Congressional Health Plan: Members refused, 180-248, to oust members who voted for HR 6079 (above) from the taxpayer-subsidized health plan for lawmakers, civil servants, federal retirees and others. A yes vote was to discharge these members from the federal plan on grounds they do not deserve far better insurance coverage than most of their constituents receive.

Fast-Track Mining Permits: Members passed, 256-160, a bill to ease environmental rules and limit lawsuits in order to quicken agency reviews of applications to mine on federal land in the West. A yes vote backed a bill (HR 4402) to spur extraction of critical minerals as well as routine sand and gravel deposits.

Gold, Silver Royalties: Members defeated, 163-253, a bid by Democrats to require royalty payments for the first time on gold, silver, uranium and other hard-rock minerals mined on federal land. A yes vote was to levy royalties of 12.5 percent with proceeds used to clean up toxic discharges from tens of thousands of abandoned mines. (HR 4402)
