Group Astoria's area of responsibility includes more than 140 miles of coast line, extending up to 50 nautical miles offshore, between Queets, Washington, and Pacific City, Oregon. Group Astoria has 325 personnel and consists of six units including: Group Astoria, Air Station Astoria, Aids to Navigation Team Astoria, Station Cape Disappointment, Station Tillamook Bay, and Station Grays Harbor. Group Astoria's missions include search and rescue, environmental protection, law enforcement, ports waterways and coastal security, and aids-to-navigation support. The Group also provides medical, administrative, civil and naval engineering, and communications support for Coast Guard units in its area of responsibility.

In an average year, the members of Group Astoria respond to more than 800 search and rescue calls, and support the maintenance of 470 aids-to-navigation. Over the past seven years, Group Astoria has greatly enhanced the safety and security of the Pacific Northwest by spending more than 1,000 hours monitoring and escorting High Interest Vessels, responding to hundreds of distress calls, assisting more than 10,000 mariners in distress, and saving more than 500 lives. During this time, the unit also conducted more than 1,200 Living Marine Resources missions enforcing Federal and state laws to ensure commercial fishing vessels are not over-fishing in certain areas, protecting the fragile marine environment, and conserving marine resources for future generations.

In December 2007, during the Pacific Northwest winter storm, Coast Guard Air Station Astoria's brave helicopter crews flew 28 sorties in 130-knot winds to rescue 136 distressed mariners.

This resolution recognizes the Coast Guard Group Astoria's more than 60 years of service to the Pacific Northwest; honors the brave men and women of Group Astoria who risk their lives every day to ensure the safety and security of the people of the Pacific Northwest; and directs the Clerk of the House of Representatives to make available enrolled copies of this resolution to Coast Guard Group Astoria for appropriate display.
