Dear Friend,

As your representative in Washington, DC, my office can provide congressional tours for a variety of sights and attractions in the area, some of which are detailed in this information packet. You may request that we reserve tours for you and your family. Please feel free to call my DC office at 202.225.5661, fax us at 202.225.0285, or email us at costello.house.gov in order to request a tour.

Please note that there are a limited number of spaces available; therefore, our reservations are made on a first-come, first-serve basis. We recommend that you make your reservations up to three months in advance. We will then contact you regarding ticket availability.

I hope you enjoy your visit to our nation's capital and please be sure to stop by my office located at 2408 Rayburn House Office Building to pick up complimentary passes to the House and Senate Galleries.

As always, I am at your service. Please do not hesitate to contact my office whenever we may be of assistance.

Sincerely,

Jerry F. Costello

THE UNITED STATES CAPITOL BUILDING – The Capitol is open to the public for guided tours only. Tours are conducted from 8:45 a.m. – 3:30 p.m., Monday – Saturday. The Capitol is open on all federal holidays except Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, New Year’s Day, and Inauguration Day.

Guided Tours of the Capitol

Visitors should enter the Capitol Visitor Center to pick-up tour passes for a guided tour of the Capitol. The Capitol Visitor Center, the new main entrance to the U.S. Capitol, is located below the East Plaza of the Capitol between Constitution and Independence Avenues. Tours are free, but tour passes are required. For more information, visit www.visitthecapitol.gov.

Guided tours of the Capitol begin at the Orientation Theaters on the lower level of the Capitol Visitor Center. “Out of Many, One,” a 13-minute film, illustrates how this country established a new form of government, highlights the vital role that Congress plays in the daily lives of Americans, and introduces you to the building that houses the U.S. Congress.

Tour hours: 8:45 a.m. – 3:30 p.m., Monday – Saturday

Advance Passes: Tours may be booked in advance by contacting our office at (202) 225-5661, online at <http://tours.visitthecapitol.gov>, or through the Office of Visitor Services by calling (202) 226-8000.

Same-Day Passes: A limited number of passes are available each day at the tour kiosks on the East and West Fronts of the Capitol or at the Information Desks in Emancipation Hall on the lower level of the Visitor Center.

Restricted Items: Before entering the Capitol Visitor Center, all visitors are screened by a magnetometer and all items that are permitted inside the building are screened by an x-ray device. The following items are strictly prohibited:

- Any bag larger than 18” wide x 14” high x 8.5” deep

- Aerosol containers
- Any pointed object (i.e., knitting needles, letter openers, etc. Note: pens and pencils are permitted.)
- Cans and bottles - Open and empty clear or translucent bottles, cans, food and beverage containers are allowed within the Capitol and Capitol Visitor Center (CVC). These items remain prohibited in the House and Senate Galleries.
- Electric stun guns, martial arts weapons or devices
- Food or beverages of any kind
- Guns, replica guns, ammunition, and fireworks
- Knives of any size
- Mace and pepper spray
- Non-aerosol spray (prescriptions for medical needs are permitted)
- Razors and box cutters

CAPITOL VISITORS CENTER - The Capitol Visitor Center, the new main entrance to the U.S. Capitol, is located below the East Plaza of the Capitol between Constitution and Independence Avenues. The Visitor Center is open to the public from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Saturday. It is closed on Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, New Year’s Day, and Inauguration Day.

Dining and Gift Shops

Restaurant (Lower Level): Freshly made soups, salads, specialty entrees, pizza, sandwiches, desserts, and beverages reflect the diverse bounty of America.

Hours: 7:30 a.m. – 4 p.m., Monday – Saturday.

Gift Shops (Upper Level): A unique selection of merchandise inspired by the Capitol's art and architectural treasures, fun and educational gifts, books, jewelry, and exciting custom-designed products make excellent souvenirs.

Hours: 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m., Monday – Saturday.

Exhibition Hall (Lower Level)

Here you can explore the only exhibition in the country dedicated to telling the story of Congress and the construction of the U.S. Capitol. Exhibit highlights include rarely seen historic documents from the National Archives and the Library of Congress, artifacts from around the country, and an 11-foot-tall touchable model of the Capitol dome. You may also watch the action on the floors of both chambers of Congress at the House and Senate theaters when Congress is in session. Numerous interactive stations allow you to discover more about Congress, its Members, and the Capitol.

Hours: 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m., Monday – Saturday.

Metro: Capitol South or Union Station
