The Office of
Congressman Brett Guthrie

proudly presents

The 2016 Congressional Art Competition

Each spring, a nation-wide high school art competition is sponsored by the Members of the United States House of Representatives.

Congressman Guthrie invites all high school students (grades 9-12) to participate in Kentucky's Second Congressional District 2016 Art Competition.

The over-all winner will have their art displayed for one year in the United States Capitol building and receive two airline tickets to Washington, D.C. for a reception to recognize all congressional district winners!

See the next page for details about the competition and a complete list of awards, or visit our website at:
