Jeffrey M. Mintz
Littler Mendelson, P.C.

Before the Committee on Education and the Workforce
Savannah, GA
August 27, 2015

2. I am a shareholder with Littler Mendelson, P.C. The firm represents Leadpoint Business Services (“Leadpoint”) in a matter involving another employer, Browning-Ferris Industries, which is now pending before the National Labor Relations Board (Case 32-RC-109684). The issues expected to be addressed in that case relate directly to my testimony regarding the joint employer issue before the Committee. However, I have had no role in and no responsibility for any aspect of our firm’s representation of Leadpoint in the matter before the NLRB, nor do I speak on behalf of any party of interest in that case at this hearing.
