On Saturday evening, 4/15/72, I attended the captioned dinner in the Grand Ballroom of the New York Hilton Hotel. It was a black-tie affair, at which there were approximately 1600 in attendance. This affair is similar to the Gridiron Dinner which is held annually in Washington, D. C. u

During the third intermission of the evening, a group of approximately twenty-five young, crudely dressed individuals, who identified themselves as members of the GAY ACTIVISTS ALLIANCE (GAA), invaded the ballroom and began distributing handbills setting forth protests and complaints about the handling of homosexual stories by the media. The GAA is a group of homosexuals. The members of the GAA distributed the leaflets and one tried to talk into the microphone on the stage. The curtain was drawn for the intermission and the individual trying to seize the microphone could not be seen from the main part of the ballroom where I was seated. Men in dinner jackets, who appeared to be part of the hotel management ordered the GAA group to leave, which they did. u

B. APPROX 1951

The next day the newspapers carried a story indicating that two of the members of the GAA had been beaten, one on the escalator outside the ballroom and the other behind the curtain when he attempted to talk over the microphone. The members of the GAA who had been beaten had not been able to identify their alleged assailants. However, one MORTY MANFORD, age 21, head of the "Gay People at Columbia University", and one of the two allegedly beaten, believes that MICHAEL MAYE, President of the Uniformed Fire Fighters Association, was the individual who attacked him on the escalator. MANFORD has sworn out a warrant for the arrest of MAYE. A spokesman for the NYCPD stated that allegations concerning the incident are being investigated. u

DEMONSTRATION AT THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION
MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA
JULY, 1972

On April 19, 1972, a Miami source who is well informed concerning some New Left activities in the Miami area reported the following information: U

The Gay Activist Alliance (GAA) in Miami meets each Tuesday at the Center for Dialogue, St. John's Lutheran Church. At a recent meeting, plans were discussed for a series of "zaps" in the Miami area during the Democratic National Convention, designed to draw attention to, and sympathy for, the GAA cause. Possibilities discussed for these "zaps" were a "wedding" between two homosexuals and a dance for persons of the same sex. Both of these actions are believed to be illegal, and the official action taken against the GAA by the authorities would hopefully bring about a situation which would create sympathy for their struggle. Plans for these "zaps" are still in the formative stage and have not been finalized. (U)

Said file and record searches and police contacts also failed to develop any information concerning a GAA Chicago chapter, a National Coalition of Gay Organizations (NCGO), or the Rainbow Tribe, an alleged violence-prone element of the Purple Star Tribe, an alleged Gay Liberation organization. U

It is noted Chicago previously advised by nitel to the Bureau (copy to Miami) dated 4/7/72 under Gay Liberation Front and MIDEM captions, that investigation, including indices search, failed to identify or develop any information concerning the Purple Star Tribe in the Chicago area. U

Investigation to date at Chicago, including contacts with sources listed above, as well as with logical informants, has failed to develop any information to indicate any actual organizational activity has been undertaken by any element of the street movement, including Gay Liberation, for mass, group or organizational appearance for demonstration or any other activity at the Democratic or Republican national political conventions during the summer of 1972 at Miami Beach, Florida. Unquestionably, individuals and possibly even organized groups from Chicago will be present at Miami Beach. There is just no indication, at this time, that such activity is being seriously considered or organized by any element and no specific assertions by individuals or groups have been made that they will be in Miami Beach. U

Chicago will continue to remain alert for such information. If developed, it will be immediately furnished to the Bureau, Miami and interested Offices by the most expeditious means followed in form suitable for dissemination with appropriate recommendations by Chicago. U

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION,
MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA
AUGUST, 1972

The Gay Activists Alliance (GAA) is a homosexual liberation group. U

On June 21, 1972, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that there would be a demonstration held at the Federal Court House, Miami, Florida, at 8:30 AM, Thursday, June 22, 1972. The source also advised that the American Civil Liberties Union would also be present. U

