Dear Chairman Scalise:

On behalf of more than seven million senior citizen activists, the 60 Plus Association thanks the Republican Study Committee for introducing the “Jumpstarting Opportunity with Bold Solutions (JOBS)” Act, which will create and restore urgently needed American jobs and stop over-reaching regulations by bureaucratic agencies.

American families currently spend almost $15,000 ($1.8 TRILLION nationally) per year on regulations. We agree that it is past time that agencies disclose the costs and benefits of these regulations.

Thanks to your outstanding leadership, this effort, if successful, will restore accountability in the implementation of the nation’s labor practices, energy policy, and access to capital. Your proposed bill will remove burdensome regulations that hinder our nation’s economic growth.

We applaud your efforts to respond to the overwhelming concern Americans have to the spiraling cost of regulations and join with you in urging the House of Representatives to take action.

I cannot stress strongly enough that senior citizens and soon-to-be-seniors believe that current regulatory burdens threaten our nation’s security, and cripple our economic stability.

Sincerely,

James L. Martin
Chairman
