

I am deeply honored and privileged to be an American, the first Senator of Native Hawaiian and Chinese descent chosen to read George Washington's Farewell Address in observance of his birthday.

Let us not forget his timeless words that remind us of the enduring democratic principles embodied in our Constitution and Bill of Rights.

God Bless the United States of America!

Daniel K. Akaka
Senator
Hawaii

26 February 1996