

Meet the Beatles

Nearly 50 years after invading the States, Paul McCartney and Ringo Starr can still come together. The old Beatles rhythm section caught up over Italian food in Hollywood before hitting the road: Paul just kicked off his Out There world tour - with huge gigs planned from Brooklyn to Bonnaroo - and Ringo's circling the globe with his All Starr Band, featuring members of Mr. Mister and Toto. "Every time I ask Paul to join the All Starrs," Ringo once said, "he says he's too busy."

ROCCO'S MODERN LIFE
Twelve-year-old Rocco got into the groove.

FOR YOU BLUE
Jay-Z had some giggles in Paris with daughter Blue Ivy.

GIMME MORE Britney Spears got a java jolt between sessions for her new Will.i.am-produced album in L.A.

RUNNIN' DOWN A JAM
In L.A., Tom Petty and the Heartbreakers revved up for their intimate spring shows. Says Petty, "I'm just gonna go where the wind blows us."

Let more outside in.

Get a little more sun. The all-new Volkswagen Beetle Convertible opens up to the world with the push of a button, and the available 200-hp turbocharged engine sure makes it hard to stay inside. That's the Power of German Engineering.
