MR. SESSIONS, from the Committee on Rules, submitted the following

R E P O R T

[To accompany H. Res. ]

The Committee on Rules, having had under consideration House Resolution____, by a record vote of 8 to 3, report the same to the House with the recommendation that the resolution be adopted.

SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS OF THE RESOLUTION

The resolution provides for consideration of H.R. 6213, the No More Solyndras Act, under a structured rule. The resolution provides 90 minutes of general debate equally divided and controlled by the chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on Energy and Commerce. The resolution waives all points of order against consideration of the bill. The resolution makes in order as original text for purpose of amendment an amendment in the nature of a substitute consisting of the text of Rules Committee Print 112-31 and provides that it shall be considered as read. The resolution waives all points of order against the amendment in the nature of a substitute. The resolution makes in order only those amendments printed in this report. Each such amendment may be offered only in the order printed in this report, may be offered only by a Member designated in this report, shall be considered as read, shall be debatable for the time specified in this report equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent, shall not be subject to amendment, and shall not be subject to a demand for division of the question. The resolution waives all points of order against the amendments printed in this report. The resolution provides one motion to recommit with or without instructions.

Section 2 of the resolution authorizes the Speaker to entertain motions to suspend the rules at any time on the legislative days of September 20, 2012 and September 21, 2012.

EXPLANATION OF WAIVERS

1           (6) The Department of Energy estimates that 2           projects funded under the title XVII program are 3           expected to create 60,000 jobs.

Page 3, lines 13 through 21, amend paragraph (9)
to read as follows:

4           (9) An investigation by the Subcommittee on 5           Oversight and Investigation of the Committee on 6           Energy and Commerce of the House of Representa-
7           tives determined that the Solyndra loan determina-
8           tion was based on the best professional judgment of 9           career Department of Energy and Office of Manage-
10          ment and Budget officials, without political or ideo-
11          logical interference from Obama Administration po-
12          litical appointees or career officials.

Page 3, lines 22 through 24, strike “Despite an express” and all that follows through “financial interest,” and insert “Title XVII provides that taxpayer interests cannot be subordinated in the origination of a loan, but does not state whether subordination is allowed during restructuring of a loan. The Department of Energy General Counsel determined that in such cases subordination was allowed under the law, and”.

1           (12) Department of the Treasury officials testi-
2           fied before the Subcommittee on Energy and Power
3           of the Committee on Energy and Commerce of the 4           House of Representatives on October 14, 2011, and 5           stated that their consultation on the Solyndra loan
6           guarantee was not rushed. In interviews conducted
7           by the Subcommittee on Oversight and Investigation
8           of the Committee on Energy and Commerce of the 9           House of Representatives, Office of Management
10          and Budget officials indicated that their review of 11          the Solyndra loan, and the review of Department of 12          Energy officials, was thorough, complete, and fair,
13          and based on reasonable economic assumptions
14          about the company’s future.
