

RIHANNA OUT OF CONTROL?

Less than a week after being so ill she needed an IV infusion, Rihanna was back on the club scene, hitting New York City hot spot Greenhouse May 12. Her seemingly cavalier attitude toward her health has friends worried. "She's gotten irresponsible with her partying," a music source tells Scoop of the singer, who missed her Saturday Night Live dress rehearsal May 5. "She's still functioning," adds a source, "but when you add it all up—she smokes and drinks a lot, doesn't eat properly and has a grueling schedule—you realize she's bound to hit a wall soon."

"She's young, rich and does what she wants," a pal says of Rihanna, 24 (in New York City May 13).

"She had the flu and needed an IV but is fine now," a source says of Rihanna (being treated, right; with Snoop Dogg April 15).

Fox, in Manhattan last month with wife Margherita, 54. His DUI hearing is set for June 7.

MATTHEW FOX MORE TROUBLE

On May 4, nine days after telling PEOPLE he wanted quiet "time with my family," Matthew Fox, 45, was arrested for DUI in Bend, Ore. He had a reputation as a partyer on the Hawaii set of Lost, and last August he allegedly assaulted the female driver of a party bus. A source says Fox "is just a good guy who made a mistake." Rehab is a no-go, "because there isn't a problem."