On June 22, 1972, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation went to the Federal Court House, Miami, Florida, to observe the proposed demonstration. Agents determined that no demonstration was being conducted. Further inquiries by agents determined that there was to be a court hearing concerning the Gay Activists bringing a complaint before the Federal Court against the Miami Beach Police Department concerning Ordinance 25-50 and Ordinance 25-52. U

The ordinances are as follows: U

Sec. 25-50. Impersonating females. U

It shall be unlawful for any male person to exhibit or display himself costumed, clothed, garbed or appareled in any manner not appropriate to his sex or otherwise to impersonate a member of the female sex in any play, dialogue, theatrical production, pantomime, stage or floor show or act within the city. U

It shall be unlawful for any person to permit any male person to exhibit or display himself costumed, clothed, garbed or appareled in any manner not appropriate to his sex, or otherwise to impersonate a member of the female sex in any play, dialogue, theatrical production, pantomime, stage or floor show or act within the city. U

The provisions of this section shall not apply to theatrical performances sponsored by accredited schools, colleges and universities or moving pictures in a licensed theater or in public parades. (Ord. No. 1169, Sec. 3.) U

Sec. 25-52. Indecent exposure; improper dress; indecent behavior. U

It shall be unlawful for any person in any public place in the city to be found in a state of nudity, or in a dress not becoming to his sex, or to make any indecent exposure of his person or be guilty of any indecent or lewd behavior. (Code 1950, Sec. 22.35.) U

The main purpose of their complaint was concerning the wearing apparel of individuals stating that it is a violation of their First Amendment rights. U

It was observed that 20 to 25 individuals, men and women, from the local Gay Activists Alliance were in attendance. One individual was overheard to say that there would be 500 sisters in for the convention, referring to the upcoming two political conventions. U

RE: GAY ACTIVISTS ALLIANCE; ET AL

The complaint was filed by the Gay Activists Alliance under the names of ROBERT BARRY and CHARLES LAMONT. A Miami Beach attorney attempted to get the complaint dismissed, stating that the ordinances do not violate First Amendment rights. Motion to dismiss was denied by Federal Judge EMMETT C. CHOATE. A hearing followed where ROBERT BARRY was called as a witness and advised that he is a homosexual and that the Gay Activists Alliance is a non-violent civil rights organization. He further stated that their plans are for their organization to attend the convention in order to demonstrate for gay civil rights. He advised that there are approximately 584 gay organizations in the United States and that there is an expected six thousand individuals from these organizations coming to Miami. U

CHARLES A. LAMONT was next called to the stand and advised that he is the community organizer for the National Coalition of Gay Organizations and that their main purpose is for gay civil rights. He advised that the purpose for coming to the convention is to talk with delegates in an attempt to have them understand their rights. U

Judge WILLIAM O. MEHRTEZ stated that, in his opinion, the ordinances are vague and overbroad and give a chilling effect on the First Amendment rights. He placed a permanent injunction on Ordinances 25-50 and 25-52, stating that these individuals may dress in any manner which they want and are not to be arrested by the Miami Beach Police Department. RE: GAY ACTIVISTS ALLIANCE;
NATIONAL COALITION OF GAY ORGANIZATIONS

A confidential source advised on May 23, 1972, that at a rally at Columbus, Ohio, on May 21, 1972, sponsored by the GAA, a recognized student group on the campus of Ohio State University, an announcement was made urging everyone to go to the national political conventions in Miami and stating if they could not be at both conventions, they should plan to be at the Democratic National Convention. The announcement stated arrangements should be made through the GAA office in Miami. U

A second confidential source advised on May 31, 1972, that CHUCK LAMONT of the Chicago chapter of GAA and a spokesman for the NCGO has recently been in Miami organizing for protest activity by these organizations at the Democratic National Convention. U ILL. FLA. SUBJECT ORIGIN

The May 31, 1972, issue of the "Miami Herald", a daily Miami newspaper, contained an article stating that CHUCK LAMONT, spokesman for the NCGO, had advised that his group has requested the City of Miami Beach furnish a camp site on the 21st Street Beach, Miami Beach, for use of the gay demonstrators. LAMONT said this beach is already known as a "gay beach" and he added that a separate gay camp site is needed from camp sites utilized by other demonstrators because of possible animosities of these other demonstrators who may harbor "anti-gay feelings". U

