Hey Jim,
Hope your New year went well, long story longer, final confirmation from Jeff Novitki, the FBI/IRS agent that interviewed Grimsley said" I am Not the trainer in the report and was main reason for there statement of Gross inacrasies regarding the names, they actually feel sorry for me and that I have nothing to worry about regarding anything.
That article that came out a couple of Sundays ago basically reked any chance of being hired by St John's and or any other job, I never went to the news, my attorney spoke to sherman and said I was not in the report and wanted to clear me name and that is it,

My point is to fill you in because the players you represent and like last night with andy you did not know about the quinn thing, also I WAS NOT OFFICIALLY TALKED TO AND WILL NEVER BE, I WILL NEVER BETRAY MY CLIENTS AND I WANT THEM NOT TO WORRY ABOUT BEING AROUND ME.
If you know any lawyers that would take this case let me know, they can have all the money, I do not care and also sorry to bother you with this but being informed is good no matter how trivial it may be.

Hope all is good, regards,
mac
