Anti-Discrimination Notice. It is illegal to discriminate against any work-authorized individual in hiring, discharge, recruitment or referral for a fee, or in the employment eligibility verification (Form I-9 and E-Verify) process based on that individual's citizenship status, immigration status or national origin. Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee. The refusal to hire an individual because the documentation presented has a future expiration date may also constitute illegal discrimination. ## What Is the Purpose of This Form?

Employers must complete Form I-9 to document verification of the identity and employment authorization of each new employee (both citizen and noncitizen) hired after November 6, 1986, to work in the United States. In the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI), employers must complete Form I-9 to document verification of the identity and employment authorization of each new employee (both citizen and noncitizen) hired after November 27, 2011. Employers should have used Form I-9 CNMI between November 28, 2009 and November 27, 2011.

General Instructions

Employers are responsible for completing and retaining Form I-9. For the purpose of completing this form, the term "employer" means all employers, including those recruiters and referrers for a fee who are agricultural associations, agricultural employers, or farm labor contractors.

Form I-9 is made up of three sections. Employers may be fined if the form is not complete. Employers are responsible for retaining completed forms. Do not mail completed forms to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) or Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE).

Section 1. Employee Information and Attestation

Newly hired employees must complete and sign Section 1 of Form I-9 no later than the first day of employment. Section 1 should never be completed before the employee has accepted a job offer.

Provide the following information to complete Section 1:

Name: Provide your full legal last name, first name, and middle initial. Your last name is your family name or surname. If you have two last names or a hyphenated last name, include both names in the last name field. Your first name is your given name. Your middle initial is the first letter of your second given name, or the first letter of your middle name, if any.

Other names used: Provide all other names used, if any (including maiden name). If you have had no other legal names, write "N/A."

Address: Provide the address where you currently live, including Street Number and Name, Apartment Number (if applicable), City, State, and Zip Code. Do not provide a post office box address (P.O. Box). Only border commuters from Canada or Mexico may use an international address in this field.

Date of Birth: Provide your date of birth in the mm/dd/yyyy format. For example, January 23, 1950, should be written as 01/23/1950.

U.S. Social Security Number: Provide your 9-digit Social Security number. Providing your Social Security number is voluntary. However, if your employer participates in E-Verify, you must provide your Social Security number.

E-mail Address and Telephone Number (Optional): You may provide your e-mail address and telephone number. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) may contact you if DHS learns of a potential mismatch between the information provided and the information in DHS or Social Security Administration (SSA) records. You may write "N/A" if you choose not to provide this information.

All employees must attest in Section 1, under penalty of perjury, to their citizenship or immigration status by checking one of the following four boxes provided on the form:

1. A citizen of the United States

2. A noncitizen national of the United States: Noncitizen nationals of the United States are persons born in American Samoa, certain former citizens of the former Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and certain children of noncitizen nationals born abroad.

3. A lawful permanent resident: A lawful permanent resident is any person who is not a U.S. citizen and who resides in the United States under legally recognized and lawfully recorded permanent residence as an immigrant. The term "lawful permanent resident" includes conditional residents. If you check this box, write either your Alien Registration Number (A-Number) or USCIS Number in the field next to your selection. At this time, the USCIS Number is the same as the A-Number without the "A" prefix.

4. An alien authorized to work: If you are not a citizen or national of the United States or a lawful permanent resident, but are authorized to work in the United States, check this box.

If you check this box:

- a. Record the date that your employment authorization expires, if any. Aliens whose employment authorization does not expire, such as refugees, asylees, and certain citizens of the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, or Palau, may write "N/A" on this line.
- b. Next, enter your Alien Registration Number (A-Number)/USCIS Number. At this time, the USCIS Number is the same as your A-Number without the "A" prefix. If you have not received an A-Number/USCIS Number, record your Admission Number. You can find your Admission Number on Form I-94, "Arrival-Departure Record," or as directed by USCIS or U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP).
  - (1) If you obtained your admission number from CBP in connection with your arrival in the United States, then also record information about the foreign passport you used to enter the United States (number and country of issuance).
  - (2) If you obtained your admission number from USCIS within the United States, or you entered the United States without a foreign passport, you must write "N/A" in the Foreign Passport Number and Country of Issuance fields.

