

Nine Federal Unemployment Insurance Extensions Already

Title	Date Signed into Law	UI Spending Added to Debt	Maximum Weeks of Benefits
1. Supplemental Appropriations Act of 2008	June 30, 2008	$13 Billion	26 State + 13 Federal 39 Weeks Total
2. Unemployment Compensation Extension Act of 2008	November 21, 2008	$6 Billion	26 State + 33 Federal 59 Weeks Total
3. American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009	February 17, 2009	$39 Billion	26 State + 53 Federal 79 Weeks Total
4. Worker, Homeownership, and Business Assistance Act	November 6, 2009	Paid For	26 State + 73 Federal 99 Weeks Total
5. Department of Defense Appropriations Act, 2010	December 19, 2009	$11 Billion	Straight Extension 99 Weeks Total
6. Temporary Extension Act of 2010	March 2, 2010	$7 Billion	Straight Extension 99 Weeks Total
7. Continuing Extension Act of 2010	April 15, 2010	$13 Billion	Straight Extension 99 Weeks Total
8. Unemployment Compensation Extension Act of 2010	July 22, 2010	$34 Billion	Straight Extension 99 Weeks Total
9. Tax Relief, UI Reauthorization, and Job Creation Act of 2010	December 17, 2010	$57 Billion	Straight Extension 99 Weeks Total
Total		$180 Billion

Source: Congressional Budget Office scores and Congressional Research Service