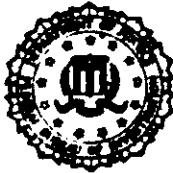

On June 1, 1972, on the program "The Informer", a daily talk show on Miami Beach radio station WKAT, talkmaster LYNN RUSSELL talked by telephone with BOB BARRY, who identified himself as President of the Miami chapter of GAA. He related as follows: U FLA. SUBJECT ORIGIN

The GAA has made plans for peaceful demonstrations at the site of the Democratic National Convention in support of the delegates within the convention committed to the support of "gay rights". Some 50 such delegates are already committed. U

RE: GAY ACTIVISTS ALLIANCE;
NATIONAL COALITION OF GAY ORGANIZATIONS

The expected number of gay demonstrators was estimated at over 6,000 based upon the number who attended a recent national convention in Chicago sponsored by the NCGO. Some of the demonstrators will be dressed in "full drag", complete attire of the opposite sex, and others will be dressed in "skag drag", partial female attire or full female attire with beards. GAA considers this a political action and the demonstrations will be in support of full civil rights for all homosexuals in every field. U

In recent years, an adversary situation has developed between the psychiatric profession and the homosexual community. While much of psychiatry sees this, it is felt with growing resentment and bitterness by the homosexual community who increasingly see psychiatry as THE major enemy in a battle against deeply-rooted societal prejudice, and see psychiatrists as singularly insensitive and obtuse to the destruction which they are wreaking upon homosexuals by their negative attitudes and pronouncements. We consider such an adversary situation undesirable and reconciliation to be to the advantage of both adversaries. That is why we, as homosexuals, are here at the Dallas conference of the American Psychiatric Association. In our view, homosexuals are the people most knowledgeable about, and certainly most concerned with these questions. We have traditionally been the people least consulted while others, self-appointed and never authorized to represent us, have talked about us instead of with us, and set themselves up, without our permission, as our spokesmen. We are bringing that to an end.

Central to the conflict between psychiatry and the homosexual community is the "sickness theory" of homosexuality and the whole related complex of negative attitudes toward homosexuality, which try to make of homosexuality something inferior to and less desirable than heterosexuality. It matters not whether the word used be sickness, disorder, affliction, disturbance, dysfunction, neurosis, immaturity, fixation, character or personality disorder, pathology, or any other—or whether homosexuality be considered as merely symptomatic of these—the effects are the same: (1) To support and buttress the prejudices of society and to assist the bigots in the perpetration and perpetuation of their bigotry; and, at least equally important (2) To destroy the homosexual's self-confidence and self-esteem, impair his or her self-image, degrade his or her basic human dignity.

Before any theory having consequences as disastrous as these is accepted, there should be certainty that it rests upon a sound scientific basis. As anyone with even a rudimentary scientific training is aware, the approach of psychiatry to homosexuality violates every canon of good scientific research. For psychiatry cavalierly to spout forth its characterizations of homosexuality as less than fully healthy represents utter irresponsibility. If the profession wishes to continue to take pride in its alleged scientific accomplishments, it had better be sure that its "researches" really are scientific. Insofar as homosexuality is concerned, they could not be less so. They are the distilled, concentrated essence of bad science; they are a textbook illustration of "science" gone wrong. When the psychiatric position on homosexuality is examined, we find that we have been DEFINED into sickness and pathology by cultural, social, moral, teleological and theological value judgments, camouflaged and cloaked in the language of science, but with none of the substance of science.

Even more irresponsible is the continuing refusal of psychiatry to shoulder its proper burden in any situation of bigotry: To provide therapy for the bigots in order to change their attitudes; to change the attitudes of society, instead of not only accepting those attitudes but deifying them and then engaging in human engineering for conformity to them.

