FYI (catching up on emails from Friday)

The Q intermediary has confirmed with the other party that we do indeed have a deal.

*****

We concluded our discussions around 10:30 last night (Thur), and I believe we have an agreement, on the terms discussed with SD on Wed and consistent with Deputies' Instructions. The Q intermediary is to confirm with the other party and get back to us today (Fri). The Qs were confident that the other party would accept our changes to their most recent proposal -- we'll know soon.

The current plan is to have the Q AG and me sign the document when he is in DC the week after next.

There is great concern all around about possible leaks -- not from OSD, I might add -- as this phase of the discussions ends and we seek to proceed expeditiously with the next phase. (This concern is exacerbated by the prospect of notification to our overseers and/or the As.) There is some thought being given to necking down the group in on developments going forward. Please act accordingly. I have informed SD/FO.

Returning today. S
