MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

By way of background of the facts set out hereafter, it has been ascertained that for some time the British Government has known that the Duchess of Windsor was exceedingly pro-German in her sympathies and connections and there is strong reason to believe that this is the reason why she was considered so objectionable to the British Government that they refused to permit Edward to marry her and maintain the throne. Both she and the Duke of Windsor have been repeatedly warned by representatives of the British Government that in the interest of the morale of the British people, they should be exceedingly circumspect in their dealings with the representatives of the German Government. The Duke is in such a state of intoxication most of the time that he is virtually non compos mentis. The Duchess has repeatedly ignored these warnings. (u)

Shortly prior to the designation of the Duke to be Governor of the Bahamas, the [redacted] established conclusively that the Duchess of Windsor had recently been in direct contact with von Ribbentrop and was maintaining constant contact and communication with him. The newspaper accounts of the travels of the Duke and Duchess over this period were definitely false. The contacts of the Duchess of Windsor with von Ribbentrop from the villa which they were occupying became so frequent that it was necessary for the British Government to compel them to move. Because of their high official position the Duchess was obtaining a variety of information concerning the British and French Government official activities which she was passing on to the Germans. Accordingly, the British Government moved the Duke and Duchess to Biarritz. This was done with some secrecy at the time and [redacted] men covered the news. (u)

Immediately upon checking into a hotel in Biarritz, [redacted] man turned on a radio on a [redacted] station which could be received in France and heard a German commentator in Berlin state that because of the increasing success of the German armies, the Duke and Duchess of Windsor had moved into a hotel at Biarritz where they were occupying Suite 104-B. This was in fact the suite occupied by the Windsors and they had been therein hardly a matter of minutes when this announcement was made over the Berlin radio. The [redacted] ascertained that the Duchess had informed von Ribbentrop of her [redacted] (u) itinerary, schedule, etc. prior to her departure from their villa. The British Government then moved the Windsors into Spain but the communications between the Duchess and von Ribbentrop were apparently facilitated because of the pronounced Nazi sympathies in Spain. The British Government then moved the Windsors into Portugal but it appeared immediately thereafter that the German invasion might cover both Spain and Portugal. The British were and are always fearful that the Duchess will do or say something which will indicate her Nazi sympathies and support, and consequently it was considered absolutely essential that the Windsors be removed to a point where they would do absolutely no harm. X (u)

The British Minister of Colonial Affairs was at this point taken into the confidence of those officials of the British Government who had been closely watching this thing and within a period of two hours had cabled the then Governor of the Bahamas transferring him to another post of duty, had issued instructions designating the Duke of Windsor as the Governor of the Bahamas and had taken appropriate steps to see that the Windsors were compelled to expedite their departure to their new post of duty. The King was not informed of any of the details in connection with this program until ten minutes after a release had been made to the newspapers of the designation of the Duke as Governor of the Bahamas. X (u)

The Bahamas were selected as being in such a location that the Duke, and more importantly, the Duchess, would be virtually isolated from any contact with those elements of the British Empire who knew what is going on in official circles. As an additional precaution, however, the [redacted] has taken special precautions to prevent the Duchess from establishing any channel of communication with von Ribbentrop. X (u) b7D

At the present time some apprehension is felt that the Duchess may align herself with Axel Fanner-Gren, who you will recall has within the past year or so purchased a home at Nassau and apparently intends to maintain a permanent residence there. The British Government through the few members of British Royalty in the Bahamas, are going to attempt to circumvent the establishment of any such connection. Mr Edgar Hoover,

Dear Sir:

I would like to call your attention to facts concerning Duke and Duchess of Windsor, who came to Miami from Bahamas today, presumably for her dental care.

Before England and Germany became war enemies, this couple visited Hitler and are known to be the Nazi's friends. More recently, the Boston Transcript, its foreign correspondent Leland Stowe had a big story of their strong ties with von Ribbentrop and Hitler, especially Mrs Simpson-Windsor. When Edward's appointment as Gov-Gen of Bahamas was made, I hoped our Govt would consider it expedient to keep a close watch on their associates in this colony, so close to us. Now that they are actually the United States, I certainly hope your men are covering them to find out who the "dentist" is; whom they will see, and speak to while at the hotel or elsewhere. I don't trust them and their attitude towards democracy. Tho' born an American, Mrs Windsor has shown no love for democracy; quite the contrary. Therefore, with acceptance by Americans because of her marital romances, she can under such circumstances, do us harm.