Sign your name in the "Signature of Employee" block and record the date you completed and signed Section 1. By signing and dating this form, you attest that the citizenship or immigration status you selected is correct and that you are aware that you may be imprisoned and/or fined for making false statements or using false documentation when completing this form. To fully complete this form, you must present to your employer documentation that establishes your identity and employment authorization. Choose which documents to present from the Lists of Acceptable Documents, found on the last page of this form. You must present this documentation no later than the third day after beginning employment, although you may present the required documentation before this date.

Preparer and/or Translator Certification

The Preparer and/or Translator Certification must be completed if the employee requires assistance to complete Section 1 (e.g., the employee needs the instructions or responses translated, someone other than the employee fills out the information blocks, or someone with disabilities needs additional assistance). The employee must still sign Section 1.

Minors and Certain Employees with Disabilities (Special Placement)

Parents or legal guardians assisting minors (individuals under 18) and certain employees with disabilities should review the guidelines in the Handbook for Employers: Instructions for Completing Form I-9 (M-274) on www.uscis.gov/I-9Central before completing Section 1. These individuals have special procedures for establishing identity if they cannot present an identity document for Form I-9. The special procedures include (1) the parent or legal guardian filling out Section 1 and writing "minor under age 18" or "special placement," whichever applies, in the employee signature block; and (2) the employer writing "minor under age 18" or "special placement" under List B in Section 2.

Section 2. Employer or Authorized Representative Review and Verification

Before completing Section 2, employers must ensure that Section 1 is completed properly and on time. Employers may not ask an individual to complete Section 1 before he or she has accepted a job offer.

Employers or their authorized representative must complete Section 2 by examining evidence of identity and employment authorization within 3 business days of the employee's first day of employment. For example, if an employee begins employment on Monday, the employer must complete Section 2 by Thursday of that week. However, if an employer hires an individual for less than 3 business days, Section 2 must be completed no later than the first day of employment. An employer may complete Form I-9 before the first day of employment if the employer has offered the individual a job and the individual has accepted.

Employers cannot specify which document(s) employees may present from the Lists of Acceptable Documents, found on the last page of Form I-9, to establish identity and employment authorization. Employees must present one selection from List A OR a combination of one selection from List B and one selection from List C. List A contains documents that show both identity and employment authorization. Some List A documents are combination documents. The employee must present combination documents together to be considered a List A document. For example, a foreign passport and a Form I-94 containing an endorsement of the alien's nonimmigrant status must be presented together to be considered a List A document. List B contains documents that show identity only, and List C contains documents that show employment authorization only. If an employee presents a List A document, he or she should not present a List B and List C document, and vice versa. If an employer participates in E-Verify, the List B document must include a photograph.

In the field below the Section 2 introduction, employers must enter the last name, first name and middle initial, if any, that the employee entered in Section 1. This will help to identify the pages of the form should they get separated.

Employers or their authorized representative must:

1. Physically examine each original document the employee presents to determine if it reasonably appears to be genuine and to relate to the person presenting it. The person who examines the documents must be the same person who signs Section 2. The examiner of the documents and the employee must both be physically present during the examination of the employee's documents.
2. Record the document title shown on the Lists of Acceptable Documents, issuing authority, document number and expiration date (if any) from the original document(s) the employee presents. You may write "N/A" in any unused fields.
If the employee is a student or exchange visitor who presented a foreign passport with a Form I-94, the employer should also enter in Section 2:
  - a. The student's Form I-20 or DS-2019 number (Student and Exchange Visitor Information System-SEVIS Number); and the program end date from Form I-20 or DS-2019.
3. Under Certification, enter the employee's first day of employment. Temporary staffing agencies may enter the first day the employee was placed in a job pool. Recruiters and recruiters for a fee do not enter the employee's first day of employment.
4. Provide the name and title of the person completing Section 2 in the Signature of Employer or Authorized Representative field.
5. Sign and date the attestation on the date Section 2 is completed.
6. Record the employer's business name and address.
7. Return the employee's documentation.

Employers may, but are not required to, photocopy the document(s) presented. If photocopies are made, they should be made for ALL new hires or reverifications. Photocopies must be retained and presented with Form I-9 in case of an inspection by DHS or other federal government agency. Employers must always complete Section 2 even if they photocopy an employee's document(s). Making photocopies of an employee's document(s) cannot take the place of completing Form I-9. Employers are still responsible for completing and retaining Form I-9.

Unexpired Documents

Generally, only unexpired, original documentation is acceptable. The only exception is that an employee may present a certified copy of a birth certificate. Additionally, in some instances, a document that appears to be expired may be acceptable if the expiration date shown on the face of the document has been extended, such as for individuals with temporary protected status. Refer to the Handbook for Employers: Instructions for Completing Form I-9 (M-274) or I-9 Central (www.uscis.gov/I-9Central) for examples.

Receipts

If an employee is unable to present a required document (or documents), the employee can present an acceptable receipt in lieu of a document from the Lists of Acceptable Documents on the last page of this form. Receipts showing that a person has applied for an initial grant of employment authorization, or for renewal of employment authorization, are not acceptable. Employers cannot accept receipts if employment will last less than 3 days. Receipts are acceptable when completing Form I-9 for a new hire or when reverification is required.

Employees must present receipts within 3 business days of their first day of employment, or in the case of reverification, by the date that reverification is required, and must present valid replacement documents within the time frames described below.

There are three types of acceptable receipts:

1. A receipt showing that the employee has applied to replace a document that was lost, stolen or damaged. The employee must present the actual document within 90 days from the date of hire.
2. The arrival portion of Form I-94/I-94A with a temporary I-551 stamp and a photograph of the individual. The employee must present the actual Permanent Resident Card (Form I-551) by the expiration date of the temporary I-551 stamp, or, if there is no expiration date, within 1 year from the date of issue.
3. The departure portion of Form I-94/I-94A with a refugee admission stamp. The employee must present an unexpired Employment Authorization Document (Form I-766) or a combination of a List B document and an unrestricted Social Security card within 90 days.

When the employee provides an acceptable receipt, the employer should:

1. Record the document title in Section 2 under the sections titled List A, List B, or List C, as applicable.
2. Write the word "receipt" and its document number in the "Document Number" field. Record the last day that the receipt is valid in the "Expiration Date" field.

By the end of the receipt validity period, the employer should:

1. Cross out the word "receipt" and any accompanying document number and expiration date.
2. Record the number and other required document information from the actual document presented.
3. Initial and date the change.

See the Handbook for Employers: Instructions for Completing Form I-9 (M-274) at www.uscis.gov/I-9Central for more information on receipts.

Section 3. Reverification and Rehires

Employers or their authorized representatives should complete Section 3 when reverifying that an employee is authorized to work. When rehiring an employee within 3 years of the date Form I-9 was originally completed, employers have the option to complete a new Form I-9 or complete Section 3. When completing Section 3 in either a reverification or rehire situation, if the employee's name has changed, record the name change in Block A.

For employees who provide an employment authorization expiration date in Section 1, employers must reverify employment authorization on or before the date provided.

Some employees may write "N/A" in the space provided for the expiration date in Section 1 if they are aliens whose employment authorization does not expire (e.g., asylees, refugees, certain citizens of the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, or Palau). Reverification does not apply for such employees unless they chose to present evidence of employment authorization in Section 2 that contains an expiration date and requires reverification, such as Form I-766, Employment Authorization Document.

Reverification applies if evidence of employment authorization (List A or List C document) presented in Section 2 expires. However, employers should not reverify:

1. U.S. citizens and noncitizen nationals; or
2. Lawful permanent residents who presented a Permanent Resident Card (Form I-551) for Section 2.

Reverification does not apply to List B documents.

If both Section 1 and Section 2 indicate expiration dates triggering the reverification requirement, the employer should reverify by the earlier date.

For reverification, an employee must present unexpired documentation from either List A or List C showing he or she is still authorized to work. Employers CANNOT require the employee to present a particular document from List A or List C. The employee may choose which document to present.

To complete Section 3, employers should follow these instructions:

1. Complete Block A if an employee's name has changed at the time you complete Section 3.
2. Complete Block B with the date of rehire if you rehire an employee within 3 years of the date this form was originally completed, and the employee is still authorized to be employed on the same basis as previously indicated on this form. Also complete the "Signature of Employer or Authorized Representative" block.
3. Complete Block C if:
  - a. The employment authorization or employment authorization document of a current employee is about to expire and requires reverification; or
  - b. You rehire an employee within 3 years of the date this form was originally completed and his or her employment authorization or employment authorization document has expired. (Complete Block B for this employee as well.)

To complete Block C:

- a. Examine either a List A or List C document the employee presents that shows that the employee is currently authorized to work in the United States; and
  - b. Record the document title, document number, and expiration date (if any).
4. After completing block A, B or C, complete the "Signature of Employer or Authorized Representative" block, including the date.

For reverification purposes, employers may either complete Section 3 of a new Form I-9 or Section 3 of the previously completed Form I-9. Any new pages of Form I-9 completed during reverification must be attached to the employee's original Form I-9. If you choose to complete Section 3 of a new Form I-9, you may attach just the page containing Section 3, with the employee's name entered at the top of the page, to the employee's original Form I-9. If there is a more current version of Form I-9 at the time of reverification, you must complete Section 3 of that version of the form.

What Is the Filing Fee?

There is no fee for completing Form I-9. This form is not filed with USCIS or any government agency. Form I-9 must be retained by the employer and made available for inspection by U.S. Government officials as specified in the "USCIS Privacy Act Statement" below.

Form W-4 (2012)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2012 expires February 18, 2013. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $950 and includes more than $300 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2012. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. The IRS has created a page on www.irs.gov for information about Form W-4, at www.irs.gov/w4. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted on that page.

INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

GENERAL INFORMATION

You may start, stop, or change your contributions at any time. Your TSP election will stay in effect until you submit another election or until you leave Federal service. (This form only applies to regular contributions. If you are age 50 or older and want to make or change catch-up contributions, use Form TSP-1-C, Catch-Up Contribution Election.)

Important note for new TSP participants: All contributions to your account will be invested in the Government Securities Investment (G) Fund until you direct the TSP to allocate your contributions differently. The TSP publication Summary of the Thrift Savings Plan describes all of your investment choices and discusses their risks and advantages. For more information, you can also obtain a copy of the TSP Fund Information sheets. (The most current versions of TSP forms and publications are available on the TSP website at www.tsp.gov.)

To choose your investment fund(s), use the TSP website (www.tsp.gov) or the ThriftLine at 1-TSP-YOU-FRST (1-877-968-3778; outside the U.S. and Canada, call 404-233-4400). On the TSP website, you will need your TSP account number (or user ID) and 8-character Web password. If you use the ThriftLine, you will need your TSP account number and 4-digit ThriftLine Personal Identification Number (PIN). If you are a new participant, your TSP account number, ThriftLine PIN, and Web password will be mailed to you (separately) after your account has been established.

If you change your address, notify your agency immediately to correct your records for your TSP account.

SECTION I

Complete all items in this section.

SECTION II

Your choice will cancel all previous elections.

Example

Previous Election:

Traditional	5%
Roth	2%

New Election:

Traditional	5%
Roth	10%

Complete this section to start your TSP contributions or to change the amount and type of contributions. Because whatever you enter in this section will cancel all previous elections, be sure to indicate exactly what percentages/amounts you want to contribute, even if part of your election has not changed (see the example in the margin). You can elect to make traditional (pre-tax) and Roth (after-tax) contributions simultaneously. Traditional contributions come out of your pay before income taxes are calculated; you pay income taxes on these contributions and their earnings when you withdraw them. Roth contributions are made from your pay after taxes, and the earnings grow in your account tax-deferred. Withdrawals of Roth contributions are tax-free. The earnings associated with Roth contributions are also tax-free, but only if 5 years have passed since January 1 of the calendar year in which you made your first Roth contribution, and you have reached age 59½, have a permanent disability, or have died. Note for FERS: All agency contributions to your account are tax-deferred, even if they are matching your Roth contributions. Complete either Item 6 or Item 7 (not both) for traditional (pre-tax) contributions; either Item 8 or Item 9 (not both) for Roth contributions. You may choose a percentage of basic pay for one type of contribution and a dollar amount (as little as $1) for the other type of contribution.

If you choose a percentage of basic pay, your contribution amount will automatically increase when you receive a pay raise.

If you choose a dollar amount per pay period, your contribution amount will not increase when you receive a pay raise; you must submit a new Form TSP-1 to change the amount.

Contribution limit. The total of your traditional and Roth contributions cannot exceed the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) annual elective deferral limit ($17,000 in 2012). Since the elective deferral limit may be adjusted annually for inflation, check the TSP website, www.tsp.gov, to be sure that you have the most up-to-date limit amount (and the most recent version of this form).

SECTION III

Complete Item 10 to stop all (or just one type) of your contributions. You may restart your contributions at any time.

FERS employees: Your Agency Automatic (1%) Contributions will continue after you stop your employee contributions, but you will no longer receive valuable Agency Matching Contributions. (If you restart your contributions, the matching contributions will resume.)

Note for newly hired or rehired FERS or CSRS employees: As a new employee, your agency automatically deducts 3% of your pay, tax-deferred, and deposits the money in your TSP account for your retirement savings. If you want all or any portion of your automatic contributions to be after-tax Roth contributions, you must complete Section II and indicate what percentages or amounts you want as traditional (pre-tax) and Roth (after-tax) contributions. You can stop your automatic employee contributions before they start if you submit this form to your agency at the start of your first full pay period, subject to your agency's processing deadlines. If your agency has already begun to deduct your automatic employee contributions from your pay each pay period, you are entitled to request a refund of your initial contributions by submitting Form TSP-25, Automatic Enrollment Refund Request. The TSP must receive Form TSP-25 within 90 days of your first contribution.

SECTION IV

You must complete this section.

SECTION V

(To be completed by personnel or benefits office)

The Receipt Date (Item 14) is the date that a properly completed form is received by the agency personnel office. If the form has not been properly completed, it should be returned to the employee.

Requests must be processed immediately for new and rehired employees who want to stop automatic enrollment before it begins. This will help avoid a payroll deduction that may have to be refunded. The Effective Date (Item 15) must be no later than the first full pay period after receipt of a properly completed form.

You should provide the participant with a copy of this completed election form.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Catch-up contributions are in addition to your regular TSP contributions. Therefore, if you are not already contributing the maximum amount allowed by the Internal Revenue Code ($17,000 in 2012) through your regular TSP contributions or by contributing to an equivalent employer plan (e.g., a 401(k) plan), you must elect to contribute the maximum amount before you are eligible to make catch-up contributions. This catch-up election will not affect your regular TSP contributions.

You may start, stop, or change your catch-up contributions at any time. Your election will stay in effect subject to the conditions in Section II below. You must make a new election for each calendar year.

You do not receive matching contributions from your agency for any catch-up contributions.

Your catch-up contribution election will be effective no later than the first full pay period after your agency receives it. Contributions will be invested according to your most recent contribution allocation on file. If you wish to change your contribution allocation, you may do so on the TSP website at www.tsp.gov, or the ThriftLine at 1-TSP-YOU-FRST (1-877-968-3778; outside the U.S. and Canada, call 404-233-4400).

SECTION I

Complete all items in this section.

SECTION II

Your choice will cancel all previous elections.

Your contribution election. You can elect to make traditional (pre-tax) and Roth (after-tax) catch-up contributions simultaneously. Whatever you enter in this section will cancel all previous elections; therefore, be sure to indicate exactly what amounts you want to contribute, even if part of your election has not changed. Traditional contributions come out of your pay before income taxes are calculated; you pay income taxes on these contributions and their earnings when you withdraw them. Roth contributions are made from your pay after taxes. Withdrawals of Roth contributions are tax-free. The earnings associated with these contributions are also tax-free, but only if 5 years have passed since January 1 of the calendar year in which you made your first Roth contribution, and you have reached age 59½, have a permanent disability, or have died.

Contribution limits. The IRC limit for catch-up contributions is $5,500 in 2012. The total of your traditional and Roth catch-up contributions cannot exceed this limit. IRC limits may be adjusted annually for inflation. Check the TSP website, www.tsp.gov, to be sure that you have the most up-to-date limit amount (and the most recent version of this form).

Deductions will be made from your basic pay in the dollar amount you indicate. However:

- (1) Catch-up contributions will stop when you have reached the maximum allowable dollar amount for the calendar year.
- (2) The catch-up contribution amount you specified cannot exceed the amount of your pay after all other required deductions have been made. (Required deductions include regular TSP contributions and TSP loan payments.)
- (3) Your catch-up contributions will not continue into the next calendar year.

You are not eligible to make catch-up contributions if you are in nonpay status or if you are ineligible to make TSP contributions because you have made a financial hardship in-service withdrawal within the last 6 months. If you have elected to make catch-up contributions and you subsequently enter a noncontribution period, deductions will stop. Contributions will not restart automatically. You must submit a new election when your noncontribution period ends.

You may stop your catch-up contributions at any time by submitting a new Form TSP-1-C to your agency indicating that you want your election to stop. (See Section III.)

You must sign this section. If you do not, your request to start or change your catch-up contributions will be rejected.

SECTION III

If you choose to stop all, or just one type, of your catch-up contributions, you must complete and sign this section. Your election should be effective the first pay period after your agency receives it. You can restart your catch-up contributions at any time, subject to the conditions above. Do not complete this section if you have completed Section II. Your election in Section II cancels your previous election.

SECTION IV

(To be completed by personnel or benefits office)

The Receipt Date (Item 13) is the date that a properly completed form is received by the agency personnel office. If the form has not been properly completed, it should be returned to the employee.

The Effective Date (Item 14) must be no later than the first full pay period after receipt of a properly completed form.

You should provide the participant with a copy of this completed election form.

Instructions for Agencies

1. Who Should File This Form?

- ❖ New employees eligible for life insurance who want optional insurance or no insurance. Note: New employees who want only Basic do not have to file.
- ❖ Employees appointed to positions that allow life insurance coverage following service in positions that did not allow life insurance coverage.
- ❖ Employees who want to change their life insurance.
- ❖ Reinstated employees who filed a previous waiver of any type of life insurance, were separated from service for at least 180 days, and wish to elect coverage.
- ❖ Assignees who want to decrease or cancel coverage.
- ❖ Department of Defense employees designated "emergency essential" and civilian employees deployed in support of a contingency operation per Public Law 110-417.

Give a new employee a copy of the FEGLI Program Booklet (FE 76-21 or FE 76-20 for U.S. Postal Service employees) when he or she reports for duty and ask the employee to return the completed SF 2817 as soon as possible (preferably before the end of the first pay period), but no later than 60 days after his or her appointment.

Employees with prior government service in non-excluded positions who were separated after March 31, 1981, should have an SF 2817 on file in their personnel folders, and that election or waiver of coverage may still be in effect. Do not accept a new SF 2817 unless the employee has a break in Federal service of at least 180 days or is eligible to cancel a previous waiver that has been in effect for at least one year, or wishes to reduce coverage.

Until you verify an employee's SF 2817 on file, make deductions based on his or her statement about earlier insurance coverage. Once coverage is confirmed, make any necessary adjustments to correct the withholdings.

An employee may at any time file an SF 2817 to waive or reduce coverage, unless the employee has assigned his/her insurance coverage. If the employee has assigned the insurance, only the assignee(s) may waive or reduce the coverage (except for Option C which cannot be assigned).

2. How Else Can An Employee Elect More Coverage?

- ❖ Provide Medical Information. An employee may elect or increase Basic, Option A, or Option B insurance (but not Option C), if a previously completed SF 2817 waiving coverage has been in effect for more than one year, by submitting satisfactory evidence of insurability via a Request for Insurance, SF 2822. If approved, the employee should make the election on the SF 2817 and submit to the employing agency. More details are contained on the SF 2822.
- ❖ Experience A Qualifying Life Event. An employee may elect Basic, Option A, Option B and/or Option C within 60 days following a FEGLI qualifying life event. These events are: marriage, divorce, spouse's death, or the acquisition of an eligible child.

For Option B and Option C, an employee may elect from 1 to 5 multiples (up to 5 total) based on the life event.

- ❖ An employee who is already enrolled in Option B and/or Option C may elect from 1 to 5 multiples (up to 5 total) within 60 days based on the life event.

3. What Should You Review After The Employee Submits This Form?

Review all three parts of the SF 2817 to see that they are legible and complete. If an employee signs the box for Option A, Option B, or Option C, he or she must also sign Section 3, Basic. If the employee uses a downloaded copy, be sure all parts are completed. Contact the employee if any part is unclear.

Only the employee may sign this form in Sections 3, 4, or 5, with one exception (noted below). Signatures by guardians, conservators, or through a power of attorney are NOT valid.

Exception: If the employee assigned the insurance, only the assignee(s) may waive or reduce some or all of the employee's coverage. In that case, the assignee(s) must sign the form (although the information in Section 2 must refer to the employee). Please note that assignees cannot increase the employee's coverage. Only the employee can do that.

The employee is solely responsible for ensuring that the SF 2817 accurately reflects his or her intentions.

If the employee is electing new coverage, always make sure that the authorized agency official confirms that the employee is eligible for the coverage, and that the official signs the form in Section 6.

4. When Did You Receive This?

Enter the date the employing office received this form.

5. What Is The Event Permitting The Change?

Enter the number of the event permitting a change, if applicable. See the Table of Effective Dates on the back of Part 2 for event numbers.

6. What Is The Effective Date Of The Coverage?

Enter the effective date of coverage. For new and newly eligible employees: Basic is effective on the first day the employee is in a pay and duty status; Optional coverage is effective on the first day the employee is in a pay and duty status on or after the day the employing office receives the SF 2817. For changes in elections, see the Table of Effective Dates on the back of Part 2. If there is more than one effective date for this election, the 2nd effective date should be notated in Part 6 under "Remarks."

7. What Do You Do With Parts 1, 2, and 3?

After completion, give Part 3 to the employee. File Part 1 in the employee's personnel folder. Destroy Part 2 after payroll office use. Part 3, and the FEGLI Program Booklet (FE 76-21, or FE 76-20 for U.S. Postal Service employees), serve as the employee's certificate of insurance.

8. Where Can You Find More Information?

Consult the FEGLI Program Booklet (FE 76-21 or FE 76-20 for U.S. Postal Service employees) or the FEGLI Handbook, which are available on the FEGLI web site at www.opm.gov/insure/life.

Instructions for Employees

1. General Information

The major provisions of this program are described in the Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance (FEGLI) Program Booklet (FE 76-21 or FE 76-20 for U.S. Postal Service employees). Please read the entire booklet carefully. Your completed copy of this election form (SF 2817) and the FEGLI Program Booklet constitute your certificate (proof) of insurance. These publications, as well as comprehensive FEGLI information, are available at www.opm.gov/insure/life.

2. I Am A New Employee or Newly Eligible for Life Insurance. What Do I Need To Know?

You are automatically enrolled in Basic (even if you don't complete this form) unless you waive it. If you waive Basic, you automatically waive all forms of Optional insurance. You will not have any Optional insurance unless you elect it.

To elect Basic: You do not have to submit this form unless you also wish to elect Optional insurance.

To waive Basic: Sign Section 5 of the form and give it to your employing office. Your agency will withhold Basic premiums from your salary from your first day at work in a pay status UNLESS you submit your waiver before the end of your first pay period.

To elect Optional: Sign Section 3 and one or more of the blocks in Section 4 of the form and give it to your employing office within 60 days after the date you are appointed or first become eligible for life insurance.

To waive Optional: If you do not sign for a particular type of Optional coverage in Section 4, you automatically waive that coverage.

3. I Am An Employee With Prior Government Service. What Do I Need To Know?

When you return to work after a break in service of less than 180 days, your human resources office will automatically enroll you in the same coverage that you had before you left your prior position, if any. This coverage will be effective on your first day in a pay and duty status in a FEGLI eligible position. You will have to qualify to elect other coverage (open season, providing medical information, or a life event). If you waived some coverage, then the waiver of that coverage is still in effect.

When you return to work after a break in service of 180 days or more, your human resources office will automatically enroll you in Basic and the same Optional insurance that you had in your prior position. This coverage will be effective on your first day in a pay and duty status in a FEGLI eligible position. You may elect more insurance (if you don't already have the maximum) within 60 days of your appointment to an eligible position. If you previously waived coverage then that waiver is no longer in effect. You will automatically be enrolled in Basic, unless you file a new waiver.

See the FEGLI Program Booklet (FE 76-21 or FE 76-20 for U.S. Postal Service Employees) for more details.

4. I Am A Reemployed Annuitant. What Do I Need To Know?

If you waive your insurance when you return to Federal Service as a reemployed annuitant, you also waive your insurance with your retirement annuity. You will have no FEGLI life insurance. It is important that you contact your human resources office and inform them that you are a reemployed annuitant. More details can be found in OPM Form 1482, Agency Certification of Status of Reemployed Annuitants.

5. What If I Assigned My Coverage?

If you have assigned your insurance by filing an RI 76-10, Assignment of Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance, you may not cancel any of your insurance coverage (except Option C). Only the assignee(s) may cancel your coverage. However, you may elect new coverage if you otherwise meet the requirements for electing such coverage. Any new coverage you elect will automatically be subject to your existing assignment, except for Option C, which you cannot assign. All assignments are automatically canceled after a break in service of at least 31 days, or upon cancellation of all life insurance coverage by the assignee(s).

6. I Am An Assignee. What Can I Do?

If you are completing this form in order to cancel some or all of the employee's life insurance coverage, you must sign the form. The information in Section 2 of the form refers to the employee, but you must sign in Section 3, 4 or 5, as applicable. Indicate "assignee" after your signature. Return the completed form to the employee's employing office. If the insured is an annuitant, return the completed form to OPM, Retirement Operations Center, P.O. Box 45, Boyers, PA 16017-0045. See #11 for where to return the completed form if the insured is a compensator.