Deeply resented by the gay community are persistent efforts by psychiatrists to convert homosexuals to heterosexuality, instead of inculcating them with pride in their homosexuality. Increasingly, we hear psychiatrists piously declare that they attempt to convert "only those homosexuals who wish to be changed." That is an unacceptably simplistic, superficial, and shallow approach. When society generally, and psychiatry particularly, have "brainwashed" homosexuals into a belief in the inferiority of their homosexuality, the homosexual who asks to be changed is merely the creation of a self-fulfilling process. How many whites choose to try to "pass" as black, and why is the number so small, and why do any blacks at all choose to "pass" as white, and is it not better that now, in an era of "Black is Beautiful," fewer and fewer Blacks are trying to be untrue to themselves? We must investigate and often challenge the motives before we accept the desire to change. The great majority of homosexuals desiring to change to heterosexuality should be instilled with a belief that "Gay is Good," not blandly welcomed as candidates for change.

The homosexual community looks upon efforts to change homosexuals to heterosexuality, or to mold younger, supposedly malleable homosexuals into heterosexuality (the very existence of this "plastic teenager" is questionable at best) as an assault upon our people comparable in its way to genocide. We find offensive the entire vocabulary of the psychiatric literature, in which "help," "improvement," "success," "recovery" and similar terms relating to the therapy of homosexuals is related to the extent of increase in heterosexual tendency and activity. The goals of therapy of homosexuals must be subjected to searching re-examination.

Equally important as a consequence of psychiatric attitudes, is the fact that large numbers of homosexuals who might benefit from psychotherapy for a variety of problems unrelated to their homosexuality (which is NEVER a problem in and of itself, any more than heterosexuality is ever a problem in and of itself) will not go near a psychiatrist because of their fully-justified expectation that their real problems will be shunted aside and ignored, and the therapy will become an unwanted assault upon their homosexuality.

For better or for worse, psychiatry and psychiatrists are authority figures in our society today. Responsible authorities assess with great care the consequences of the exercise of their authority and the validity of their positions and premises. In regard to homosexuality, psychiatry clearly has not done so. It is time to start doing so, or to doff the mantle of authority before it is taken from you!

In our view, it is time for psychiatry to reassess its position on homosexuality from the ground up. Queen Victoria has been dead for almost three-quarters of a century.

work as a pioneer and trail-blazer, but trails are necessarily blazed with lack of knowledge of the whole terrain and seldom follow what ultimately turns out to be the optimum route. It is time to realize that much of the psychiatric approach to homosexuality must be recognized for what it is: A misinterpretation of cultural artifacts of the latterly distorted, warped, perverted sexual attitude of the Victorian era, in which Freud came up, and shortly following which the most modern "authorities" on this subject were trained.

We must recognize that one of the glories of humankind is its endless diversity and pluralism in all things; that we are not faceless robots all turned out of the same mold, but that we follow different courses of equal value to different goals of equal value in psychosexual development as in all other areas; that there is no one, single healthy course in psychosexual development.

Finally, we must realize that among the glories of humankind is its brain, which has liberated us from the degrading, demeaning, dehumanizing (and inapplicable in this context) "anatomy is destiny" theory. Our genital organs are our appendages; we are appendages of our genital organs.

We take the position that in our pluralistic society, the homosexual has a moral right to be a homosexual, and being a homosexual, has a moral right not only to live his or her homosexuality fully, freely, openly, and with pride, but also has a right to do so free of arrogant and insolent pressures to convert to the prevailing heterosexuality, and in the absence of the active, affirmative, positive assistance and encouragement of all the official and unofficial arms and agents of society, including psychiatry, in his so living.

Not only do we insist that homosexuals, as people, are in no way inferior to heterosexuals as people (a precept to which we are sure that most psychiatrists will make no exception) but we insist, equally uncompromisingly, that homosexuality—as a condition of being, a way of life or life-style, an expression of love and affection—is fully on a par with and in no slightest way inferior to heterosexuality.

We are working to create a sense of community among our people to create, in turn, a sense of unity, solidarity, militancy, and activism, in order to assist us achieve our full rights and status in a society which is ours as much as it is that of the heterosexuals. We are working with success to create among our people a sense of pride in their homosexuality and a sense of the rightness of what they are and the goodness of what they do.

