

For information on Financial Aid and applying to college, please click here .

For information on internships in Congressman Price's office, please click here .

For information about the Congressional Award, please click here .

Below you will find exciting information about the United States government and other links for students, parents and teachers.

Do You Know What Happened on This Date in History?

From the Library of Congress.

Ben's Guide to U.S. Government

Learn how your U.S. Government works, about its history and your civic responsibilities by reading these pages and playing the games on this site.

Kids in the House : The Official Kid's Page of the U.S. House of Representatives

Learn about the legislative process and its effect on you. Experience the exciting world of government like you never have before.

Whitehousekids.gov

Visit the White House's official page for kids and learn about the President, his responsibilities and the history of the office.

First Gov for Kids

The federal government's portal for fun, educational and safe sites for kids.

CIA's Homepage for Kids

Learn what it takes to be a spy, read about the history of the CIA and try on spy disguises.

National Zoo

Meet the animals that live at our national zoo.

NASA Just for Kids

Learn about our missions to space, new technologies and the history of our space program.

National Children's Museum

Take a tour of the National Children's Museum.

EPA's Environmental Kids Club

Learn about the environment and what you can do to protect it.

Smithsonian Kids' Castle

The Smithsonian's official site for kids includes games and learning material about the things that kids are interested in.