

Guide to Grants

From the Office of Congresswoman Terri A. Sewell

Proudly Representing Alabama's 7th Congressional District

June 9, 2014

Welcome to the Guide to Grants!

I am honored to represent the 7th Congressional District of Alabama. One of the most important responsibilities as your representative is to provide you with information about funding opportunities. Now more than ever, grant opportunities are vital to the success of our local governments, organizations and other entities. This weekly guide will identify federal and foundation grant opportunities to assist you in goals for our communities. This Guide will include links to grant writing resources to help you make your proposals more successful. This Guide will also describe new funding opportunities for economic development, infrastructure, healthcare and educational projects as example. In addition, I am pleased to provide a Letter of Support for grant application projects in the 7th Congressional District of Alabama. Please let us know when grants are awarded, especially if you found the opportunities in the Guide to Grants.

For more information, please visit the website at <http://sewell.house.gov/> and you can subscribe to Guide to Grants at: <http://sewell.house.gov/contact-me/newsletter> or call 202-225-2665. Previous editions of the Guide to Grants are archived at <http://sewell.house.gov/guide-grants>.

CONGRESSWOMAN SEWELL RESPONDS TO THE PASSING OF DR. MAYA ANGELOU

Washington, DC – Today, Congresswoman Terri A. Sewell released the following statement in response to the passing of memoirist and poet, Maya Angelou:

“Today, we lost one of the most renowned and inspirational voices of our time. Through her work, Dr. Maya Angelou recorded and celebrated the tragedies and triumphs of the African American experience and provided a voice to women across the world suffering from sexual abuse and discrimination. From overcoming poverty and first-hand racial segregation in the Jim Crow South during her youth to becoming one of our country’s most cherished poets, Dr. Angelou has inspired generations to overcome the confines of their circumstances.

Although Dr. Angelou has left us, her words will continue to be a guide, empowering and comforting us during times of grief and success. Today, as we continue to fight modern-day barriers to voting rights and efforts to strip women of the ability to make personal choices, I am inspired and empowered by the eloquent words Dr. Angelou spoke at the inauguration of President Bill Clinton in January 1993:

“History, despite its wrenching pain,

Cannot be unlived, and if faced

With courage, need not be lived again”

Through our grief, may we draw strength from the resolute power of Dr. Angelou’s words and live out her mission to “not merely survive, but to thrive; and to do so with some passion, some compassion, some humor, and some style.”

CONGRESSWOMAN SEWELL SUPPORTS LEGISLATION TO IMPROVE AND STRENGTHEN HOUSING FINANCING OPTIONS FOR RURAL AMERICANS

Washington, DC – Today, Congresswoman Terri A. Sewell issued the following statement after voting in favor of the Preserving Access to Manufactured Housing Act to be reported out of committee for passage on the house floor:

“Today, I voted in favor of the Preserving Access to Manufactured Housing Act to be reported out of the Financial Services Committee for passage on the house floor. I strongly believe that low-income, rural Americans should have access to the financing needed to purchase affordable housing. This legislation ensures that manufactured housing remains a viable and affordable option.

While this is not a perfect bill, I have made a commitment to working with my Democratic and Republican Colleagues, including Ranking Member Maxine Waters (D-CA) and Rep. Stephen Fincher (R-TN), to ensure that the maximum allowable interest rate to finance the purchase of a manufactured home is reasonable and fair. I look forward to strengthening this bill and improving accessibility to affordable housing for rural Americans, in the State of Alabama and across the country.”

Obama Administration Hosts First "Made in Rural America" Forum to Promote Rural Exports

Agriculture Secretary Vilsack Announces Additional Resources for Rural Exporters, Future Rural Forums

Canonsburg, PA, June 4, 2014 -- The White House Rural Council today held the first "Made in Rural America" regional export forum with business owners and local leaders in Canonsburg. The one day meeting was hosted by the Appalachian Regional Commission (ARC) and Secretary of Agriculture Tom Vilsack delivered the keynote address. The forum kicks off a series that will include four additional forums to be headlined by Secretary of Commerce Penny Pritzker, Small Business Administration Administrator Maria Contreras-Sweet, Export-Import Bank Chairman Fred Hochberg, and United States Trade Representative Michael Froman.

The series of forums are part of the Obama Administration's Made in Rural America Export and Investment Initiative that was created earlier this year by President Obama to help rural businesses and leaders take advantage of new investment opportunities and access new markets abroad. This first forum will provide business-to-business learning opportunities and federal, state, and local expertise for rural business and community leaders. The next forum, hosted by the Delta Regional Authority and keynoted by Secretary Pritzker, will be held in the Memphis region on July 18.