7. How Do I Complete The Form?

Follow the instructions for each item carefully. After you fill out the form, review it to be sure it is complete and correct. The following checklist should help.

If you sign Section 3, you elect (or retain) Basic.

If you sign any block in Section 4, you elect (or retain) Optional Insurance. You must also elect (or retain) Basic by signing Section 3.

If you sign Section 4 for Option B and/or Option C, you must also mark one of the five boxes to show how many multiples you wish to elect (or retain). Do not mark more than one box.

Be Sure You Sign For All Options You Want. This election supersedes all previous ones. If you have optional coverage and wish to keep it, you must sign the appropriate box(es). If you do not sign for it, you have waived it.

If you sign Section 5, you waive all FEGLI coverage.

Only you, the employee, may sign this form. Signatures by guardians, conservators, or through a power of attorney are not acceptable.

Exception: If you have assigned your insurance, only the assignee(s) may cancel some or all of your coverage. In that case, the assignee(s) must sign the form (although the information in Section 2 must refer to you).

REMEMBER THAT YOU, NOT YOUR AGENCY, ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR ENSURING THAT YOUR SF 2817 (OR ITS ELECTRONIC EQUIVALENT) IS CORRECT AND ACCURATELY REFLECTS YOUR INTENTIONS. IF YOU DO NOT SIGN FOR IT, YOU HAVE CANCELED/WAIVED IT.

8. Open Seasons

If you elected coverage during an Open Season, and that coverage has not yet become effective, and you want to make a further change to your FEGLI coverage on this SF 2817, you should check with your employing office. That office can tell you about any special election procedures that may apply.

9. What If I Waive or Reduce My Coverage?

If you do not sign for a particular type of coverage, you have waived that coverage. If you waive Basic or one or more of the options, your opportunities to enroll in the coverage you waived are strictly limited. A waiver may also affect your eligibility to continue coverage into retirement. See the FEGLI Program Booklet (FE 76-21 or FE 76-20 for U.S. Postal Service employees) for more details.

10. Where Do I Send The Completed Form?

After you have completed this form and verified that it accurately reflects your intentions, send the entire form (without separating the parts) to your human resources office. Do not send the form to OPM or OFEGLI.

11. What If I Receive Workers' Compensation?

If you are receiving compensation payments from the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs (OWCP), provide your OWCP number in Section 2 of the form. If you are still employed, return the completed form to your employing office. If you are not still employed or if you have been receiving compensation payments for at least 12 months, see your human resources office about your continued eligibility under the FEGLI Program.

12. How Do I Verify That My Agency Processed My Election?

After your employing office processes your election form, you will receive an SF 50, Notification of Personnel Action. A two digit code appearing on the SF 50 will explain your insurance coverage. These codes are explained in Part 2 of the SF 2817. Also check your pay statement for the correct withholdings. If you are insured as a compensator, you will receive a notice from OPM which will explain your insurance coverage.

13. Where Do I Get More Information About The FEGLI Program?

Consult the FEGLI Program Booklet (FE 76-21 or FE 76-20 for U.S. Postal Service employees) or the FEGLI Handbook (RI 76-26), which are available on the FEGLI web site at www.opm.gov/insure/life.

D. BENEFITS DEADLINE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT:

I understand that from the date of my appointment, I must enroll in Health Benefits (SF2809) within 60 days, if eligible for FEHB. Failure to submit the Health Benefits (SF2809) form within 60 days of the date of appointment will exclude me from FEHB enrollment, in most cases, until Open Season or a qualifying life event (QLE). If deemed to be covered by health exchanges created under the Affordable Care Act (ACA), I understand that I have 30 days to register with the DC Health Insurance Marketplace at www.dchealthlink.com. Thrift Savings Plan (TSP-1) elections are required with all New employee Appointment packages. I have 60 days to elect additional optional life insurance unless a prior election remains in force. Basic premiums for Life Insurance will be withheld from my pay unless I submit a waiver (SF2817) before the 15th of the month. I have 60 days from the date of my appointment to apply for abbreviated underwriting under the Federal Long Term Care (LTC) Insurance Program. I have 60 days from the date of my appointment to apply for the Flexible Spending Accounts (FSAFEDS), or the Dental & Vision Insurance Program (FEDVIP) programs.
