HOT HOUSEWIFE

Having logged eight years on Wisteria Lane, the women of Desperate Housewives are experts when it comes to photo sessions. "They've been through so many together over the years, they just snap into it," says photographer Scott McDermott, who shot the quartet of leading ladies at the Langham Huntington hotel in Pasadena.

"These women are absolutely total professionals." After all the primping and prep, Eva Longoria was the first one ready, so McDermott took her outside on the balcony to photograph her solo. "She has almost an Old Hollywood kind of glamour to her," says McDermott. "It was such a cool little moment."