At the forum, the Obama Administration unveiled a dedicated web portal for rural businesses considering export opportunities available on BusinessUSA.gov. With over 5 million page views to date, BusinessUSA.gov allows U.S. businesses to search aggregated business-related information and resources from 24 federal agencies, from starting a business to financing to exporting. Now with a news feed specifically highlighting relevant export opportunities and headlines plus a forthcoming quick search tool for rural businesses preparing to export, BusinessUSA.gov is poised to help rural producers, manufacturers and other businesses successfully enter the export market.

"In 2013, exported food and agricultural products topped a record breaking $144 billion and supported nearly one million jobs," said Secretary of Agriculture Tom Vilsack. "With the success of agricultural exports, we know that other rural businesses such as manufacturers, service providers, and value-added producers have much to offer the world market and the ability to grow and create jobs when their exports are increased. Working together we can help grow rural America's economic potential."

"Exporting goods and services helps U.S. businesses grow faster, hire more employees, pay higher wages, and helps spread American ideas, innovation and values," said U.S. Secretary of Commerce Penny Pritzker. "The U.S. Commerce Department is proud to be a partner in the Made in Rural America Export and Investment Initiative, which works to ensure our rural businesses – from light manufacturers to service providers – benefit from exporting. The "Made in Rural America" partnership advances our new NEI/NEXT initiative and is in clear alignment with Commerce's "Open for Business Agenda" which helps more companies export to more markets, reaching the 95 percent of customers that live outside the United States."

"By empowering rural businesses to look beyond America's borders and sell their goods overseas, the Export-Import Bank is helping to strengthen rural communities and create and sustain jobs here in the United States," said Export-Import Bank Chairman Fred Hochberg. "The Made in Rural America export forums will help more rural businesses and workers learn about and take advantage of the tools the Export-Import Bank has to offer."

ARC Federal Co-Chairman Earl F. Gohl noted that with Appalachia's enterprises having the opportunity to expand their markets and sell internationally, "ARC was pleased to host this first 'Made in Rural America' export forum in Canonsburg, Pennsylvania. With all of the export assistance that is now available, including the tools laid out at this forum, no rural business should ignore the opportunities that are available to grow its own export market."

"BusinessUSA is pleased to support the 'Made in Rural America Export and Investment Initiative' and has begun the process of adding new content to the already extensive export resources on BusinessUSA.gov. Rural businesses and entrepreneurs will want to stay tuned to <http://business.usa.gov/rural-exporting> as we will also be developing a new online tool to help them quickly discover and access Government-wide information and services specifically geared to support rural exporters," said Dennis Alvord, Executive Director of BusinessUSA.

Exporting companies grow faster, employ more workers, and pay higher wages than non-exporting companies. Smaller and midsize companies can benefit exponentially by entering the export market. According to the Department of Commerce's International Trade Administration, Pennsylvania has over 13,000 small and medium size business exporters, representing 90 percent of all exporters in the state. In 2012, These businesses exported more than $17 billion in goods. Other export successes include:

- The Auburn Leather Company of Auburn, Kentucky (population 1,300) is a woman-owned small business which manufactures leather laces for footwear and sporting equipment. In 1986, the company had 12 employees and $900,000 annual sales. As international interest for their products grew, Auburn Leather was able to access an insurance policy from the Export-Import Bank which has enabled them to meet demand. Auburn Leather now does over $20 million in annual sales, with export transactions accounting for more than 45 percent. The company employs 120 people, with twenty jobs added in the past two years alone. The company projects adding an additional 20 positions in the near future.
- West Virginia's Wheeling Truck Center in Wheeling, West Virginia (population 28,000) has exported trucks and truck parts into 93 countries. Several years ago, Wheeling received international requests and orders through its domestic e-commerce website. With help from the Department of Commerce the Wheeling Truck Center saw an increase in revenue of more than $2 million in 2013 and have created three full-time jobs that depend solely on exports in three years' time.
- Ziegler Brothers, Inc of Gardners, Pennsylvania (population 150) manufactures specialty animal feeds, aquaculture feeds for fish and shrimp farms, feeds for pet exotic animals and specialty diets for animals that serve as health models in research since 1935. The Ziegler Brothers export to over 40 countries a year, with exports accounting for about 50 percent of the company's overall sales.

About the White House Rural Council

To address challenges in Rural America, build on the Administration's rural economic strategy, and improve the implementation of that strategy, the President signed an Executive Order establishing the White House Rural Council. The Council coordinates the Administration's efforts in rural America by streamlining and improving the effectiveness of federal programs serving rural America; engage stakeholders, including farmers, ranchers, and local citizens, on issues and solutions in rural communities; and promoting and coordinating private-sector partnerships. The work of the White House Rural Council and USDA to bring investment to rural America is an example of how the Administration is creating smart partnerships with the private sector to better support Americans in all parts of the country.

