JOINT RESOLUTION

Authorizing the limited use of the United States Armed Forces in support of the NATO mission in Libya.

Whereas peaceful demonstrations that began in Libya, inspired by similar movements in Tunisia, Egypt, and elsewhere in the Middle East, quickly spread to cities around the country, calling for greater political reform, opportunity, justice, and the rule of law.

Whereas Muammar Qaddafi, his sons, and forces loyal to them responded to the peaceful demonstrations by authorizing and initiating violence against civilian non-combatants in Libya, including the use of airpower and foreign mercenaries;

Whereas, on February 25, 2011, President Barack Obama imposed unilateral economic sanctions on, and froze the assets of, Muammar Qaddafi and his family, as well as the Government of Libya and its agencies to hold the Qaddafi regime accountable for its continued use of violence against unarmed civilians and its human rights abuses and to safeguard the assets of the people of Libya;

Whereas, on February 26, 2011, the United Nations Security Council passed Resolution 1970, which mandates international economic sanctions and an arms embargo;

Whereas, in response to Qaddafi's assault on civilians in Libya, a "no-fly zone" in Libya was called for by the Gulf Cooperation Council on March 7, 2011; by the head of the Organization of the Islamic Conference on March 8, 2011; and by the Arab League on March 12, 2011;

Whereas Qaddafi's advancing forces, after recapturing cities in eastern Libya that had been liberated by the Libyan opposition, were preparing to attack Benghazi, a city of 700,000 people and the seat of the opposition government in Libya, the Interim Transitional National Council;

Whereas Qaddafi stated that he would show “no mercy” to his opponents in Benghazi, and that his forces would go “door to door” to find and kill dissidents;

Whereas, on March 17, 2011, the United Nations Security Council passed Resolution 1973, which mandates “all necessary measures” to protect civilians in Libya, implement a “no-fly zone”, and enforce an arms embargo against the Qaddafi regime;

Whereas President Obama notified key congressional leaders in a meeting at the White House on March 18, 2011, of his intent to begin targeted military operations in Libya and made clear that the United States “is not going to deploy ground troops into Libya”;

Whereas the United States Armed Forces, together with coalition partners, launched Operation Odyssey Dawn in Libya on March 19, 2011, to protect civilians in Libya from immediate danger and enforce an arms embargo and a “no-fly zone”;

Whereas, on March 28, 2011, President Obama stated, “America has an important strategic interest in preventing Qaddafi from overrunning those who oppose him. A massacre would have driven thousands of additional refugees across Libya’s borders, putting enormous strains on the peaceful—yet fragile—transitions in Egypt and Tunisia. The democratic impulses that are dawning across the region would be eclipsed by the darkest form of dictatorship, as repressive leaders concluded that violence is the best strategy to cling to power . . . So while I will never minimize the costs involved in military action, I am convinced that a failure to act in Libya would have carried a far greater price for America.”;

Whereas, on March 31, 2011, the United States transferred authority for Operation Odyssey Dawn in Libya to NATO command, with the mission continuing as Operation Unified Protector;

Whereas, in a letter to joint bipartisan congressional leaders on May 20, 2011, President Obama expressed support for a Senate resolution on the use of force in Libya and stated that, “Since April 4, U.S. participation has consisted of: (1) non-kinetic support to the NATO-led operation, including intelligence, logistical support, and search and rescue assistance (2) aircraft that have assisted in the suppression and destruction of air defenses in support of the no-fly zone and (3) since April 23, precision strikes by unmanned aerial vehicles against a limited set of clearly defined targets in support of the NATO-led coalition’s efforts.”; and

Whereas, on June 9, 2011, Secretary of State Hillary Clinton recognized the Transitional National Council “as the legitimate interlocutor for the Libyan people during this interim period.”: Now, therefore, be it

2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

4 It is the sense of Congress that—

5 (1) the men and women of the United States
6 Armed Forces and coalition partners who are en-
7 gaged in military operations to protect the people of

10 ~~begin to an inclusive government that ensures free-~~
11 ~~dom, opportunity, and justice for the people of~~ 12 ~~Libya; and~~

16 manitarian and reconstruction assistance; and the

10 (4) the political goals of United States policy are
11 to achieve the departure from power of Muammar

15 ensures freedom, opportunity, and justice for the peo-
16 ple of Libya;

17 (5) the funds of the Qaddafi regime that have
18 been frozen by the United States should be used to re-
19 imburse the United States, as a NATO member, for 20 expenses incurred in connection with Operation Odys-
21 sey Dawn and Operation Unified Protector, and for 22 humanitarian and reconstruction assistance; and to 23 ensure full payment of awards as issued by the For-
24 eign Claims Settlement Commission; and

1 (6) the costs associated with the reconstruction