Lowell Thomas in his broadcast just now stated the Windsors are remaining in Miami longer than at first planned. This should permit a careful check-up on them. Isn't there a prominent Nazi consul who has created a commotion because of anti-democracy statements, down in Florida? I recall some such news reports a few months ago. Why didn't she report a dentist to Nassau?

Yours for Safety,

(Mrs)

Re: AXEL WENNER-GREN

From an unknown outside source information has been received calling attention to an article appearing in "Uncensored" which pertains to the above captioned individual. The Duke and Duchess of Windsor were brought to Florida recently by Axel Wenner-Gren, who is known to have excellent connections in Germany. Wenner-Gren's munitions plant in Sweden at one time was partly owned by Krupp. During Sumner Welles' European tour a year or so ago Wenner-Gren was his traveling companion. Wenner-Gren is reported to be well known to Goering of the Nazi regime.

Mr. Fletcher Warren telephonically contacted me with reference to his conversation with you regarding the Duke of Windsor. He said he wanted to know what the Director has decided about sending a FBI Agent down to Miami in an undercover capacity to watch the Duke. He said the Secret Service Agent down there has already gotten his instructions and that Mr. Fitch, Chief Special Agent of the State Department, wanted to get his man down there right away. Mr. Warren wanted to know what the Director's reaction was so that he could advise Mr. Fitch. (u)

I advised Mr. Warren that I did not know what the answer was, but that I would try to find out what I could and advise him later.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

Assistant Secretary of State Berle called Mr. Kramer and advised that the State Department had received a communication from the British Embassy to the effect that the Duke and Duchess of Windsor are going to spend next week-end at Palm Beach, Florida. They are to arrive in Miami on Friday, April 18th, on the S.S. Berkshire and will stay at the Everglades Club in Palm Beach. They are to return to Nassau on the same ship, leaving Miami on the evening of April 21st.

Mr. Berle stated that the Embassy had suggested that if the United States authorities are contemplating attaching a Secret Service agent to the Duke during his visit, it was the Duke's request that Mr. Gerard B. Hemlet be assigned to him, as Mr. Hemlet had been assigned to the Duke during his visit here last December.

Mr. Berle was told that Mr. Hemlet was probably connected with the Secret Service branch of the Treasury Department and that there was no one in the Bureau by this name. He stated he would take this up with the Secret Service.

Mr. Berle then requested, on his own initiative, that the Bureau assign someone in an undercover position to watch the activities of the Duke and Duchess during their visit. He stated that this request was predicated upon information which we have had in the past concerning these people, and he felt it would be desirable for a discreet surveillance to be maintained of the Windsors while they are in the United States. ~~(u)~~

In the event you have no objection, the Miami Office will be requested to have this matter handled in a very discreet manner during the three days the Windsors are in Palm Beach. ~~(u)~~

Assistant Secretary of State Adolf A. Berle, Jr. telephonically communicated with one of the officials of the Bureau yesterday, advising that information had been received to the effect that the Duke and Duchess of Windsor will arrive in Miami, Florida on Friday, April 18th, on the S.S. Berkshire, to spend the week-end at Palm Beach. They will return to Nassau on the evening of April 21st.

Mr. Berle advised that the United States authorities were contemplating assigning a Secret Service Agent to the Duke during his visit, and at the Duke's request a Mr. Gerard B. Henlet would be designated, since Henlet had previously handled such an assignment.

Mr. Berle then requested that this Bureau assign someone in an undercover capacity to watch the activities of the Duke and Duchess during their visit. Upon this being called to my attention I immediately had Mr. Fletcher Warren, in the office of Mr. Berle, advised of the fact that a Secret Service Agent, assigned to guard the Duke and Duchess during their visit, would undoubtedly immediately detect the presence of any undercover agents, which might result in considerable embarrassment to all parties concerned. (u)

Immediately thereafter I was advised that the request of Mr. Berle had been made pursuant to a suggestion of the President and, further, that word would be passed along by the Treasury Department to the Secret Service Agent to the effect that other individuals would also be watching the Duke and Duchess. (u)