RURAL HOUSING SERVICE ADMINISTRATOR TONY HERNANDEZ CELEBRATES PARTNERSHIPS THAT MAKE AFFORDABLE HOUSING MORE ACCESSIBLE

USDA officials celebrated Homeownership Month here today and highlighted partnerships that are helping low- and very-low-income rural Georgia residents become homeowners.

"Partnerships such as the one with Totally Free, Inc. are making affordable housing more accessible," Rural Housing Service Administrator Tony Hernandez said. "For more than a decade, Totally Free and other groups have helped Georgia homebuyers by increasing awareness of our housing loan programs."

Hernandez is in the state this week celebrating National Homeownership Month. A list of housing events taking place this month in Georgia is available at: http://www.rurdev.usda.gov/SupportDocuments/ga\_sfh\_hom\_events\_2014.pdf. To learn more about USDA homeownership assistance and events, follow us on the USDA FaceBook page.

USDA is finalizing a plan to expand access to rural housing programs by establishing experience and training standards for independent partners that would ensure mortgage applications are complete. The plan would allow groups like Totally Free, Inc. to add to its current services. The organization already provides homebuyer education, housing counseling, financial education and foreclosure prevention services in Southeast Georgia and North Florida.

The Obama Administration's housing policies are helping to strengthen rural communities and the overall rural economy. In 2013 alone, USDA helped nearly 5,000 rural Georgia residents become homeowners. Nationwide, in both people served and loan dollars provided, 2013 was the most successful year in the history of USDA single-family housing programs.

USDA Rural Development programs that support rural homeownership include:

- Direct home loans for very-low-income applicants. Payment assistance is provided to lower the mortgage interest rate to as low as one percent.
- Guaranteed home loans for moderate-income families. USDA works with private-sector lenders to back the lenders' loans.
- Home repair loans and grants to help rural homeowners make improvements or repairs. Examples include making homes accessible for people with disabilities or removing health and safety hazards such as poor wiring or plumbing.

President Obama's plan for rural America has brought about historic investment and resulted in stronger rural communities. Under the President's leadership, these investments in housing, community facilities, businesses and infrastructure have empowered rural America to continue leading the way – strengthening America's economy, small towns and rural communities.

USDA's investments in rural communities support the rural way of life that stands as the backbone of our American values. President Obama and Agriculture Secretary Vilsack are committed to a smarter use of federal resources to foster sustainable economic prosperity and ensure the government is a strong partner for businesses, entrepreneurs and working families in rural communities.

ATTENTION VETERANS:

FACT SHEET: Veterans Employment Center

The online Veterans Employment Center is the single federal source for Veterans looking for new career opportunities in the private and public sectors, as well as Service Members transitioning to the civilian workforce, military and Veteran spouses and dependents looking for employment opportunities, GI Bill beneficiaries transitioning from training to the job market and employers looking to connect with high quality applicants. It is the first interagency tool that brings together public and private job opportunities with resume building and other career tools currently offered on a variety of websites together in one place.

Through the online Veterans Employment Center, Veterans, transitioning Service Members and spouses are connected to high quality career choices by matching their identified skills with available public and private job opportunities. The site is built using an open application programming interface (API) to attract private sector innovation.

Veteran Applicant Resources:

- Quick public resume posting with an instant connection to thousands of public and private employers
- Target job search based on specific, high-demand career paths
- Single search for both public and private sector positions
- Military skills translator and resume generator
- Social media integration with popular bookmarking sites for saving job postings

Employer Resources:

- Access targeted feed of qualified resumes from Veteran applicants
- View reverse skills translation (military to civilian skills) for applicants
- Set Veterans hiring goals and track progress
- Connect to resources designed to help recruit and retain talented, Veteran employees

In connection with the First Lady and Dr. Biden's Joining Forces initiative, the Department of Veterans Affairs worked with the Departments of Defense, Labor, and Education, and the Office of Personnel Management to design and develop the site and incorporate features of existing online employment tools at each agency. The result is an upgrade to the existing Veterans Job Bank and an integrated solution connecting Veterans, transitioning Service Members and employers.

Employers, Veterans and transitioning Service Members deserve a single, authoritative source for connecting to each other. Now that the core tools and an integrated search function exist in one single location, each agency is engaged in minimizing duplication and redundancy of current sites and services.

The Veterans Employment Center can be found at: <https://www.ebenefits.va.gov/ebenefits/jobs>
