1 SECTION 1. GAO STUDY.

2 Not later than May 1, 2014, the Comptroller General
3 shall transmit to the Committee on Energy and Commerce
4 of the House of Representatives and the Committee on 5 Energy and Natural Resources of the Senate a report
6 that—

7 (1) assesses the extent to which the Federal 8 Energy Regulatory Commission is expected to experience
9 delays in issuing certificates of public convenience
10 and necessity for the siting, construction, expansion,
11 or operation of any natural gas pipeline
12 project;

13 (2) assesses the extent to which other Federal,
14 State, or local permitting authorities are expected to 15 experience delays in issuing permits required under 16 Federal law in connection with the siting, construction,
17 tion, expansion, or operation of any natural gas

1 pipeline project for which a certificate of public con-
2 venience and necessity is required; and

3 (3) examines the effect of anticipated Congres-
4 sional appropriations or other resources on the abil-
5 ity of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission
6 and other Federal agencies to review applications for 7 certificates and permits described in paragraphs (1)
8 and (2) in a timely manner.