In view of the information that this request was made at the President's suggestion, I wanted to immediately call the facts to your attention and request your advice as to the action you desire taken in this matter. (u)

SAC Wyly called from Miami with reference to the surveillance to be maintained on the Duke of Windsor. He stated Mr. Tyson (Phonetic) of the Secret Service and a Sergeant H. Holder of the Scotland Yard Police are acting as body guards. This makes it impossible to get within 100 yards of the Duke for surveillance purposes. Mr. Wyly stated he had not talked with Tyson as yet and I told him to talk to Tyson, telling him that Mr. Gaston had suggested we talk to him, pointing out of course that he is not to notify the Scotland Yard man of our activities. Mr. Wyly stated he has all communications covered and will get copies of all of them. Mr. Wyly has also obtained the Duke's itinerary. (u)

Mr. Wyly stated if the Bureau approves, he can have Mr. L. A. Mackintosh, who is a personal friend of the Duke and who is responsible for the Duke's being here, and who is also a personal friend of Mr. Wyly, introduce Mr. Wyly to the party, thus making it possible for him to be a member of the party and be with it at all times. Mr. Mackintosh is an Englishman, is not naturalized as yet but has his first papers. According to Mr. Wyly he has been to Nassau about four times. (u)

After checking with you I told Mr. Wyly it would be satisfactory to have Mackintosh introduce him to the party if he was sure that Mackintosh would not indicate that we are interested in the Duke. Mr. Wyly stated this could be arranged and asked if there was any objection to Mackintosh telling the party just who he is. I told Mr. Wyly I could see no objection to this if Mackintosh indicates that he has invited him in a personal capacity, as a personal friend. (u)

Mr. Wyly stated they had asked the Palm Beach Police Department to have two men available and Agent H. Osborne has been introduced as one of the men. (u)

12:05 PM

I telephonically contacted Mr. Fletcher Warren of the State Department regarding Mr. Berle's request that a Bureau Agent be assigned in an undercover capacity to watch the Duke of Windsor during his visit to Palm Beach, Florida, this weekend. (u)

Mr. Warren was advised that the Bureau was not in favor of doing this inasmuch as a Secret Service man is going to be on the job and he will, no doubt, discover immediately that a watch is being maintained, which might cause some embarrassment. (u)

12:10 PM

After discussing the matter with Mr. Berle, Mr. Warren contacted me to advise that Mr. Berle's request was made at the suggestion of the President; further that the Secret Service man's assignment would be pro forma, and the Treasury Department would be notified of the Bureau's participation in this matter. (u)

I told Mr. Warren this information would be brought to your attention.

Respectfully,

P. E. Foxworth

My dear Mr. Attorney General:

Attention: Mr. Alexander Holtzoff

At this time Judge Holtzoff again called me in regard to the Duke and Duchess of Windsor. Judge Holtzoff stated that he had just talked with Fletcher Warren; that Mr. Berle will be back this afternoon; and that Mr. Warren stated that he would have Mr. Berle dictate a memorandum which would be sent to us by messenger.

Judge Holtzoff further advised that Mr. Warren is telephoning Gaston informing him that this request has been made of me. I told Judge Holtzoff that this was a very good idea; that since the Secret Service has been detailed to guard the Duke and Duchess that it would have been better to have the Secret Service also maintain a surveillance upon them instead of having the FBI keep them under surveillance. I further told the Judge that the bodyguard would be in a much better position to know where the Duke and Duchess go and what they do; that the Secret Service men might become a bit suspicious if they noticed a man or a group of men following the Duke and Duchess. I advised the Judge that I felt either the FBI or the Secret Service ought to do both the guarding and surveillance. (u)

I told Judge Holtzoff that the Treasury Department should be notified that we will have the Duke and Duchess under surveillance, which will include their bodyguard. I advised Judge Holtzoff that if this had not been at the personal request of the President that I would have refused this request. (u)

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON
MR. Tamm

DECLASSIFIED BY SP3 BTJ/SH
ON 12/01/99 AFFM E 94 2521

C. F. R. S.

In regard to the attached memorandum from Mr. Forwerth dated April 17, 1941 containing a verbal request made by Mr. Berle relative to certain activities which he states the President desires us to handle pertaining to Axel Hennrich Gren, I think that we must definitely adopt a rather firm policy in matters of this kind.

A verbal request was made by Mr. Berle that we place the Duke and Duchess of Flindger under surveillance, notwithstanding that they will have a Secret Service bodyguard, and Mr. Berle stated, as I understand it, that this suggestion was made by the President. Also yesterday Mr. McGuire called Mr. Tamm and verbally requested him to make some investigation for an attorney which the House Committee on Military Affairs was contemplating employing, and the attached memorandum is another verbal request made by Mr. Berle at the suggestion of the President. I think that we must in all instances request any party making any request of us to confirm it by a written memorandum, which of course can be marked strictly confidential. The inclination to "pass the buck" or the vagaries of memory may work very detrimentally against the Bureau. I don't question the fact that the President might have made the above suggestions and I don't question the sincerity of the persons making the requests of us, but I recall all too well the understanding which we thought we had with the State Department concerning the activities of the [redacted] in this country, and yet when we check back several months later we find no one who will assume the responsibility for having given the "green light" upon the activities of this group.

Therefore, irrespective of who makes the request, we must ask that it be confirmed by written memorandum and it can be indicated that such memorandum be treated strictly confidentially. We cannot afford to do business otherwise, in view of the inclination of certain elements (not those making the request of the Bureau) to find fault with the things we do at subsequent dates. Unless we have a written memorandum to support our action, we will definitely be found holding the bag.

I have particularly in mind the request which the Secretary of the Treasury made of me to establish certain technical surveillances, according to the Attorney General, when he several months ago spoke to the Secretary relative to these technical surveillances. The Secretary is alleged to have said that the mere fact that he had spoken to me about having these surveillances didn't necessarily mean I should do it. In other words, the Bureau will have to assume, in the final analysis, the responsibility for its actions, and where these activities are initiated by other persons than those directly connected with the Bureau, we must have written confirmation of such requests.

Very truly yours
Edgar Hoover

Utilize him on this.

While talking with William Rhineland Stewart, he told me that while in Nassau he had seen the Duke of Windsor and his wife on a number of occasions. Stewart is very friendly with Gray, who is the personal aide of the Duke. Stewart said that he felt he might be in a position to help us if we were interested in knowing what was going on as far as the Duke was concerned. I told him that we were interested, of course, and might want to call upon him sometime in the future. (u)

He told me at this time that there was current rumor and gossip in Nassau to the effect that when Hitler defeated England, he would then install the Duke of Windsor as the king and that, of course, under such circumstances there would be no question about his wife's being queen; that he, Stewart, didn't know whether any credence should be placed in such stories; that he did know the Duke was very much in love with his wife and that it might be he was so embittered against what he thought was the raw deal his people had given to her that such a change might be brought about. (u)

He said that on one occasion when they were at a dinner party in connection with "some Bundles for Britain affair", the Duke had joined in singing "There'll Always Be An England" and then an aside had asked if there would always be a Scotland Yard, and that he was forever making remarks like that which were out of place. He also stated he was told that at a dinner at the Government House where the Duke and Duchess were piped in, after being seated the Duchess made some remark to a dinner guest and then turned to the piper and made the statement, "You can also report that to Downing Street," which indicated to everyone present that they thought the piper was some kind of a spy for England. (u)

Stewart states that the Duke looks upon Nassau as a sort of Elba for himself and that undoubtedly he does have some personal political aspirations. (u)

Stewart stated that about ten years ago, he had been friendly with the Duke and had played golf with him on numerous occasions. He had not seen him in the past ten years until he met him at a cocktail party. The Duke immediately remembered him and introduced him to his wife whom he had never met before. Stewart stated that the Duchess immediately asked him how was Jeannette (which is the first name of Stewart's wife), for which reason he thinks she is a very keen person if she could immediately associate his name with the girl he had married who, it appeared, had known the Duchess about 15 years ago. (X)(u)

Stewart thinks the Duchess a very intelligent and charming person and one for whom the Duke would do anything. (X)(u)

I asked Stewart to give me a full report on what he had heard about the Duke and his activities while he was in Nassau and he promised to do this. I will see him when I am in New York on Friday. Stewart also stated that in the event we wanted him to do anything in particular regarding the Duke, he would be very glad to do so. I told him we would let him know. (X)(u)

Respectfully,

P. E. Foxworth

He ought to maintain his contact even to extent of visiting Nassau from time to time.
