A BILL

To end discrimination based on actual or perceived sexual orientation or gender identity in public schools, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Student Non-Discrimi-5       nation Act of 2018”.

6       SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSES.

7       (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds the following:

8               (1) Public school students who are lesbian, gay,
9       bisexual or transgender (LGBT), or are perceived to 10      be LGBT, or who associate with LGBT people, have 11      been and are subjected to pervasive discrimination,
12      including harassment, bullying, intimidation and vio-
13      lence, and have been deprived of equal educational 14      opportunities, in schools in every part of our Nation.

15               (2) While discrimination, including harassment, 16      bullying, intimidation and violence, of any kind is 17      harmful to students and to our education system,
18      actions that target students based on sexual orienta-

1       tion or gender identity represent a distinct and especially severe problem.

3                     (3) Numerous social science studies demonstrate that discrimination, including harassment, bullying, intimidation and violence, at school has contributed to high rates of absenteeism, dropout, adverse health consequences, and academic under-achievement among LGBT youth.

9                     (4) When left unchecked, discrimination, including harassment, bullying, intimidation and violence, in schools based on sexual orientation or gender identity can lead, and has led to, life-threatening violence and to suicide.

14                   (5) Public school students enjoy a variety of constitutional rights, including rights to equal protection, privacy, and free expression, which are infringed when school officials engage in discriminatory treatment or are indifferent to discrimination, including harassment, bullying, intimidation and violence, on the basis of sexual orientation or gender identity.

22                   (6) While Federal statutory protections expressly address discrimination on the basis of race, color, sex, religion, disability, and national origin, Federal civil rights statutes do not expressly include

1       “sexual orientation” or “gender identity”. As a re-
2       sult, students and parents have often had limited
3       legal recourse to redress for discrimination on the 4       basis of sexual orientation or gender identity.

5       (b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this Act are—

6              (1) to ensure that all students have access to 7       public education in a safe environment free from dis-
8       crimination, including harassment, bullying, intimi-
9       dation and violence, on the basis of sexual orienta-
10      tion or gender identity;

11             (2) to provide a comprehensive Federal prohibi-
12      tion of discrimination in public schools based on ac-
13      tual or perceived sexual orientation or gender iden-
14      tity;

15             (3) to provide meaningful and effective rem-
16      edies for discrimination in public schools based on 17      actual or perceived sexual orientation or gender
18      identity;

19             (4) to invoke congressional powers, including
20      but not limited to the power to enforce the 14th
21      Amendment to the Constitution and to provide for 22      the general welfare pursuant to section 8 of article
23      I of the Constitution and the power to enact all laws
24      necessary and proper for the execution of the fore-
25      going powers pursuant to section 8 of article I of the

1 Constitution, in order to prohibit discrimination in 2 public schools on the basis of sexual orientation or 3 gender identity; and

4 (5) to allow the Department of Education to ef-
5 fectively combat discrimination based on sexual ori-
6 entation or gender identity in public schools through 7 regulation and enforcement, as the Department has 8 issued regulations under and enforced title IX of the 9 Education Amendments of 1972 (20 U.S.C. 1681 et 10 seq.) and other nondiscrimination laws in a manner 11 that effectively addresses discrimination.

7       lieved to be made unlawful by this Act;

8                     (B) any formal or informal report, whether 9       oral or written, to any governmental entity, in-

11      regarding conduct made unlawful by this Act or 12      reasonably believed to be made unlawful by this 13      Act;

14                     (C) participation in any investigation, pro-

4                   PORT TO CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES.

5       Each Federal department and agency which is em-
6       powered to extend Federal financial assistance to any edu-
7       cation program or activity, by way of grant, loan, or con-

9       authorized and directed to effectuate the provisions of sec-
10      tion 4 of this Act with respect to such program or activity
11      by issuing rules, regulations, or orders of general applica-12      bility which shall be consistent with achievement of the 13      objectives of the Act authorizing the financial assistance
14      in connection with which the action is taken. No such rule, 15      regulation, or order shall become effective unless and until 16      approved by the President. Compliance with any require-
17      ment adopted pursuant to this section may be effected—

6        ment or agency concerned has advised the appropriate per-7        son or persons of the failure to comply with the require-
8        ment and has determined that compliance cannot be se-
9        cured by voluntary means. In the case of any action termi-

13      ment or agency shall file with the committees of the House
14      and Senate having legislative jurisdiction over the pro-
15      gram or activity involved a full written report of the cir-
16      cumstances and the grounds for such action. No such ac-

24        to equitable relief, compensatory damages, cost of the ac-
25        tion, and remedial action.

1       (b) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—This section shall not
2 be construed to preclude an aggrieved individual from ob-
3 taining other remedies under any other provision of law
4 or to require such individual to exhaust any administrative 5 complaint process or notice-of-claim requirement before
6 seeking redress under this section.

8 pursuant to this section, the statute of limitations period
9 shall be determined in accordance with section 1658(a) of 10 title 28 of the United States Code. The tolling of any such

23 suit brought by an aggrieved individual for a violation of 24 section 4 of this Act.

1       (c) REMEDIES.—In a suit against a State for a violation of this Act, remedies (including remedies both at law and in equity) are available for such a violation to the same extent as such remedies are available for such a violation in the suit against any public or private entity other than a State.

7 SEC. 8. ATTORNEY'S FEES.

8       Section 722(b) of the Revised Statutes (42 U.S.C. 1988(b)) is amended by inserting “the Student Non-discrimination Act of 2018,” after “Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act of 2000.”

12 SEC. 9. EFFECT ON OTHER LAWS.

13       (a) FEDERAL AND STATE NONDISCRIMINATION LAWS.—Nothing in this Act shall be construed to preempt, invalidate, or limit rights, remedies, procedures, or legal standards available to victims of discrimination or retaliation under any other Federal law or law of a State or political subdivision of a State, including title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42 U.S.C. 2000d et seq.), title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (20 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.), section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (29 U.S.C. 794), the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. 12101 et seq.), or section 1979 of the Revised Statutes (42 U.S.C. 1983). 11 able to religious and other student groups under the 1st
12 Amendment to the Constitution and the Equal Access Act
13 (20 U.S.C. 4071 et seq.).

14 SEC. 10. SEVERABILITY.

15 If any provision of this Act, or any application of such
