Marino Tours Tobyhanna

Rep. Marino recently toured the Tobyhanna Army Depot where he met with leaders and employees of the facility. Frank Zardecki, deputy commander, and Kevin Toolan, chief of staff, gave a briefing on the depot operations. More than 1,300 residents of the 10th District work at the facility. Constituents Invited To 3 Open Houses

TUNKHANNOCK – U.S. Rep. Tom Marino, PA-10, will host an open house at each of his three constituent service centers in August, it was announced by District Director David Weber. The events will allow district residents to meet the congressman, ask him questions about legislative issues and talk with staff about constituent services, Weber said.

Marino said he looks forward to the interaction and the opportunity to meet his constituents in person.

“We had three successful open houses in the spring when we unveiled our new offices,” Marino said. “We had some great exchanges with our visitors at that time. Now, we are opening our doors so that people can come in and ask me questions in person.”

The open house dates are:

Tuesday, Aug. 23, 3-5 p.m., 106 Arch St., Sunbury

Thursday, Aug. 25, 5-7 p.m., 181 W. Tioga St. Suite 2, Tunkhannock

Tuesday, Aug. 30, 3-5 p.m., 1020 Commerce Park Drive Suite 1A, Williamsport

Health Care Focus of Lewisburg Town Hall

Susquehanna Valley Conservatives hosted a town hall meeting on health care in Lewisburg. Three health-care professionals — physicians John P. Pagana and Ralph Schmeltz, and administrator Michael O’Keefe — gave presentations and answered questions. Congressman Marino answered questions on health care, government spending and raising the debt ceiling.

Senior Fair Sept. 26 in Tunkhannock

TUNKHANNOCK – U.S. Rep. Tom Marino, PA-10, will host his first Senior Fair from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sept. 26 at the Triton Hose Co., Route 6 (West Tioga Street), Tunkhannock.

The expo will feature exhibits by local, state and federal organizations including a visit by the U.S.

Department of Veterans Affairs bus.

Admission and parking are free.

Rep. Marino will be in attendance.

To reserve exhibit space, contact Cathy Romaniello at the congressman’s Tunkhannock constituent service center, 570-836-8020.

Susquehanna County visit planned

Rep. Marino will visit Susquehanna County on Wednesday, Aug. 24.

The congressman plans to walk around the Harford Fair during the afternoon before heading to Bingham’s Restaurant to talk with local residents.

The meet and greet will be held from 5 to 6 p.m. at the newly constructed Bingham’s on state Route 92 in Lenox Township. The event is free and open to the public.

To get to Bingham’s, take exit 211 off Interstate 81.

He encourages residents to stop by to meet him, discuss his work in Washington, and express their concerns about issues important to them.
