

Student Advisory Board Application

The 18th Congressional District's Student Advisory Board was founded in 1993 as a way to give young people a voice in our government.

The Student Advisory Board is made up of high school students who live or attend school in the 18th Congressional District. Past Student Advisory Boards have researched topics and polled students on issues important to young people and made recommendations on legislation being considered in Congress.

The ideal candidate holds a Junior or Senior standing in high school and is responsible, creative, enthusiastic, dedicated, and able to attend meetings twice a month. For more information, please go to our website: <http://eshoo.house.gov/>.
