EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

IN RECOGNITION OF THE LEWIS CHAPEL MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH ON THE OCCASION OF ITS CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

HON. LARRY KISSELL

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, April 11, 2011

Mr. KISSELL. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the 100th anniversary of the Lewis Chapel Missionary Baptist Church in Fayetteville, North Carolina. I ask my colleagues to please join me along with the church's pastor, Rev. John D. Fuller, Sr., and his nearly 4,000 parishioners, in celebrating this significant milestone. In honor of the occasion, I would like to submit into the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD a detailed historical overview provided by Lewis Chapel chronicling the church's incredible growth throughout its many years of spiritual service to families in Fayetteville and throughout the world:

A HISTORY OF LEWIS CHAPEL MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH

During the early 1900s, a small group of devout believers began meeting in a small one-room building located near the present Cape Fear Valley Medical Center. This one-room building was used at that time as a school for the training of Negro children in this area for a period of 6 months during the year. This group of believers felt a burning desire for spiritual food at least once a week. They obtained permission to start a Sunday School class in this building where they could assemble each week to study God's word. Foremost in this endeavor were three young men who were cousins from Pender County—Mr. Seavy Lewis, Mr. Henry McAllister, and Mr. Andrew "Jack" Newkirk.

In the year of our Lord, 1911, these three cousins were instrumental in organizing the Lewis Chapel Missionary Baptist Church. The church was named in honor of Mr. Seavy Lewis. Rev. William McGuire was called to serve as the first pastor of the church and he served from 1911 to 1913. The church united with the Middle District Association and remained with this association for more than sixty years. It was under the leadership of Rev. McGuire that the first deacons were ordained. They were Brothers McAllister and Lewis. Brother Newkirk served as the first superintendent of the Sunday School with Sister Hattie McAllister and Rev. Dock Gerald as the first teachers.

Brother Clarence Bridges served as the first sexton (janitor) and Rev. Dock Gerald was the first Church Clerk. Working diligently along with this courageous group were sisters Minnie Lewis, Annie Liza McAllister, and Hattie McAllister. They were now officially ready to move forward in the business of saving souls.

Rev. William Rome became pastor in 1913, serving until 1917. During this period, the church purchased some real estate in the Seventy-First Township on Highway 401 South. Rev. W.M. Boykin served as pastor from 1917 to 1921. It was during this period that church members and friends put their means together and donated materials to erect the first Lewis Chapel Church building. It was located on the site of the present church offices.

In 1932, a fire destroyed the church structure and services were temporarily held at a nearby elementary school. Soon a second sanctuary was erected on the original site, using the proceeds from the church's insurance, along with contributions from members and friends.

In May 1937, the Rev. Robert L. Carr of Rose Hill, North Carolina was called to pastor Lewis Chapel Missionary Baptist Church, a position he held until September 1973. A father figure to many and a man of great insight, he encouraged home ownership and education. With Rev. Carr's guidance, a vestibule, two classrooms and stained glass windows were added to the structure. Outdoor bathrooms and heating were installed.

During Rev. Carr's tenure many organizations were established, including the Home and Foreign Missionary Circle, the trustees and several choirs.

On June 29, 1973, the Rev. R.L. Carr resigned so that the church might secure a full-time pastor. On July 19, 1973, the deacons and trustees recommended to the church conference that the Rev. John D. Fuller, Sr. become the church's eighth pastor. Rev. Fuller assumed that responsibility on the third Sunday in November 1973.

For 38 years Rev. John D. Fuller, Sr. has shepherded the congregation and guided the members in understanding the biblical concepts of tithing and giving offerings. These sound practices have led to the building of two sanctuaries, the first in 1975 and the second in 1992. Offices and educational wings have also been constructed.

The church has built a 47-unit senior citizens complex and a recreation athletic complex. Both complexes serve the community. A new ministry site established as Lewis Chapel-West was planted in Raeford, North Carolina in June 2009.

Lewis Chapel Missionary Baptist Church has been supportive of young congregations and has undergirded First Spanish Missionary Baptist Church, Fayetteville, North Carolina and Manna Fellowship Baptist Church, Spring Lake, North Carolina.

True to the word "missionary", Lewis Chapel Missionary Baptist Church has sent missionaries abroad, including South Africa and Liberia, Africa.

Over 4,000 persons hold membership in Lewis Chapel Missionary Baptist Church. Members understand that Salvation by God's grace should be followed by compassion and good works. Through the years, God has blessed this church to engage in diverse ministries that advanced the "Cause of Christ" on local, state, national, and international levels.

Needs of the hungry, thirsty, stranger and naked have been addressed. For example: Lewis Chapel responded promptly and generously to those distressed by Hurricane Floyd (Eastern North Carolina, September, 1999); Tsunami (earthquake in Indonesia off Sumatra, December 2004); Hurricane Katrina (New Orleans, Louisiana, Gulf Coast area, August, 2005); and Haiti (January 2010). Prayer, help, and comfort was provided for the sick. Visitations and messages of hope were delivered to the imprisoned. When necessary, mortgages were paid so that persons may keep their homes. The twenty-six graduating seniors were eligible for college grants. Support was given to Fayetteville State University, Morehouse School of Religion, Shaw University, Shaw Divinity School and Ricks Institute, Virginia, Liberia.

Realizing that there is strength in unity, Lewis Chapel joined with other organizations that engaged in missionary work. They include the Union Baptist Association (56 churches in Sampson, Cumberland, Hoke, Bladen, Robeson Counties), the General Baptist State Convention, Inc., Lott Carey Foreign Missionary Convention, USA, National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc., American Baptist Churches of the South, North Carolina Council of Churches and the Baptist World Alliance.

Lewis Chapel Missionary Baptist Church, Incorporated seeks to continue the ministry of Jesus Christ in these ways:

—To worship God in Spirit and in Truth and to nurture each other in Christian faith and love;

—To live a life worthy of our vocation and heritage as Christians while we strive for justice, peace, and love of Christ in this community and beyond;

—To follow Jesus Christ and announce the Gospel by means of preaching, teaching, studying, and witnessing;

—To serve God by meeting human needs in all the forms they are manifested through our local outreach, state, national, and global ministries;

—To lead our community into the obedient and abundant life to all who will follow Christ and walk in the Spirit.

As Lewis Chapel gathers to celebrate its centennial, the Church can truly remember its past, celebrate its present, and focus on the future with great expectations. I would like to congratulate Rev. Fuller, and all of the members of Lewis Chapel on the occasion of their 100th anniversary. I wish them 100 more years of dedicated service to the community.