In order to do this, it is necessary to extract homosexuality from the medical context in which it has long and persistently been placed, and to place it in a sociological context of minority group relationships involving prejudice, discrimination, and bigotry. This is the only context in which the real problems of real homosexuals in our society today can be constructively and productively addressed. It has been well and truly said that in our society there is no Black problem, there is a white problem. We say that there is no homosexual problem, there is a heterosexual problem. Psychiatry, as it presently deals with homosexuality, is a major part of that problem.

A psychiatric profession which persists in approaching homosexuality as a medical problem and homosexuals, per se, as patients, while homosexuals themselves as homosexuals are busy entering politics and running for public office, is singularly out of touch with reality—psychotically so!

We are trying to open dialog with the psychiatric profession on these questions. In past years, it has been necessary, on occasion, to resort to strong measures against a resisting profession in order to achieve such discussion of our problems with us instead of merely about us. We sincerely hope that productive, constructive discussion and dialog, spurred by meaningful reform of psychiatry, will now proceed actively.

Psychiatry, in the past—and continuingly—has been the major obstacle in our society to the advancement of homosexuals and to the achievement of our rights, our full happiness, and our basic human dignity. Psychiatry can become our major ally.

Will you assist us?

WHAT YOU CAN DO:

1. Both individually and collectively as a profession and an association, re-examine your past positions on homosexuality. Discard the negative attitudes and the biases which have afflicted you in the past.
2. Work for a public renunciation, by psychiatry, of the "sickness theory" of homosexuality in ANY semantic guise.
3. Undertake an active, vigorous campaign to ameliorate and ultimately to eliminate popular prejudice on this question, both through work to change attitudes and in such specific areas as law reform, equal opportunity legislation, etc.
4. Consult on an on-going basis with representatives of the homosexual community.

Our themes are: GAY, PROUD AND HEALTHY and GAY GOOD. With or without you, we will work vigorously toward the acceptance of those themes and will fight those who oppose us. We would much prefer to work with you than against you. Will you join us, to our mutual benefit?

Your comments, suggestions, and efforts at dialog and discussion are welcome. Contact:

PREAMBLE:

WE AS LIBERATED HOMOSEXUAL ACTIVISTS demand the freedom for expression of our dignity and value as human beings through confrontation with and disarmament of all mechanisms which unjustly inhibit us: economic, social, and political. Before the public conscience, we demand an immediate end to all oppression of the homosexuals and that immediate unconditional recognition of these basic rights:

THE RIGHT TO OUR OWN FEELINGS. This is the right to feel attracted to the beauty of members of our own sex and to embrace those feelings as truly our own, free from any question or challenge whatsoever by any other person, institution, or "moral authority."

THE RIGHT TO LOVE. This is the right to express our feelings in action, the right to make love with anyone, anyway, anytime, provided only that such action be freely chosen by the individuals concerned.

THE RIGHT TO OUR OWN BODIES. This is the right to treat and express our bodies as we will, to nurture, display, and embellish them solely in the manner we ourselves determine independent of any external control whatsoever.

THE RIGHT TO BE PERSONS. This is the right freely express our own individuality under the governance of laws justly made and executed, and to be the bearers of social and political rights which are guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States and the Bill of Rights, enjoined upon legislative bodies and courts, and grounded in the fact of our common humanity.

To secure these rights, we hereby institute the GAY ACTIVISTS Alliance, which shall be completely and solely dedicated to their implementation and maintenance, repudiating, at the same time, violence (except for the right of self-defense) as unworthy of social protest, disdaining all ideologies, whether political or social, and forbearing alliance with any group except for those whose concrete actions are likewise specifically dedicated.

It is finally to the imagination of oppressed homosexuals themselves that we commend the consideration of these rights, upon whose actions alone depends all hope for the prospect of their lasting procurement.

1972 GAY RIGHTS PLATFORM IN THE UNITED STATES

(adopted by the National Coalition of GAY Organizations meeting in Chicago, Illinois, February 13, 1972)

Millions of Gay women and men in this country are subject to severe social, economic and psychological and legal oppression because of their sexual orientation.

