INFORMATION CONCERNING [REDACTED]

Captioned called from New York on 7-17-70 and spoke with SA Alfred L. Anderson. She immediately identified herself as [REDACTED] and added "[REDACTED]". After furnishing other identifying data she inquired where the Governor of Minnesota could be located in Washington, D. C., and asked if SA Anderson knew where that state is located. Without waiting for a reply she added "that is where Hubie lives," and she was undoubtedly referring to former Vice President Humphrey. She was at a loss to understand how the governor of a state could be in Washington, D. C., and the FBI not know his whereabouts. She said she wanted to get in touch with him in order that he could vouch for her in connection with her efforts to have a New York City policeman apologize to her.

She then related that she was visiting Greenwich Village two days ago and became involved in a verbal altercation with policemen who were attempting to prevent some young people from stealing bread from a truck. She felt the police were handling the matter incorrectly and that she could talk to the young people. One of the policemen used vulgar language during his conversation with her and at one point asked "what in the - - - (obscene) are you doing from Minnesota with a New York automobile and no license?" With reference to the particular word he used in this instance she quickly added "I can spell it and do it, but do not talk about it."

The jurisdiction of the FBI was explained to the caller and she terminated the conversation.

This is to record that captioned individual telephonically contacted the Bureau and talked to SA Leon M. Gaskill on 7/22/70. He wanted Mr. Hoover, for whom he had a lot of respect, to know that the "war was fixing to be over" and that he was "Almighty God" and would be glad to help run the Government. He said the President should also be advised of the above information and then hung up.

Our files show that on 11/18/66 the mother of captioned individual advised the day before he, while intoxicated, had mailed a letter to the President which contained some threat to "take over the Government." She stated that he was highly remorseful and concerned over this action and described her son as a married man, 59 years of age, who was formerly a prominent Cedar Bluff businessman until he suffered a nervous breakdown. She said he had received psychiatric treatment in the University Hospital, Birmingham, Alabama, and regularly took tranquilizers. She stated he was harmless and caused no trouble except when he became intoxicated. Secret Service was furnished the information supplied by [REDACTED] mother. (62-109078-2254)

On 7-29-70, [redacted] who gave her phone number as [redacted] in New York City, called stating that she desired to be advised of information in Bureau files on [redacted] whom she would not otherwise identify other than stating she suspected him of being involved in organized crime activities. The confidential character of Bureau files was carefully explained to her after which she acknowledged that she readily understood why it is not possible for the Bureau to divulge information in its files.

She was asked if she has anything which she feels would be of value to the FBI and stated she did not know, indicating that first and foremost is her concern over the degree of involvement any reporting of information by her would represent. She was advised that any information furnished is regarded as confidential by the Bureau and was asked if she would like to talk to an Agent of our New York Office. She stated that first of all she doesn't know if her concern with respect to [redacted] represents that which would be of interest to the Bureau and regardless at this moment she does not want to become further involved. She was told to contact our New York Office should she desire to discuss information she might possess which she feels would be of value to the Bureau.

Bureau records are negative on [redacted]. There are Bureau files on three different individuals with the name of [redacted] but it is not possible based on sketchy information to identify them with captioned individual. 25-458779 is a Selective Service case on a [redacted] who, in 1960, was being held at the New York City Penitentiary on charges of burglary and grand larceny. 138-3791 is on a different [redacted] a United Nations applicant in 1957, concerning whom there was derogatory security information. Investigation discontinued when consideration of him for position ceased. There are individual references to others by this name. SAC Baker, New York, telephonically advised.

TELEPHONE CALLS

The above individual called you on July 27, 1970 and stated she wanted to talk to you confidentially in regard to some Bureau agents. At that time I endeavored to have her talk with someone else but she declined and said she would call you again.

Miss McKay stated that she was a "United States Attorney long on record and a life long member of the Bar Association in Illinois." At the time of this call Mr. Soyars had an indices check made and found no record on her. He also checked with Chicago Office and they also had nothing on her.

She called again today and when advised you were out of the city, stated you would be sorry you were not here to receive her information. I tried to get her to talk to someone else and she flatly refused, stating she only wanted to talk to you as you have complete jurisdiction over your agents. I told her if she had any information about our agents, we would like for her to tell us. She said "I bet you would. Do I have information on your agents and does the public have information on your agents?" She said she is going to release some information to the United States Commissioner and "we would be hearing from the court," and then abruptly hung up.

Information Concerning

b7c-1 [REDACTED] said that he thought that the Agent may have been trying to trap him by first telling him it was stolen and then telling him to go ahead and sell it or whatever he wanted to do with it. [REDACTED] was assured that this could not be the case and that the FBI could not act in this manner.

b7c-1 [REDACTED] said also that he had spent about $100 in telephone calls since he was notified that the car had been stolen and wondered whether he might be able to recover this from the person who had originally reported the car stolen if the facts determined that it had either not been stolen or if that person had failed to cancel the stolen report upon recovery of the car. [REDACTED] was told that this was a matter he would have to take up with his own attorney and that the Bureau could offer no opinion.

b7c-1 On 11-14-70, at 1:05 p.m., an individual identifying himself as [REDACTED] formerly of [REDACTED] District Heights, Maryland, telephonically contacted the Extra-Duty Supervisor, General Investigative Division, stating he desired help from the Bureau with respect to a civil matter. He advised he had rented a room at the above address for 20 years and was recently "kicked out" for no apparent reason and is now penniless, walking the streets with no place to go.

He stated he was calling the Bureau as he recalled the last time he visited the Bureau (last summer), some police officers removed him from the building, made appropriate arrangements and had immediately delivered him to the Spring Grove State Hospital.

He was informed that the Bureau has no jurisdiction in such matters and that since he cannot afford legal counsel, he should visit the local office of the Legal Aid Society. He terminated the call stating he would personally visit Bureau Headquarters and attempt to see Mr. Hoover and seek his assistance in this matter.

IT

At 12:30 p. m. , 5/22/71, captioned individual telephonically contacted Extra-Duty Agent Robert J. Petersen and insisted that an FBI Agent be immediately dispatched to her residence. When inquired as to the nature of her call, she first declined to give any information other than her life was in danger. She later pointed out that she was a long-time resident of La Junta, Colorado, and the people in the community were desirous of purchasing her property and were making numerous unkind statements about her. She stated that she feared for her life. When advised of the FBI's jurisdiction in this matter, she related that she did not feel the local Sheriff John Eberly or the Chief of Police in La Junta, Colorado, could be trusted and that she intended to contact the Denver Office.

Extra-Duty Supervisor Douglas Williams, Denver Office, was telephonically advised of Miss Gaines' call at which time he related that the Denver Office was familiar with Miss Gaines as she had made various complaints to that office. He stated that in July, 1965, the Chief of Police of La Junta, Colorado, advised Miss Gaines at that time was 80 years old and was quite senile and that Gaines' neighbors assisted her as much as possible at that time in bringing food and other items of necessity to her home. Bureau files reflect in April, 1969, Gaines directed a letter to the Bureau relative to Top Ten Fugitive Cameron David Bishop reporting that she believed Bishop was in the "Cedars" a short distance from her community. Gaines interviewed. Investigation to locate Bishop negative.
