REPORT WRITING AND EDITING SESSION INFORMATION

Public seating is limited and will be available on a “first-come, first-served” basis.

Advanced reservations are not required. All participants must register at the front desk of the Hall of States lobby.

REQUIRED ACCESSIBILITY STATEMENT: The entirety of these Commission editorial and drafting meetings will be open to the public. The Commission may recess the public editorial/drafting sessions to address administrative issues in closed session.

The open meetings will also be adjourned in the noon vicinity for a lunch break. At the beginning of the lunch break, the Chairman will announce the reconvening time for the Annual Report review and editing session so members of the public will know when they may return if they wish to do so.

Any member of the public is permitted to file a written statement with the Commission. If a person wishes to submit a statement pertaining to the Commission’s purview or work, he/she may leave it with the Executive Director at any of its public meetings, or mail or deliver it to the Commission at the following address: 444 North Capitol Street, NW, Suite 602, Washington, DC 20001.

1. The Commission’s procedures for conducting its 2011 Annual Report preparation sessions do not provide for members of the public to speak during these sessions.
 2. The drafts and other documents that were made available to the Commissioners in preparation for the Annual Report Review-Editing sessions are available for public inspection and copying in the Commission offices—in Suite 602 of the Hall of States Building—during its normal office hours of 9:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.
 3. Copies of these materials may be obtained at the Commission’s actual cost for photocopying plus the time of the Commission’s staff consumed in making the copies. Those costs are available in the Commission’s offices, and vary depending on whether originals require color photocopying or black and white photocopying. Payment for requested copies must be made in cash or by check in advance to the U.S.-China Commission.
