Reference is made to your request for information concerning the captioned individual subsequent to information furnished to you in 1959.

The "Daily Worker" for June 18, 1959, contained an article entitled "200 Notables Back International Workers Order Court Fight." This article revealed that 200 Americans from all parts of the United States had filed an Amicus Curiae brief with the New York Supreme Court asking dismissal of the New York Insurance Superintendent's petition to liquidate the International Workers Order. Among those reported as signers of the brief was Professor Rudolf Carnap.

The International Workers Order has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The June 20, 1959, issue of the "St. Louis Post - Dispatch" contained an article entitled "We Join Black's Dissent." This article concerned a movement sponsored by the National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions supporting a rehearing in the case of communist leaders before the Supreme Court. Rudolf Carnap was listed as one of the signers of this statement. re

Dr. Rudolf Carnap

Report Number 1282, dated October 3, 1961, stated as follows concerning the National Assembly for Democratic Rights, "On the basis of its investigations and hearings to date, the Committee concludes that the National Assembly for Democratic Rights and a coordinating and organizing group in support thereof, entitled the 'Citizens Committee for Constitutional Liberties,' are communist fronts."

(100-435817-12)

On February 13, 1962, a confidential informant who has furnished reliable information in the past provided a copy of a Petition for Clemency to the President of the United States on behalf of Carl Braden and Frank Wilkinson. This petition contained the names of approximately 3,000 individuals who supported executive clemency for Braden and Wilkinson whose appeals to the Supreme Court of the United States were denied on February 27, 1961, following conviction and sentence for contempt of Congress. Among the signatures listed in this document was that of "Rudolf Carnap, UCLA, California."

In April, 1962, a confidential informant who has furnished reliable information in the past provided a copy of a petition addressed to the President of the United States protesting the prosecution of the Communist Party under the Internal Security Act of 1950 and the application of the act to other organizations. This was accompanied by a letter soliciting signatures on the petition. This letter stated that 200 persons acting as "initiators" had earlier signed a similar petition. Among the names listed as one of the "initiators" was "Professor Rudolf Carnap, Los Angeles, California, Professor of Philosophy, University of California, L.A."