We affirm the right of all persons to define and express their own sensibility, emotionality and sexuality, and to choose their own lifestyle, so long as they do not infringe upon the rights of others. We pledge an end to all social, economic and legal oppression of Gay women and men.

We demand the repeal of all laws forbidding voluntary sex acts involving consenting persons in private.

Laws prohibiting loitering for the purpose of soliciting for a homosexual liaison are vague and unconstitutional. Nevertheless, they are frequently used as the legal cover for police entrapment of Gay women and men.

We demand the repeal of all laws prohibiting solicitation for a voluntary private sexual liaison.

Prejudice and myth have led to widespread discrimination against Gay women and men.

We demand the enactment of civil rights legislation which will prohibit discrimination because of sexual orientation in employment, housing, public accommodations and public services.

DEMANDS:

FEDERAL:

1. Amend all federal Civil Rights Acts, other legislation and government controls to prohibit discrimination in employment, housing, public accommodations and public services, because of one's sexual orientation.
2. Issuance by the President of an executive order prohibiting the military from excluding for reasons of their sexual orientation, persons who of their own volition desire entrance into the Armed Services; and from issuing less-than-fully-honorable discharges for homosexuality; and the upgrading to fully honorable all such discharges previously issued, with retroactive benefits.
3. Issuance by the President of an executive order prohibiting discrimination in the federal civil service because of sexual orientation, in hiring and promoting; and prohibiting discriminations against Gay women and men.
4. Elimination of tax inequities victimizing single persons and same-sex couples.
5. Elimination of bars to the entry, immigration and naturalization of Gay aliens.
6. Federal encouragement and support for sex education courses, prepared and taught by qualified Gay women and men, presenting homosexuality as a valid, healthy preference, lifestyle, and as a viable alternative to heterosexuality.
7. Appropriate executive orders, regulations and legislation banning the compiling, maintenance and dissemination of information on an individual's sexual preferences, behavior, and social and political activities for dossiers and data banks, and ordering the immediate destruction of such data.
8. Federal funding of aid projects for social and political activities of Gay women's and men's organizations designed to alleviate the problems encountered by Gay women and men which are engendered by an oppressive sexist society.

- 9. Immediate release of all Gay women and men now incarcerated in detention centers, prisons and mental institutions because of sexual offense charges relating to victimless crimes or sexual orientation; and that adequate compensation be made for the physical and mental duress encountered; and that all existing records relating to the incarceration be immediately expunged.

STATE:

- 1. All federal legislation and programs enumerated in Demands 1, 4, 7, 8, and 9 above should be implemented at the State level where applicable.
- 2. Repeal of all state laws prohibiting private sexual acts involving consenting persons; equalization for homosexuals and heterosexuals for the enforcement of all laws.
- 3. Repeal all state laws prohibiting solicitation for private voluntary sexual intercourse; and laws prohibiting prostitution, both male and female.

- 8. Repeal of all legislative provisions that restrict the sex or number of persons entering into a marriage unit; and the extention of legal benefits of marriage to all persons who cohabit regardless of sex or numbers.

HOUSTON, TEXAS 77004

June 23, 1976

Personnel Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
515 Rusk
Houston, Texas 77002

To Whom It May Concern:

The Gay Activists Alliance, a non-profit organization based at the University of Houston, is conducting a survey to determine the personnel policies of businesses and institutions. The purpose of this survey is to provide interested individuals with information on employer's attitudes and practices regarding homosexual employees, both present and prospective.

We would appreciate your careful consideration and response to the following questions:

1. Does the Federal Bureau of Investigation have a formal statement or informal policy regarding employment of homosexuals?
2. If you are informed of the existence of a homosexual on your staff, what would be your typical course of action?

Please feel free to make any additional comments not covered by the questions above. Also, we would like to suggest that you publish your response in a newsletter or post it on the employees' bulletin board.

Thank you for your time and effort.

Sincerely,

Shari Cohen
