Dear High School Art Student,

It is my pleasure to invite you to participate in the 2013 Congressional Arts Competition. Begun in 1982, this annual art competition offers high school students an opportunity to exhibit their artwork in the United States Capitol.

Every year, Members of Congress are given the opportunity to choose one piece of art from their Congressional District to display in the Cannon Tunnel, a path tread by many visitors and Members of Congress as they make their way to the U.S. Capitol Building.

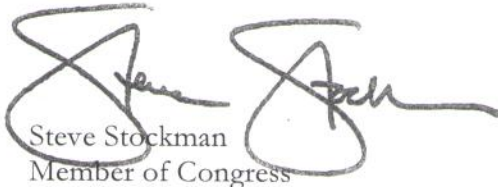

The winner from each district will also be invited to Washington, D.C., to attend the annual unveiling ceremony in June. Two roundtrip airline tickets will be provided by Southwest Airlines for this event.

Guidelines and information packets are being sent to all high schools in the Thirty Sixth Congressional District. Students wishing to participate must submit their artwork no later than Wednesday, April 24, 2013.

All entries must be sent or delivered to our Pasadena or Orange offices (address below).

Students may also contact Jackie Gloor in our Pasadena District office at (281) 478-2799 or call our Washington, D.C. office at (202) 225-1555 for more information.

Warm Regards,

Steve Stockman
Member of Congress
