

Vice Investigators Raid Potomac Falls Massage Parlor

(Created: Thursday, April 29, 2010 10:12 AM EDT)

After a six-month investigation by the Loudoun County Sheriff's Office's Vice-Narcotics Unit deputies shut down a Potomac Falls business that allegedly was operating an unlicensed massage parlor. The owner and eight others face criminal charges.

The business, Green Therapy in the Cascades Marketplace, was raided during the execution of search warrant Tuesday night.

Owner Mi J. Kwon, 41, of Potomac Falls, was charged with maintaining a bawdy place and allowing massages to be performed without a valid permit.

Two employees—Min H. Sweeny, 40, of Georgia, and Jung S. Choi, 35, of North Carolina—were charged with performing massages without a valid permit. A third employee, Seon H. Wolf, 43, was charged with "willfully placing a hand or hands upon, touch with any part of the body, fondle in any manner or massage a sexual or genital part of any other person."

Additionally, deputies charged Jason D. Cienfuegos, 26, of Sterling, Bradley S. Cleg, 23, of Frederick, MD, Jason R. Molina-Garcia, 19, of Herndon, Ravi K. Gadap, 34, of Reston and Hassan Malik, 32, of Reston, with frequenting a bawdy place.

The activities of the business remain under investigation.

Reader Comments

The following are comments from the readers. In no way do they represent the view of Leesburg Today.

Total Comments: No comments posted.

Copyright © 2010 Leesburg Today

Close Window